About Bapuji

Bapuji (full name: Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel, also lovingly called “Dadaji” by the younger generation) was born in 1956 in the small village of Akhaj in the Mehsana district of Gujarat. However, he spent his childhood in another village named Ambasan, also located in the Mehsana district.

In the early part of his life, he was a highly successful lawyer. Later, he devoted his life to realizing the supreme spiritual truth and bringing this divine knowledge forward for the welfare of humanity. Today, this supreme knowledge serves as a guiding light for true seekers to realize their ultimate destiny. It is a blessing of the highest divinity that the present time is witnessing the rise of this supreme spiritual knowledge, guiding souls on Earth to return to their original source.

Despite being raised in a very poor family and facing challenging circumstances, Bapuji had a deep desire to transform this sorrowful and suffering world into a better place. At the young age of six, he questioned God repeatedly, asking why God remained silent about the suffering of humanity. This intense longing to end human suffering eventually led him to attain the highest level of spirituality later in life.

Even as a child, Bapuji would spend hours alone in the fields, often neglecting his own comfort. Due to poverty, he would walk barefoot without shoes or sandals, frequently getting pricked by thorns. Many times, he would stay late in the fields and, on his way back home, encounter subtle world entities. These experiences sparked his interest in communicating with subtle world souls.

Bapuji was courageous from a young age, which helped him overcome many obstacles. Alongside his studies in chartered accountancy (CA), he gave tuition classes to support himself financially. Later, he completed his Bachelor of Law (LLB) degree and became a well-known lawyer in Ahmedabad.

In 1997, he established a spiritual institution called “Vishwa Parivartak Ishwariya Vidhyalay” in Chenpur, Ahmedabad, with the mission of transforming this mortal world, filled with suffering and disorder, into an eternal divine world of immortality. Smt. Sushma Tandon, lovingly known as “Maa,” worked alongside Bapuji in this grand divine mission.

To accomplish this mission, Bapuji worked tirelessly, dedicating all his resources to this divine purpose. During that time, he would deliver continuous spiritual discourses for up to 18 hours without rest. In these discourses, he explained the highest dimensions of divine knowledge, which he realized through deep meditation and divine vision in a state of superconsciousness. This knowledge goes beyond the imagination of the ordinary human mind.

Bapuji’s teachings cover a vast range of topics, including the types of celestial creators across different dimensions, the creation of our solar system, galaxy, and universe, and most importantly, the transcendental knowledge of the multiverse and realities beyond it. His knowledge is supremely profound and is intended for highly evolved seekers, referred to as “behad souls.” According to Bapuji, these “behad souls” will play a key role in transforming this mortal world into an eternal divine realm.

At present, Bapuji remains deeply engaged in intense meditation and samadhi for long hours. He does not meet anyone, as he is continuously immersed in his transcendental mission in a superconscious state.

“Gyan Daan Maha Daan”

(Sharing knowledge is the highest charity)

This book is about Bapuji’s ‘Behad Ka Gyan’ (Knowledge of the Unlimited) and his life, with the sole aim of leading humanity out of the darkness of ignorance and revealing to them the Supreme Truth. Bapuji, who was a successful lawyer, renounced all the comforts of his life to seek the answer to that eternal question — why is this world filled with suffering, and what is its solution?

Bapuji’s great goal is to transform this five-element mortal world (Mrityulok) into the imperishable world (Amarlok).

He wishes to liberate infinite souls from the endless cycle of birth and death and take them back to their original form and true home, ‘Paramdham.’

Bapuji has performed over 1,50,000 hours of tapasya; he always remains in a state of meditation.

Since 1998, his third eye has been opened, through which he has begun to directly behold the entire cosmos and infinite innumerable universes.

In meditation, he has witnessed infinite innumerable Brahmands (solar systems), galaxies, and universes being created and dissolved.

In meditation, he has witnessed ‘Mahakaal Pralay,’ where infinite innumerable universes dissolve into the fire of time (Kaal-agni).

Through his divine vision, Bapuji has personally experienced this knowledge of the Multiverse, the creation and dissolution of infinite universes, and the supreme elements — all while remaining in the state of meditation — and has given it to the world. This knowledge lies even beyond the limits of modern science.

Establishment of Paramshanti: His purpose is to awaken the 9 lakh ‘behad souls’ of the world so that, before Mahakaal Pralay, they may transform themselves into the body of the ‘Param Tatva’ (the subtle divine body) — becoming safe and becoming instruments of world welfare.

This book outlines that resolve of Bapuji, in which he is endeavouring to fill the entire creation with the light of ‘Param Shanti’ and to unite every soul with its Creator.

Chapter I

A Child Born to Change the World

13th December 1956. A small village named Akhaj in the Mehsana district of Gujarat. On this piece of earth, a great Supreme Soul took human form — a soul destined to one day transform not merely this Earth, but the entire Multiverse itself. That great Supreme Soul was Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel.

His father, Atmaram Patel — whom everyone in the village called “Bhagat” (devotee) — was a poor farmer, but a true devotee of God. His mother, Lakshmi Devi, was no ordinary woman — Bapuji’s mother was the incarnation of Jogini Devi.

Jogini Devi would draw out the subtle body of Bapuji’s mother, seat her upon her divine chariot, and take her on subtle journeys lasting two to three days. Her soul would travel through the higher realms. Bapuji belonged to a very poor family. He was exceptionally sharp in his studies and always stood first in his class. His father was a farmer. From childhood, he witnessed the sorrow, poverty, and inequality of the world. There were constant difficulties with food, and even clothes were not enough. In his childhood, he did not even have slippers to wear or proper clothes (like pants).

Bapuji in childhood used to go to his maternal uncle’s house by walking. Bapuji and his mother used to walk, and along with them villagers also used to be there. On the way, a national highway used to come. There, vehicles of that time like the Ambassador were seen passing, so all the villagers used to call that car a “kachua,” saying “the kachua is going.”

So Bapuji used to say to his mother, “I will bring you this kachua,” then Bapuji’s mother would laugh and say, “There is no certainty of food, there are no shoes on your feet, and you say you will bring a kachua.”

Similarly, Bapuji liked to live alone, he preferred a lonely life, and sometimes he used to say to his friends that “I will go to the city, study, become a C.A., and in the future I will do great things,” then everyone used to laugh at Bapuji’s talks, saying “There is no certainty of food, and he talks big.”

At that time in the village only 1-2 people studied in college, that too were children of moneylenders, and in Bapuji’s house, even food and clothing were uncertain.

Bapuji’s grandfather had planted mango trees, and the mangoes that grew on them were large, each weighing around one kilogram.

Bapuji’s grandfather had planted babool trees in the fields, and across ten bighas of land, he had also grown mango trees. The mangoes were large, each weighing around one kilogram.

♦ Insight: “In the 9th class itself, Bapuji had decided that “I will become a C.A. (Chartered Accountant).””

“— a childhood resolve”

Bapuji has also ploughed the fields. When Bapuji used to plough, his uncle would sing “shankar jatadhari nandi liya sawari,” and while ploughing the whole day, he would keep singing this.

When he went to the fields, babool thorns would pierce his feet, making life very painful. But he felt more troubled seeing the suffering of others than his own. He never cared about himself.

In the sixth grade, at night around 9, when no one was around, he would go to Hanuman ji's temple and say, "Hanuman ji, give me as much strength as you have so that I can change the whole world — this kind of world cannot continue."

Seeing this difficult life, from childhood itself a thought had taken root in Bapuji's mind — from his very childhood, a firm resolve had taken root within Bapuji — that he would study, grow up, first fulfil the responsibilities of his family, and then journey into the caves of the Himalayas in search of God. There, he would stand before the Almighty and ask the question that had stirred his soul since his earliest years: 'Why did You create such a world?' From his very childhood, Bapuji had resolved that he would change the world.

♦ Insight: "Tu neeche aake zara dekh, pair mein kaante lagte hain. Khaane ka thikana nahi hai, duniya ki haalat dekh."

"Come down here and see for yourself — thorns pierce the feet, there is no certainty of food, just look at the condition of the world."

Working in the fields under Gujarat's scorching 45-degree heat, with babool thorns piercing his bare feet, burning in the sun, the child would look up at the sky and speak directly to the Creator: "You sit up there and laugh? Come down below and see — only then will You know the suffering of this world."

He ploughed the fields, drove a bullock cart, and would sleep in the afternoon on sand or on sacks. He preferred being in open spaces and under the open sky, whereas in closed rooms in the city or in cinema halls (such as when watching the film), he felt suffocated.

Bapuji's inner world was entirely different. While other children played, questions arose in the mind of young Dashrath (Bapuji) that could never arise in the mind of an ordinary child — Bapuji would wonder: "Why was this world made like this? Who made it? Why is someone high and another low? Why is one rich and another a beggar? What is poverty? What is sorrow? People are dying, people are starving — and the One above is silent?" These questions were rising from the depths of a soul that was not that of an ordinary human. At night, he would sleep alone in the fields under a tree — guarding the crops. His father had tried to frighten him: "On the way home, there is a great banyan tree, and a Jinn lives upon it." His father would ask him, "Are you not afraid to come alone on that path at night?"

The child, without a trace of fear, replied: "I call him Jinn Brother. I speak to him. I tell him — come, help me in my work." From childhood itself, Bapuji was fearless and effortlessly communed with the souls of the subtle world — as if it were the most natural thing in the world. Bapuji was no ordinary child.

Bapuji has descended to this earth in human form for the very first time from the highest of the highest abode of the Unlimited (Behad ke Behad ki Kala ka Paramdham). When the formless (Nirakar) takes physical (Sakar) birth upon the earth, it comes with extraordinary intellect — common sense is innate in it, and the knowledge of the Formless is innate in it, for it is the incarnation of the Formless Itself.

Bapuji was raised in poverty and also carried the responsibilities of the household. Amid such a struggle-filled life, he pursued his studies. Bapuji would go to sadhus and sannyasis and ask each one, “Have you seen God?” He would attend religious discourses, readings of the Ramayana, Mahabharata, and Bhagavat; he would listen and read, and he would think — everyone is reading, but who is God? Is He with form, or formless?

When Bapuji was in the ninth standard, the principal of his school was a Brahmin who gave discourses on the Gita. So Bapuji went into his chamber and asked him — “Who is God? Is He with form, or formless?”

But the principal did not understand the innocent child’s feeling and told him: “You do not even have food to eat — go work in the field first. And here you have set out to find God!”

From childhood Bapuji searched for God, and the search for whether God was with form or formless demanded great effort from him.

The sorrow of others tormented him more than his own. At times he could not enjoy his food; seeing the condition of people, he would weep from within. He experienced a lot of hardship, but he never let it affect him. By the 5th or 6th grade, he had already decided that he would change the entire world. At night, he would go to Hanuman ji’s temple and pray for the strength to change the world, like lifting mountains. He felt deep compassion whenever he saw someone crying or hungry.

People were dying, people were starving, one human being busy putting another down — seeing all this, his heart wept. But slowly he came to understand that if the surgeon starts weeping before the surgery, how will he perform it? To change the world, firmness is needed, not sentimentality.

He would repeatedly tell his parents with complete conviction: “I shall change this world.”

“I shall create a world where there is no sorrow, where all are equal, where there is love, happiness, and peace.” This was not a dream — it was a resolve, the very resolve for which Bapuji had taken birth.

♦ Insight: “To transform the mortal world, for all time, into the immortal world.”

“— the very resolve of Bapuji’s soul”

Once a teacher demanded some money which Bapuji could not pay. For this, the teacher beat him with a stick — and it was then that Bapuji realised how terrible poverty could be.

Bapuji resolved: poverty must be removed, the world must be changed. How — he did not know. When — he did not know. But the resolve was unshakeable, unbreakable, immovable.

A plan took shape in his mind — practical and step by step: first I shall study, write, move forward. I shall earn money, and fulfil the duties of the household. Then at the age of fifty-one I shall enter the stage of Vanaprastha and go into the caves of the Himalayas to search for God. This plan had been made since childhood. But the Almighty Authority’s plan was different — to transform the entire world while living as a householder; to change the world — not merely this Earth, not merely one Brahmand, not merely infinite innumerable Brahmands, not merely the galaxy, not merely the Universe, but the Multiverse itself.

Chapter II

The Search for God — Struggle and Resolve

His maternal uncle (mama) saw his intellect and brought him to Ahmedabad. But even there, he had to pay a price for his stay — Bapuji had to do all the household work at his uncle's home.

He would walk several kilometres on foot just to save ten paise.

But his intellect was sharp. He left his chartered accountancy and became an income tax officer.

He began to win great cases, with fees running into lakhs of rupees. After entering his profession, Bapuji became familiar with such fine details (provisos) of income tax law that even retiring commissioners were unaware of them. The kind of legal arguments he used in court was remarkable. Seeing his capability, senior commissioners and judges were highly impressed and would invite him to their chambers to listen to his insights. Even the Chairman remembered him. People would constantly seek him out for free advice. During this time, he also witnessed the darker side of the world, such as deaths occurring during income tax raids, which gradually led to a sense of detachment (vairagya) within him.

But material success did not silence those deep questions. Bapuji loved the entire world. Even while he was in his profession, he observed what was happening in this world, and his mind would become sad.

Chapter III

Brahma Kumaris — The First Gateway to Knowledge

In 1987, at the age of thirty-one, Bapuji went to Brahma Kumaris. There he was given a seven-day course. And for the first time in his life, that question which had tormented him since childhood received a clear answer: “Who am I? I am a soul.” It was told on the very first day. On the second day, he received the knowledge of the Supreme Soul — that Paramatma Shiv is formless and runs the cosmos. He received the knowledge of the soul and the Supreme Soul. Before receiving the knowledge at Brahma Kumaris, Bapuji used to perform much devotion — on the path of bhakti he would worship, recite the Hanuman Chalisa, chant the Vishnu Sahasranama, visit temples — but on the path of bhakti no one had told him that he was a soul, not a body. Brahma Kumaris revealed this fundamental truth. Bapuji liked it very much.

There, Bapuji received the knowledge of Paramdham, the Subtle Region (Sukshma Vatan), and the Physical Region (Sthool Vatan) — that in Paramdham the formless souls reside. In the middle is the Subtle Region, and below is the Physical Region. In this way, a diagram of the cosmos was shown to Bapuji in their book.

The cycle from Satyuga to Kaliyuga. The reign of Krishna, the rule of Lakshmi-Narayan, Ramrajya, and then the decline. Bapuji donated crores of rupees to Brahma Kumaris. There he held VVIP status — an elderly sister from the Brahma Kumaris organization herself would call him into her room.

Bapuji would rise at three in the morning and practise the soul-conscious state (Atmaswarup). He would eat less, observe fasts, and work to keep the body light.

In that period, in the state of yog his entire body would become luminous with light. Bapuji attained a very deep practice of Atmaswarup (Soul Conscious) and had very profound experiences within it. On Sundays, he would meditate continuously for 12 hours without getting up, during which he would take only a single sip of water.

But the questions did not cease. Brahma Kumaris taught a 5000-year World Drama and said that the drama repeats identically; whatever is happening today will all be repeated again exactly as it is. This was not acceptable to Bapuji.

At Brahma Kumaris, they would call the Vedas and scriptures false — this was never acceptable to Bapuji. When it was said that ‘Shiv Baba’ entered a senior woman medium, Bapuji would be seated in the front row. At the moment of entry, the medium would receive a jolt. Bapuji had seen since childhood that when ghosts or spirits enter a person, a jolt occurs; but the formless Supreme Soul does not enter the body of another. All this did not seem right to Bapuji.

Bapuji had many centres and ashrams built for BK and gave much in donation. Bapuji recognised the value of the fundamental knowledge in BK. BK’s knowledge was primary education, the first step on the path of knowledge — but it was not the knowledge of a PhD level.

At BK, Bapuji once read a vani which said: “Every star has its own world.” Bapuji asked many people there about this — people who held great positions in BK — but no one had an answer. Yet Bapuji would think: the stars are indeed visible in the sky — and this question continued to run in his mind.

In 1993, Bapuji went to the village of Kampil. That institution was also known as Shankar Party. Bapuji made many donations there and was given VVIP status. However, even there, he was not satisfied with the knowledge he received.

Bapuji did not receive the answers to his questions here.

Bapuji's real questions — the stars, infinite universes, the nature of creation — the original mystery of all this — were what Bapuji wished to know. In 1996, Virendra Dev Dixit sent Bapuji away: "Go to Ahmedabad, build the ashram."

Bapuji earned crores of rupees, but kept nothing for himself. He gave in donation to institutions like BK and PBK, and he himself lived very simply. Two khadi kurtas — these were the clothes he wore even at home. In Bapuji's videos over fifteen years, we have all seen how simply Bapuji lives in the ashram — even today. Later, Bapuji also had an ashram built in Gurgaon.

Chapter IV

The Establishment of Vishwa Parivartak Ishwariya Vidhyalay

In 1997, Bapuji began giving knowledge in Ahmedabad. In the beginning, he shared and gave knowledge to only four or five people. Then people from institutions like BK and PBK began to come. Many people began to come. Then in Chenpur, Ahmedabad, Bapuji acquired land and established Vishwa Parivartak Ishwariya Vidhyalay, built the ashram there, and began giving knowledge. When Bapuji built the ashram in 1997, from that time onwards he began to feel that someone from above was sending inspiration (through rays), causing knowledge to emerge through Bapuji.

Going deep into Atmaswarup (soul conscious), knowledge began to emerge.

The entire cosmos became visible to him. Around 1998, Bapuji's "third eye" (the complete awakening of the soul-conscious state) opened, through which he began to perceive the entire Bramhand (solar system). He made a resolve that if there are countless infinite bramhands (solar systems) he wanted to see them directly, and gradually he began to perceive galaxies, the universe, and even the multiverse. He used to explain these visions in 1998 by drawing charts on a board, but at that time people dismissed it as "impractical" or "imaginary knowledge."

Chapter V

Meeting and Conversation with Aliens

The arrival of aliens at Bapuji's ashram began in 1998. At that time, when Bapuji used to teach the sixteen-kala knowledge of the universe on the board, several UFOs would land at the ashram. The aliens would quietly take seats in the back rows of the class and listen to the entire session with deep attraction.

Bapuji explains that these aliens came from other Bramands, other solar systems, and other galaxies. When Bapuji would speak about the entire universe, they too had a special interest in it. These beings have listened to a great deal of Bapuji's knowledge and have carried it forward — sharing it with others in the subtle realms.

In 1999 and 2000, they came regularly and communicated. However, Bapuji did not tell anyone about this at the time — twenty years ago, no one was prepared to believe such things.

Regarding the aliens' ship, Bapuji's clear experience is that it is typically round in shape. Ten to fifteen aliens travel together in a single sphere (ship). The aliens themselves are not like the image shown in films — tall, thin, with elongated limbs and a humanoid appearance. Their size depends on their will (sankalp) — they can be anywhere from one foot to ten feet tall. They can make themselves small or large at will, because they possess bodies made of Param Tattvas (supreme elements) which can transform through thought alone.

Some aliens arrive in vehicles made of Param Tattva, while others come in lighter vehicles made of the three elements — so that no one can detect them. Along with them, thousands of souls from the subtle realm also come. Even ghosts and spirits (bhoot-pret) sometimes come to listen to the knowledge, though their minds cannot truly grasp it.

Bapuji makes an important distinction clear — aliens are high-quality souls and do not enter (possess) human beings. Only ghosts and spirits do that, and they are extremely low-quality souls.

But people could not grasp this knowledge with their intellect, and they called the knowledge given by Bapuji ‘hawaii gyan’ (airy/imaginary knowledge).

When Bapuji began watching the National Geographic Channel and programs related to space, he felt that the world was progressing and becoming capable of understanding. At that point, Bapuji began to impart knowledge.

Bapuji revealed this knowledge — that one Solar System means one Brahmand. Shiv is its formless master. A galaxy contains 800 billion suns, meaning 800 billion Brahmands, with Mahashiv at the centre — what science calls a Black Hole — and all the suns are revolving because of its gravity. Billions of galaxies together form a Universe, and beyond that are innumerable Multiverses. This knowledge did not come from any book — it was being revealed on its own from the depths of Atmaswarup. All this knowledge began to emerge naturally within Bapuji. The deeper he went into the practice of Atmaswarup — that is, into Soul Consciousness — the more the knowledge continued to emerge.

Chapter VI

Bapuji's Physical Condition, Health and Diet

The period from 1997 to 2002 was extremely difficult for Bapuji in physical terms. During that time, demonic forces (asurs) created such immense troubles that due to hypertension, Bapuji developed both blood pressure and diabetes. His sugar level rose to 500 — he had to take insulin, up to nearly 40 points. While ascending to the higher realms he would experience boundless bliss, but upon returning to body-consciousness, he would find demonic forces standing all around him. Not just one, but many very powerful ones.

The change came gradually. Bapuji stopped paying attention to these demonic forces and descended deeper into the depths of knowledge — making the scriptures emerge, making the Bramand emerge, continuously making knowledge emerge from within. As he became more firmly established in the soul-conscious state (aatm-swaroop), his blood pressure and sugar levels gradually normalized. Insulin was completely discontinued. Today he takes only one mild tablet for blood pressure — and that too only at the insistence of doctor-friends, consuming it “like chocolate.”

Physical State During Meditation

In deep meditation, Bapuji's heartbeat nearly stops or becomes extremely slow. The entire body transforms into a body of light. There is no experience of body-consciousness at all — one cannot even tell whether the heartbeat is running or has stopped.

A doctor checking at such a moment might still detect a heartbeat, because Bapuji is not completely in the avyakt (unmanifest) state — he is in the “vyakt mein avyakt swaroop” (manifest-yet-unmanifest form). If he were to become fully unmanifest, the purpose of transforming the world could not be fulfilled. Therefore, remaining manifest is essential — this is the very aim of his life: to transform the world, the Bramand, the Maha Bramand, the galaxy, the universe, the multiverse — everything.

Chapter VII

The Vedas, Scriptures, and the Great Discovery

Bapuji had read in the scriptures that at every moment universes are being created and destroyed. So Bapuji wondered: “At every moment of whom?” Then, when Bapuji looked within Atmaswarup, he received the knowledge that at every moment of Mahashiv, infinite universes are being created and destroyed.

Shiv is the master of one Brahmand; Mahashiv of the galaxy; Param Mahashiv of the Universe.

When Bapuji became established in Atmaswarup — that is, going beyond body consciousness (dehbhan) into soul consciousness (atmaswarup) — he could see the entire process of the creation of the cosmos, how the universe was formed. The planets, satellites, and the invisible (avyakta) which cannot be seen with these physical eyes — Bapuji would teach all this knowledge. Earlier, Bapuji would teach on the board for eight hours at a stretch. Then Bapuji would describe the Maha Brahmand (Galaxy), the Param Maha Brahmand (Universe), and thus infinite Universes from G1 to G17 — the Universes that exist within our Multiverse — all of which he saw with his divine vision and taught.

For many years he has taught, and on the subject of how the infinite innumerable universes are formed and dissolved, a book came into being (‘Anant Koti Brahmando Ka Mahakaal Pralay’ — ‘The Great Dissolution of Infinite Innumerable Universes’).

This is the knowledge that Bapuji gave. Then, as the tools of modern science advanced, his son Shri Anant Patel Ji began uploading videos of Bapuji’s knowledge onto YouTube.

Gradually, Bapuji’s voice began reaching home after home through the medium of the internet. The Knowledge that once echoed within the four walls of Paramshanti Bhawan now began reaching every corner of the world. From America, Canada, Singapore, Nepal, Dubai, Norway — from every continent, seeking souls began connecting with Bapuji’s words. On the Paramshanti YouTube channel, millions began listening to this Supreme Knowledge, and in no time this number reached crores.

Shri Anant Patel Ji did not limit his work to merely uploading videos. He took Bapuji’s interviews and podcasts, and through the medium of YouTube spread this Knowledge across the world — carrying Bapuji’s teachings to humanity on every subject: the soul, the Supreme Soul (Parmatma), the creation of Bramand, life after death, reincarnation, the five vices, Paramdham, and the signs of the end times. In this great undertaking, Bapuji’s daughter-in-law Sakshi Patel also stood beside him, offering her wholehearted support.

The YouTube channel has been running for fifteen years; today it has 16 million+ subscribers.

Bapuji has given knowledge on every subject — karma, moksha, extraterrestrials (aliens), life after death, life on other planets, when their creation came into being, how long they have existed, and who created them. This entire multiverse, and even the worlds beyond the Multiverse, are all living; there is a consciousness that has created them. Nothing has come into being on its own. He has brought all this knowledge down to this Earth through his divine vision. All of this knowledge Bapuji has directly beheld in the state of Atmaswarup — and whatever he has seen, that alone has he taught. Bapuji has to make an effort to remain in the physical (corporeal) state. His state often becomes incorporeal, where he begins to perceive the entire higher system. Once, Bapuji's "body of light" rose so high that it became very difficult for him to return to his physical body. To maintain this state and remain grounded in the body, he sometimes has to take half a sleeping pill.

Chapter VIII

Bapuji's Experiences in Yog / Meditation

Bapuji gained the experience of more than 150,000 hours of penance (Tapasya).

During meditation, Bapuji would have such intense experiences that his entire being would transform into a “light body” (a form of pure light). After such states, he would be unable to walk normally or drive, and he would have to sit outside the yoga room in order to return to body consciousness.

During deep meditation, Bapuji's body would become completely luminous — filled with light. In this state, he would lose his physical consciousness, making it impossible for him even to drive a car or walk on foot. He had to make considerable effort to bring himself back into “dehbhaan” (body-consciousness). In this elevated state of yoga, the beats of his body would become extremely slow — almost as if they had stopped.

In meditation, he witnessed infinite innumerable Bramands being formed and dissolved in every moment. By 2012, he had clear experiences of the Multiverse, in which crores of Bramands and their varying colour-combinations became visible to him. Bapuji made it clear that during meditation, his soul does not leave the body — rather, it remains within. In the higher dimensions, he possesses an “Akari Rup” (a divine form of light), which helps him to emerge cosmic knowledge and deliver its report. This Akari Rup is made of pure white light — the Supreme Light.

Being established in Atmaswarup had its effect on his physical life as well. His working capacity increased to such an extent that he would complete one hour of complex office work in merely ten minutes. On the physical level, he brought serious ailments such as sugar levels of 500 and high blood pressure under control through the power of yoga alone.

Chapter IX

Not Destruction, but Transformation

— The Rise of Param Shanti

From 2010 onwards, Bapuji also read in the scriptures that Ardh Pralay, Pralay, and Kalp Pralay continue to occur. When Mahakalp Pralay occurs, the entire cosmos ends. In such Mahakalp Pralay, the entire Maha Brahmand (Galaxy) is dissolved. And what is not written in the scriptures, Bapuji has also seen with his divine vision — our Universe too has dissolved sixteen times, and this is the seventeenth time it has been formed. Within the Universe are infinite-infinite galaxies. The Multiverse too has dissolved twice, and now has been formed for the third time. When Bapuji would see all this with his divine vision, at that very time he would go and teach it at the blackboard.

The Brahma Kumaris institution had already been saying that destruction would now come, but Bapuji did not like the word “destruction” at all. He did not wish to see anyone in sorrow. Bapuji wanted positive transformation. And how would this happen — for this, Bapuji gave the knowledge: the knowledge of elemental transformation (Tatva Parivartan). Tatva Parivartan means the transformation of the world of physical elements — the world that is visible to these eyes — into Supreme Elements (Param Tatva): the establishment of such a world in which no one will ever die, no sorrow will exist, only peace, happiness, and bliss will remain; where this physical body will not exist, but a body of light, a body that can fly. Many videos about this coming new world are available on Bapuji's YouTube channel.

In 2015, Bapuji gave the knowledge of 21 Generations. Just as there is one Multiverse, so too are there infinite Multiverses. From Generation 1 up to Generation 21, Bapuji brought this knowledge down to this Earth. Then, gradually, beyond this — the Kala of Behad, that which has no limit — Behad (limitless, infinite) Brahmands, their very creation — all of this knowledge Bapuji has given.

Bapuji gave the Paramshanti Mantra:

♦ Insight: “Think and speak ‘Behad ki Paramshanti’ — and Paramshanti shall be attained.”

“— the Paramshanti Mantra”

This entire creation is based on vibration (spandan), and the original source of vibration is the sankalp — the thought or resolve. Just as, from a single sankalp of the formless Mahashiv, the creation of infinite innumerable solar systems is said to take place, in the same way it is Supreme Knowledge alone — the pure thought — that becomes the cause of transformation. Through the vibrations of Paramshanti, negativity and disease-causing influences grow weak, the atmosphere becomes pure, and a person's aura becomes positive. Through these vibrations, balance returns to the five elements of nature, and positive transformation begins. Bapuji explains that when a person becomes established in Atmaswarup and experiences Paramshanti, transformation first comes in oneself, then in the family, and finally transformation becomes possible in the world.

Bapuji says: the world is so vast that it is beyond the imagination of the ordinary human mind. How vast is the Behad world — what are the scientists saying, how vast is the Universe? In 1997, when Bapuji used to teach on the board, aliens would come to the ashram in their UFOs and, after listening to the knowledge, depart. For many years now, Bapuji has been giving the knowledge of the Brahmand, Galaxy, Universe, Multiverse, and Black Hole at the Ahmedabad ashram. Bapuji gave the knowledge first; the scientific discoveries came later.

Today, science too accepts the galaxy and the universe; it accepts the Black Hole. And what Bapuji had said many years ago — which people at that time called ‘hawaii gyan’ (airy/imaginary knowledge) — science is now providing the proof for. Yet even today, science has not come to know even 1% of the truth. And Bapuji has already given the knowledge of the infinite creation to the world.

When Bapuji began deep practice of the soul-conscious state, it became difficult for him to remain in body consciousness. After 2018, he stopped traveling and going out of the house. Now, Bapuji does not go outside.

Chapter X

A Message for Humanity — Awaken Now, or Never

Bapuji's message is so vast that in order to understand it, one must expand the intellect with Supreme Knowledge. The very first subject: Gyan — Knowledge. The soul's journey always begins with Knowledge.

Bapuji says: "Do not be a frog in the well. Keep the intellect open. Become a fish of the Ocean of Knowledge, not of a small pond. Wherever knowledge is found, take a bucket and fill it. And keep the ultimate goal — I must reach the Almighty Authority; I want the knowledge of the Final Authority."

What does the Gita say? "I am not attained through chanting, penance, or meditation — I am attained through Knowledge alone." That is why Krishna said: "The soul of true knowledge is especially dear to Me." So first take Knowledge; go into the depths of Knowledge.

This human life is extremely precious. This time which is unfolding — the end of Kaliyuga, the Day of Judgement — is so precious that whoever now awakens, takes Knowledge, establishes connection with the Almighty Authority — he shall cross over from the mortal world. Beyond the Brahmand, beyond the Galaxy, beyond the Universe — up to Paramdham — where there is no birth, no death, no sorrow; only the eternal light of Param Shanti. Maha Maha Maha Param Param Param Amarlok (Immortal world).

Those who remain asleep, trapped in the five vices — lust, anger, greed, attachment, and ego — will wander in darkness, birth after birth, having forgotten their original light. From the power of infinite suns, the soul has today diminished into zero — man has become a bulb of zero volts.

Bapuji says: awaken now — now, or never. The end time is near, and all must return home. Every soul must, through Knowledge, come to know its own creation and its Creator — and attain Param Shanti.

In his discourses, Bapuji repeatedly explains a profound truth — Knowledge is of two kinds. One is worldly knowledge — that which nourishes the body, sharpens the intellect, and brings name and wealth in the world — but it does not liberate the soul. This knowledge remains within the cycle of birth and death. The other is Behad Ka Gyan — the Knowledge of the Limitless — that which carries one beyond all boundaries. It is the Knowledge that reveals who the soul is, where it has come from, where it must go, and what the path is to reach that Supreme Authority.

*Wandering in the darkness of ignorance, far from their Creator through the ages, caught in the cycle of birth and death,
to all those souls who have forgotten the path back home — may this knowledge illuminate your way, reveal the path from the mortal world to the immortal, and lead you home to your Creator.*

Such questions are discussed that compel a human being to understand their own existence. While progressing on the path of spirituality, to understand the unspoken mysteries connected to oneself and the Supreme, do watch the videos given above. Surely, your life will change.

In 2013, Bapuji's worldly (Lokik) son, Anant Patel, who used to manage Bapuji's firm, left his legal profession and dedicated himself to Bapuji's mission of world welfare. In 2015, the YouTube channel was started, and he began taking Bapuji's interviews daily. Along with Anant ji, his wife Sakshi Patel joined and carried this journey forward, and later started the “Paramshanti Motivation and Meditation” channel.

That channel also has 1000+ live meditation episodes. During the time of Corona, Anant bhai started live meditations, and till now around 1500 episodes have been completed.

Bapuji Insights

A selection of Bapuji's own luminous sayings — in his original voice — with their English meaning.

◆ 1. “Bachpan se hi mera uddeshya duniya ko badalna tha.”

“Since childhood, my aim has been to change the world.”

◆ 2. “Parmatma jap, tap, dhyan se nahi — gyan se milte hai.”

“God is not attained through chanting, penance, or meditation — God is attained through true knowledge.”

◆ 3. “Yog maana connection — kisse connection? Almighty Authority se, Parbrahm Parmeshwar se, saare jahaan ke noor se.”

“Yoga means connection — connection with whom? With the Almighty Authority, with the Supreme Brahm (God), with the Light of all the worlds.”

◆ 4. “Hamara lakshya hai — Mrityu Lok ko Amar Lok banana.”

“Our goal is to transform the world of death (mortal realm) into the world of immortality.”

“Don't be a frog in a well — be a fish of the Ocean of Knowledge. Don't settle for a mere pond of knowledge; dive deep into the Ocean of Knowledge and churn the Ocean of Thought."

◆ 6. "Asambhav koi cheez nahi hai."

"Nothing is impossible."

◆ 7. "Main apne aap ko hamesha Vishwa Sevadhari samajhta hoon."

"I always consider myself a servant of the entire universe (a world-server)."

◆ 8. "Satya hamesha kadwa hota hai — main kadwi baat hi bolta hoon, kyunki wahi Param Satya hai."

"Truth is always bitter — I speak only the bitter truth, because that alone is the Ultimate Truth (Param Satya)."

◆ 9. "Har sitaron par apni-apni duniya hai."

"Every star has its own world (its own civilization/realm)."

◆ 10. "Shastron mein itna gyan hai, itna gyan hai — usme Anant Koti Brahmando ka varnan hai."

"The scriptures contain immense knowledge — they describe infinite billions of universes (Anant Koti Brahmand)."

◆ 11. "Atma swarup mein sthit ho jao — har prashn ka jawab tumhe mil jayega."

"Establish yourself in the soul-conscious state (Atma Swarup) — every question's answer will come to you."

♦ 12. “Mahashiv, Mahakaal banke Anant Koti Brahmando ko apne rom-rom mein samet leta hai.”

“Mahashiv, in the form of Mahakaal, absorbs infinite billions of universes within every pore of His being.”

♦ 13. “Shiv aur Mahashiv ka bhed log nahi samajhte — Shivratri aur Mahashivratri ka bhed bhi nahi samajhte.”

“People do not understand the difference between Shiv and Mahashiv — nor between Shivratri and Mahashivratri.”

♦ 14. “Behad ka Baap, behad ke bachchon se behad ki baatein karta hai.”

“The Infinite Father speaks infinite (cosmic) truths to His infinite children.”

♦ 15. “Vinaash nahi — positively parivartan hona chahiye, taaki atmaon ko Param Anand aur Jeevan Mukti mil jaye.”

“Not destruction — there should be a positive transformation, so that souls attain Supreme Bliss and liberation-in-life (Jeevan Mukti).”

♦ 16. “Param Shanti ke vibrations poori duniya mein failao.”

“Spread the vibrations of Supreme Peace (Param Shanti) throughout the entire world.”

♦ 17. “Gyan refining aur changing hota rehta hai — jaise-jaise atma upar uthti hai, gyan aur clear hota jata hai.”

“Knowledge keeps refining and evolving — as the soul rises higher, the knowledge becomes clearer and deeper.”

♦ 18. “Sabse pehla subject hai Gyan — jitna gyan hoga, utna yog lagega, utni swayam ki seva hogi, aur utna jeevan mein dharan kar paoge.”

“The first and foremost subject is Knowledge — the more knowledge you have, the deeper your yoga (connection) will be, the greater your self-service, and the more you will be able to embody it in life.”

♦ 19. “Bina Param Gyan ke kuch hone wala nahi hai — yahi gyan ant mein atma ko Parmatma banayega, jeev se Shiv banayega.”

“Without the Supreme Knowledge, nothing real can happen — it is this knowledge alone that will ultimately transform the soul into the Supreme Soul, the living being (jeev) into Shiv.”

♦ 20. “Shuruat mein 98-99 mein mere ashram mein kayi UFO utre hain. Class mein peechhe baith jaate the. Aisa maine tab se aaj tak mehsoos kiya hai.”

“In the beginning, during 1998-99, many UFOs landed at my ashram. They would sit at the back of the class. I have felt this from then until today.”

Sharing Knowledge is the Highest Charity

— Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel

Autobiography of Bapuji

This autobiography is not merely the story of a life, but the account of a divine journey - where the questions arising in the mind of a young child lead him to the ultimate truth of the soul, the Supreme, and the entire creation.

Beginning in a small village of Mehsana, this journey expands into the profound mysteries of the cosmos - reaching the depths of galaxies, the universe, and the multiverse. This book is the story of a powerful resolve - the great purpose of transforming the mortal world into an eternal realm of immortality.

This is not just meant to be read, but to awaken, to realize your true existence, and to move toward that state of Paramshanti, which is the ultimate destination of the soul.
