DISCLAIMER

This book is a humble compilation of spiritual reflections shared by Anant Patel, drawn from his own contemplation on the divine discourses of Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel — founder of Vishwa Parivartak Ishwariya Vidhyalay (Ahmedabad, Gujarat, India).

Each reflection is presented in the original Hindi as it was first shared, followed by a faithful English rendering for readers across the world. The episode reference noted with each quote points to the Bapuji discourse that inspired the reflection — so that earnest seekers may listen to the original source for deeper experience.

Nothing in this book is intended as medical, psychological, financial or legal advice. The teachings here are spiritual in nature and are offered solely for inner reflection, awakening and self-realisation.

Every reader is gently invited to receive these words slowly, with an open and quiet heart — not as opinions to be argued, but as quiet reminders of what already lives within.

ABOUT ANANT PATEL

Anant Patel is a spiritual guide, meditation teacher, and a dedicated medium of the divine knowledge revealed by Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel. He has devoted his life to making profound spiritual wisdom accessible in a simple, practical, and experiential way for all seekers.

Through his daily live meditation sessions, Anant Patel has guided thousands of individuals toward self-realization, mental stability, and inner peace. His teachings are not limited to theory; they are rooted in consistent practice, self-discipline, and the direct application of knowledge in everyday life.

In the midst of the complexities of modern living, he serves as a vital bridge—bringing deep spiritual understanding into a language that is clear, relatable, and easy to absorb. Through his guidance, individuals move from confusion to clarity, from restlessness to inner stillness, and from external dependence to inner strength.

His words are not merely teachings—they are reminders. Reminders to return to oneself, to reconnect with the soul, and to experience that Paramshanti which is the true nature of the self.

This collection of quotes is an attempt to awaken that very experience—a gentle touch of profound truth expressed through simple words.

ABOUT BAPUJI

Bapuji — full name Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel, lovingly called “Dadaji” by the younger generation — was born in 1956 in the small village of Akhaj in the Mehsana district of Gujarat. He spent his childhood in another village called Ambasan, also in Mehsana.

In the early part of his life, he was a highly successful lawyer in Ahmedabad. Later, he gave up everything to realise the supreme spiritual truth and to bring this divine knowledge forward for the welfare of all humanity. Today, this supreme knowledge serves as a guiding light for true seekers who wish to return to their original source.

Despite being raised in a very poor family and facing many hardships, Bapuji carried a deep longing to transform this world of sorrow into a better place. At the young age of six, he repeatedly questioned God — asking why God remained silent about the suffering of humanity. This intense longing later led him to the highest spiritual realisation.

Even as a child, Bapuji would spend long hours alone in the fields. Due to poverty, he walked barefoot, often pricked by thorns. On his way back home in the evenings, he would sometimes encounter beings of the subtle world — experiences that quietly opened his inner doors to the unseen.

Bapuji was courageous from a young age. Alongside his studies in chartered accountancy, he gave tuition classes to support himself, and later completed his Bachelor of Law degree to become a well-known lawyer in Ahmedabad.

In 1997, he established the spiritual institution Vishwa Parivartak Ishwariya Vidhyalay in Chenpur, Ahmedabad — with the mission of transforming this mortal world of suffering into an eternal divine world. Smt. Sushma Tandon, lovingly known as “Maa,” worked alongside him in this great divine mission.

To accomplish this mission, Bapuji worked tirelessly. He would deliver continuous spiritual discourses for up to eighteen hours without rest. In these discourses he revealed the highest dimensions of divine knowledge — knowledge realised through deep meditation and divine vision in a state of superconsciousness.

His teachings cover a vast range of subjects — the celestial creators across different dimensions, the creation of our solar system, galaxy and universe, and most importantly, the transcendental knowledge of the multiverse and the realities beyond it. According to Bapuji, the highly evolved “behad souls” will play a key role in transforming this mortal world into an eternal divine realm.

At present, Bapuji remains deeply absorbed in intense meditation and samadhi for long hours. He does not meet anyone, as he is continuously immersed in his transcendental mission in a superconscious state.

PREFACE

“Gyan Daan Maha Daan”

(Sharing Knowledge is the Highest Charity)

Share to the maximum extent with all.

— by Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel

There are some words that do not need many other words around them. They arrive small, settle quietly, and then — slowly, over days, sometimes years — they begin to do their silent work within.

This book is a humble gathering of such words. The reflections here have flowed from the divine discourses of Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel, listened to deeply by Anant Patel, and shaped over time into these short lines. Every quote belongs to that listening — to that silence between Bapuji’s spoken truth and a seeker’s heart receiving it.

Each reflection appears first in its original Hindi, exactly as it was first shared, and then in a careful English rendering — so that a soul anywhere in the world may receive its meaning. Beside every quote, you will find the episode reference — so that earnest seekers can return to Bapuji’s original discourse for the deeper experience that lies behind the words.

This is not a book to be finished. It is a book to be lived with. A page a day is enough. A single reflection, sometimes, is enough — if it is allowed to settle, to breathe, to slowly do its quiet work within.

May these words walk gently with you on your path home. And in the spirit of Bapuji's eternal teaching — Gyan Daan Maha Daan — may you share them freely with every soul who is ready to receive.

HOW TO READ THIS BOOK

This is not a book to be rushed.

Read one quote at a time. Pause after each quote. Let it settle within you.

These words are not just to be read — they are to be experienced.

A simple way to walk with this book:

Choose one quiet moment in your day. Open the book at any page. Read the Hindi line first — slowly, even if you do not understand every word. Let its sound move through you. Then read the English meaning. Close your eyes. Sit with it for a few breaths. Do not analyse. Do not argue. Only let it rest in your heart.

If you read like this, even one quote can change a day. And one day, sincerely lived, can change a life.

After every set of reflections in this book, you will find a small page titled “Pause and Reflect.” Honour it. Do not skip ahead. Allow the silence between the quotes to do its silent work — for that silence, too, is a teaching.

only in indulgence loses the greatest opportunity of all.”

— Episode 1217 —

Quote 58

“संसार छोड़ना योग नहीं, मन का संसार से अलग होना ही योग है। घर-गृहस्थी छोड़ देना साधना नहीं, और जिम्मेदारियों से भाग जाना तपस्या नहीं। योग तब होता है, जब कर्तव्य निभाते हुए भी मन संसार के बंधन में न उलझे।”

“To leave the world is not yog — to detach the mind from the world is yog. Leaving home and family is not sadhana, and running away from responsibilities is not penance. Yog happens when, even while
