About Bapuji

Bapuji (full name: Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel, also lovingly called “Dadaji” by the younger generation) was born in 1956 in the small village of Akhaj in the Mehsana district of Gujarat. However, he spent his childhood in another village named Ambasan, also located in the Mehsana district.

In the early part of his life, he was a highly successful lawyer. Later, he devoted his life to realizing the supreme spiritual truth and bringing this divine knowledge forward for the welfare of humanity. Today, this supreme knowledge serves as a guiding light for true seekers to realize their ultimate destiny. It is a blessing of the highest divinity that the present time is witnessing the rise of this supreme spiritual knowledge, guiding souls on Earth to return to their original source.

Despite being raised in a very poor family and facing challenging circumstances, Bapuji had a deep desire to transform this sorrowful and suffering world into a better place. At the young age of six, he questioned God repeatedly, asking why God remained silent about the suffering of humanity. This intense longing to end human suffering eventually led him to attain the highest level of spirituality later in life.

Even as a child, Bapuji would spend hours alone in the fields, often neglecting his own comfort. Due to poverty, he would walk barefoot without shoes or sandals, frequently getting pricked by thorns. Many times, he would stay late in the fields and, on his way back home, encounter subtle world entities. These experiences sparked his interest in communicating with subtle world souls.

Bapuji was courageous from a young age, which helped him overcome many obstacles. Alongside his studies in chartered accountancy (CA), he gave tuition classes to support himself financially. Later, he completed his Bachelor of Law (LLB) degree and became a well-known lawyer in Ahmedabad.

In 1997, he established a spiritual institution called “Vishwa Parivartak Ishwariya Vidhyalay” in Chenpur, Ahmedabad, with the mission of transforming this mortal world, filled with suffering and disorder, into an eternal divine world of immortality. Smt. Sushma Tandon, lovingly known as “Maa,” worked alongside Bapuji in this grand divine mission.

To accomplish this mission, Bapuji worked tirelessly, dedicating all his resources to this divine purpose. During that time, he would deliver continuous spiritual discourses for up to 18 hours without rest. In these discourses, he explained the highest dimensions of divine knowledge, which he realized through deep meditation and divine vision in a state of superconsciousness. This knowledge goes beyond the imagination of the ordinary human mind.

Bapuji’s teachings cover a vast range of topics, including the types of celestial creators across different dimensions, the creation of our solar system, galaxy, and universe, and most importantly, the transcendental knowledge of the multiverse and realities beyond it. His knowledge is supremely profound and is intended for highly evolved seekers, referred to as “behad souls.” According to Bapuji, these “behad souls” will play a key role in transforming this mortal world into an eternal divine realm.

At present, Bapuji remains deeply engaged in intense meditation and samadhi for long hours. He does not meet anyone, as he is continuously immersed in his transcendental mission in a superconscious state.

Preface

Gyan Daan Maha Daan

(Sharing Knowledge is the highest charity — share to the maximum extent with all.) — Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel

This book presents the profound teachings of Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel on one of the most important subjects in spiritual life: the distinction between mukti (salvation) and jeevan mukti (immortal liberation). While many seekers use these terms interchangeably, Bapuji reveals that they represent fundamentally different stages of the soul's journey.

Mukti is the merging of the soul into the supreme light, where individual existence ceases. Jeevan mukti, on the other hand, is the supreme state where the soul lives freely in an immortal world, entirely free from the bondage of karma. This book traces the soul's journey from the physical world through the seven celestial planes, all the way to the supreme abode and beyond.

The teachings here are drawn directly from Bapuji's discourses. No external interpretation or addition has been made. The reader is encouraged to approach these pages with an open heart and a quiet mind.

A Note on the Source Discourse

This book is based on the original Hindi discourses delivered by Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel, recorded and made available through the Param Shanti YouTube channel. The content has been carefully refined from spoken discourse into written form, while preserving the complete purity and authenticity of Bapuji's teachings.

Hindi and Sanskrit spiritual terms are italicised on their first use and defined in the glossary at the end of this book. Readers are encouraged to watch the original video discourses for the full experience.

I

CHAPTER ONE

Mukti and Moksha — Are They the Same?

In the path of devotion, known as bhaktimarg, it is generally believed that mukti and moksha are the same. Devotees follow various methods described in the scriptures to achieve liberation, and on that basis, they consider mukti and moksha to be one and the same.

However, in gyanmarg — the path of knowledge — moksha and mukti are different.

Souls undergo austerities across many births to attain moksha. Many knowledgeable souls define moksha as merging oneself into Brahm. But according to knowledge, this is actually mukti, not moksha.

Brahm is the white light of the incorporeal Shiv — the power of Param Prakash, like a ball of fire element of the sun. Mahashiv is an even greater light of Param Prakash and is the master of the galaxy, presiding over billions of Shivs.

Those who consider themselves as Brahmrishi or Brahmgyani, they aspire to merge themselves into Brahm — the radiance of Param Prakash, also called Jyotiswaroop or Nirakar. They believe that prolonged worship of this light will eventually merge them into it. The soul becomes one with the light.

After becoming one with the light, the individual existence of the soul ceases. This is taken as moksha in common understanding, but in knowledge it is mukti.

Mukti means the soul merges its existence in light. If the existence of the soul remains, it cannot be called mukti.

— Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel

For example, consider a drop of sea water. When it mixes with the sea, it dissolves its individual existence. Similarly, the incorporeal Shiv in the supreme abode is Param Prakash, and followers perform austerity for thousands of years to merge into it.

II

CHAPTER TWO

Can Gods and Goddesses Grant Mukti?

Gods and goddesses themselves make efforts for mukti. They reside in the third lok, known as Swargalok (heaven). They do not possess enough power in their soul to travel to the fourth lok, the Maharlok.

So as long as they have power, they remain in the state of gods and goddesses in the third lok. After the exhaustion of their power, they descend into human form.

As per the guidelines given in Hindu scriptures, there is only one way to attain moksha — to merge into Brahm. Everyone wishes for moksha and follows various paths to reach that state. Nobody wants to return to the cycle of eighty-four lakh births.

III

CHAPTER THREE

The Determined Soul's Journey

After many births in the rotation of eighty-four lakh births, a soul gets a small chance to make efforts for moksha. Most souls remain engrossed in the attractions of this illusive world. Slowly, a person becomes so deeply engaged in the activities of social life that he forgets his main objective of birth.

But some souls take birth with great determination to continue their journey towards moksha. Such determined souls know from the beginning that all worldly attractions are illusion. From childhood, they are inclined towards spiritual people — saints and sages — and perform austerities under their guidance.

These powerful souls carry the thought of attaining moksha deep within their soul from many previous births. In every birth, this thought emerges and eventually the soul gets a chance to attain moksha in one particular birth.

He realises the value of human birth and continues his efforts towards his supreme goal, irrespective of all maya around.

— Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel

Such a soul begins to free himself from all his karma bandhana (bondage of karma). These souls are very knowledgeable because their spiritual journey started many births ago.

IV

CHAPTER FOUR

The Cosmic Timeline of Mukti

In the series of ardh pralaya, pralaya, kalp pralaya, and maha kalp pralaya, Brahma's one hundred years are completed. The time period of this brahmand ends, and at that moment, Shiv enters the sun to create Kalagni, winding up the entire brahmand along with all souls.

Kalagni means the speed of time lapses out. This happens in the last moment.

Souls with knowledge know that presently Brahma's second parardh is ongoing. The first parardh — fifty years of Brahma — has already been completed. There is a very long time remaining before maha kalp pralaya, when souls receive mukti.

Those making efforts for moksha will not wait for such a long period. They desperately want to escape the cycle of eighty-four lakh births and continue their journey towards their goal, because they have been making efforts not only in this birth but from many previous births.

CHAPTER FIVE

The Process of Merging into Brahm

For a soul determined to attain mukti, the first requirement is knowledge of soul consciousness — the realisation that “I am a soul.” Brahm means Nirakar Paramatma — the incorporeal Shiv — and the aim of his life is to merge into Nirakar Paramatma in Paramdham.

After many births, the soul goes into the deep interiors of forests to pursue his soul journey, remaining aloof from all distractions. There he goes into deep study of Brahm and performs austerity in caves.

Activation of the Energy Centres

In the beginning, the seeker recites the sound of OM, by which energy from the Muladhar Chakra rises up to the eighth Agya Chakra. When the Agya Chakra opens, the soul experiences the realisation of soul consciousness and a lighted body.

With great effort and in soul consciousness, the seeker remembers Nirakar Brahm in the supreme abode. Through continuous practice, the Sahasragar — located above the soul — opens up. When the Sahasragar opens, the soul connects with all brahmands.

This connection is also known as the activation of Kundalini. The subtle form of the soul emerges from the tenth chakra on top of the head.

Requirements for This Path

One requires at least twelve years of brahmacharya (celibacy), by which the energy of the Muladhar Chakra rises above the eighth Agya Chakra. After many years of austerity, the realisation of soul consciousness happens, and it takes many more years to open the tenth chakra.

Nothing can disturb the seeker in this tapasya — not even death. When someone worships Brahm in incorporeal form, the Almighty Authority of this brahmand is Shiv. Even if a situation arises due to karmic account and the time of death comes, Yamraj will not disturb the seeker.

Nobody can interfere between the Brahmgyani and his worship. It is a rule. It is a sin if somebody interferes in his worship and tapasya.

— Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel

There are numerous Brahmrishis in high mountains even today. They meet no one, do not eat or drink, and spend their time in meditation and austerity. They know that meeting and eye contact can transfer their powers to others. That is why spiritual yogis never meet anyone.

VI

CHAPTER SIX

The Soul's Ascent Through the Seven Lokas

The soul in its subtle body travels upward through various dimensions. From Bhulok to Bhuvarlok, the soul performs spiritual efforts to reach the third lok — Swargalok.

In Swargalok, there is also the danger of attraction. The distractions of heaven are double those of earth. But if the soul has knowledge that all that is seen is illusion, and if the soul is not careful it will be trapped, but when realisation happens then it continues its journey upward.

From Swargalok, the soul moves to Maharlok. In Maharlok, great Brahmrishis teach and guide the soul for its further journey. From Maharlok to Janlok, then Taplok, Brahmapuri, and Vishnupuri.

Vishnupuri — The Abode of Supreme Bliss

When the soul reaches Vishnupuri, it takes rest for a while. Though the soul has knowledge of its higher journey to Shivpuri, it meditates and performs austerity in Vishnupuri to have the vision of Vishnu.

Vishnulok is as vast as all seven loks put together. After the vision of Vishnu, the soul experiences Paramsukh — supreme bliss. In Vishnulok, the body is fifty percent paramtatva and fifty percent three tatvas.

Shivpuri and the Supreme Abode

The soul then moves to Shivpuri, the residence of Shiv and Shakti in subtle form, a world of paramtatva. The soul continues performing austerity there.

After meeting Shiv Shakti, the soul goes to the supreme abode, where it transforms into the kevalya or incorporeal state. A body in any form — whether incorporeal, supreme causal, causal, subtle, or physical — is the cause of karma bandhana.

When the soul gets freedom from all its karmic account, it becomes nirakar (incorporeal) and gains entry into the supreme abode, where there is no body. The soul in light form merges into the incorporeal form of Shiv. This is called mukti — where there is no existence of the soul.

VII

CHAPTER SEVEN

The Mystery of Karma and the Elements

The mystery of karma is deeply connected to the elements that make up the soul's various bodies. Austerity makes the soul powerful. When the soul gains enough power, the subtle body emerges outside the physical body during the realisation of soul consciousness.

The Five-Element Account

When the tenth chakra opens, the account of the five elements is completed, and the soul crosses this mortal world. The soul then enters the subtle world, where the effect of the air element is stronger.

In the subtle world, the soul performs austerity which lightens the air element and increases the ether element. When the air element decreases and the ether element increases, the soul gains power to move to higher dimensions.

The Three-Element Account

When the effect of the air element finishes and the body is filled with ether element, the speed of the soul increases and it reaches Brahmapuri. When the account of three elements is settled, the soul reaches Vishnulok.

There, the account of paramtatva — the causal body — must be settled. After this, the super causal body must be settled in Shivpuri. Each layer of the soul's covering must be dissolved through sustained meditation and austerity.

How Karmic Accounts Are Cleared

The recording of every karmic account exists in the causal body. How does the soul clear all these accounts? Through meditation.

In meditation, the soul gains power. This power charges the causal body within the gross body. The causal body is made of akash tatva (ether element). When the ether element builds up, the realisation of soul consciousness occurs and the tenth chakra opens.

VIII

CHAPTER EIGHT

The Sages Who Practice for Thousands of Years

Great sages and saints perform austerity for thousands of years across many yugantars. One yugantar is the total of four yugas, and the period of Kalyug alone is 4,32,000 years. Dwapar is double this, Treta is triple, and Satyug is four times.

These sages know that after the completion of four yugas, ardh pralaya happens. That is why they practise on top of mountains. They are not annihilated even after the completion of seventy-one yugantars — one manvantar. They practise for many kalpas.

During kalp pralaya, they are aware in advance that annihilation of three loks is going to happen. In two to four yugantars of practice, their subtle body does not take much time to emerge from the body to continue tapasya in Maharlok.

Many perform austerity for many yugantars to settle the karmic account of numerous births, so that the soul receives power. The causal body gets charged when the soul receives power, and the karmatit state begins. Then the subtle body comes out of the physical body.

IX

CHAPTER NINE

From Shiv to Mahashiv — The Galactic Journey

When the soul in the supreme abode realises that from a jeev it has become equivalent to Shiv, filled with shivtatva and paramtatva, it gains knowledge of Mahashiv and prepares itself for the onward journey.

There are many groups of incorporeal souls in Paramdham. By the time the soul reaches this stage, the physical body on earth has long decayed. This journey from Bhulok to Paramdham takes a very long time. One second in Brahmapuri is equal to one lakh years on earth.

The Journey to the Centre of the Galaxy

To reach Mahashiv at the centre of the galaxy, the soul cannot go directly. It must continuously make efforts from Maha Indra to Maha Brahma, and from Maha Brahma to Maha Vishnu, and then to Mahashiv.

Outside the layer of Maha Indra, there are six layers. The soul first gains entry into these six layers. With efforts and the permission of Maha Indra, the soul goes to Maha Brahma. With the permission of Maha Brahma, the soul goes to Maha Vishnupuri. From Maha Vishnupuri to Maha Shivpuri, where the soul meets sixteen thousand Maha Shaktis who control the galaxies.

These Maha Shaktis are like a mother to the soul. The soul feels that it has everything and no desire is left. If the soul wishes to create a brahmand, the Maha Shakti would bless it with enough power for creation. The soul becomes Shiv and can make a brahmand.

Some souls choose to merge within Maha Param Prakash and dissolve their existence in Mahashiv. This is known as Maha Mukti — super salvation.

X

CHAPTER TEN

Beyond Mahashiv — The Journey to Param Mahashiv

Many souls want to create a brahmand. Others think of the further journey to Param Mahashiv — the master of the universe. Shiv is the soul's father, Mahashiv is the grandfather, and now the soul wants to meet its great-grandfather.

High-quality, powerful souls — similar to angels — can travel to Param Mahashiv. Groups of one to two thousand such souls travel together in incorporeal light form, journeying to the centre of the galaxy or to the universe.

But to reach there is a very great challenge. The soul can reach with the speed of Param Prakash (supreme divine light). The speed of light is approximately three lakh kilometres per second. The speed of Param Prakash is crore times more than the speed of light. That is why such souls keep on travelling.

Soul is eternal, indestructible and immortal.

— Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel

XI

CHAPTER ELEVEN

Jeevan Mukti — The Supreme State of the Soul

If the soul does not want mukti in the supreme abode of this brahmand and has reached Mahashiv and Maha Shakti, then it will receive jeevan mukti. Mukti and jeevan mukti are fundamentally different.

If the soul has reached Vishnupuri, it is eligible for jeevan mukti. Feeling free from all knots of karma in life is jeevan mukti. A soul that has reached Vaikunth is free from karma bandhana.

There is jeevan mukti in Vishnupuri, Shivpuri, Paramdham, Maha Paramdham, and in Param Param Maha Paramdham.

The Meaning of Jeevan Mukti

Jeevan mukti means the immortal state of the soul — an immortal world — the supreme abode where the soul lives freely without any karma bandhana. When the soul reaches the karmatit stage, that state is called jeevan mukti.

In this stage, the soul goes to the supreme abode in incorporeal form. Free from any trace of karma, in incorporeal form and in a knowledgeable state, the soul experiences divya anand swaroopam, niz anand swaroopam, and param anand swaroopam.

The Levels of Jeevan Mukti

This is jeevan mukti of Paramdham — the supreme abode of the brahmand (solar system).

Then the soul moves to Maha Paramdham of Mahashiv (galaxy). This is Maha Jeevan Mukti.

Further, to Param Mahashiv (universe) is Param Maha Jeevan Mukti.

Then the journey of the soul continues towards the multiverse and beyond. Paramdham is an immortal world. Maha Paramdham (galaxy) is the supreme immortal world. Param Maha Paramdham (universe) is the supreme supreme immortal world.

There are other, higher categories of immortal worlds beyond the multiverse. The Almighty Authority lives in the highest of the highest supreme abode. This is behad ki jeevan mukti — infinite immortal world — where there is no birth and death.

The Lord of Gita said: abandon all religion and surrender unto me. Supreme light of mine is like a sun — remember Nirakar Param Prakash, and finally I will take you to the highest of the highest Paramdham.

— Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel

XII

CHAPTER TWELVE

The Categories of Souls

On this earth, there are various qualities of souls. Creations of Shiv, which are created through Brahma, can reach the supreme abode of this brahmand with much effort.

Further, there are creations that came from Mahashiv of the galaxy, made of param akash tatva (supreme ether element). By worshipping Mahashiv, they can reach Mahashiv.

Souls have also arrived here from the universe. Their category is slightly higher, and they can reach the universe with spiritual efforts and austerity. Further still, souls are present from the great universe and beyond.

Wherever a soul came from, it can reach its destination and understand knowledge of that level only. The identity of a soul is its knowledge. Whatever level of knowledge the soul can comprehend reveals its origin. A soul that understands only up to Shiv is a creation of this brahmand. A soul that understands up to Mahashiv and the galaxy belongs to the galactic category. A soul that resonates with the knowledge of the universe came from Param Mahashiv.

The identity of a soul is its knowledge.
Knowledge is the recognition of the soul.

XIII

CHAPTER THIRTEEN

Ghosts, Temporary Mukti, and the Cycle of Birth and Death

Temporary Mukti

Souls free from birth and death go to Swargalok (heaven). This is temporary mukti. If the soul again becomes engrossed in attachment and the illusive world of Swargalok, it is not true mukti.

There is no death in Swargalok, but when the soul loses power, it comes down to Mrityulok and gets trapped in the cycle of birth and death once again. Maharlok has no birth and death. It is a place where great saints and Brahmrishis perform austerities. The fourth lok — Janlok — is the stage of jeevan mukti.

The Condition of Ghost Souls

Souls who have committed very sinful acts, and whose last thought in the final moment carries negative energy — jealousy, resentment, and revenge — wander as ghosts. Their subtle body is filled with black energy.

They look like a black shadow because there is no light in their soul. A lighted body can go to the divine world of the second lok and then the third lok. Ghost souls suffer for their bad actions and wander for more than a thousand years before they can return to human birth.

These souls cannot think of anything good. They do not want to go to higher lokas. Only high-quality souls made of supreme ether element will try to move upward and come out from the cycle of birth and death. Souls made only of ether element remain here in the cycle.

Can Narayan Bali Give Mukti?

People adopt various methods like Narayan Bali to give mukti to their ancestors. But can Narayan give mukti? Mukti is given only in the last moment. Mukti is the result of renunciation and austerity of many births by the soul itself. Such dedicated and determined souls are very few. The rest remain in the cycle of birth and death.

XIV

CHAPTER FOURTEEN

Mukti and Jeevan Mukti for All Souls

The Almighty Authority will give mukti and jeevan mukti to all souls of the multiverse.

In the battlefield of Mahabharat, the knowledge of the Gita was spoken five thousand years ago through Lord Krishna, given by the Almighty Authority. Ram incarnated on earth for the establishment of Ram Rajya, and Krishna came for transformation, but they were not successful at that time.

It is said that the father of the infinite comes to make children of the infinite the masters of the infinite. The rest of the souls will be given mukti. Children of the infinite — 108, 16,000, and 9 lakh souls on earth — will listen to and understand the knowledge of the infinite. They will know the father of the infinite and reach the highest of the highest infinite supreme abode, number-wise, as per their spiritual effort.

The Process of Mukti and Jeevan Mukti

Paramtatva will be brought down into the multiverse, and all souls of tatva (elements) will be dissolved in the power of paramtatva. To dissolve means to receive mukti. High-quality souls made of Param Prakash can proceed towards jeevan mukti in the highest of the highest supreme abode.

When the 108 highest-quality behad souls are ready, and the 16,000 are prepared to support them, a sphere of Param

Prakash will descend. These souls will enter it. Simultaneously, the Almighty Authority will pour Param Prakash, paramtatva, and param akash throughout the entire multiverse.

The process of mukti and jeevan mukti has to happen in the multiverse in one second.

— Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel

In this moment, souls of lower elements will receive mukti. High-quality souls will receive jeevan mukti. This is the supreme event of behad ka maha parivartan — the great transformation of the infinite.

Glossary of Spiritual Terms

Atma — The soul; a point of conscious energy, eternal and indestructible.

Ardh Pralaya — Partial dissolution; a periodic cosmic event that dissolves parts of creation.

Behad — Beyond limits; infinite. Refers to the boundless supreme reality.

Bhulok — The physical world; the earthly plane of existence.

Bhuvarlok — The subtle world; the second plane above the physical world.

Brahm — The supreme light in incorporeal form; the radiance of Param Prakash.

Brahmacharya — Celibacy and self-discipline practised as part of spiritual austerity.

Brahmand — A solar system; the domain presided over by Shiv.

Brahmapuri — The abode of Brahma; a celestial region in the higher dimensions.

Brahmgyani — One who possesses knowledge of Brahm; a knower of the supreme light.

Brahmleen — The state of merging into Brahm; the process of dissolving into supreme light.

Brahmrishi — A sage of the highest order who has realised Brahm.

Causal Body (Karan Sharir) — The innermost subtle covering of the soul, made of ether element, carrying karmic records.

Chitragupta — The celestial record-keeper who maintains the karmic account of every soul.

Divya Anand Swaroopam — The state of divine bliss experienced by the soul in the supreme abode.

Had — Within limits; finite. Refers to the bounded material reality.

Janlok — The fourth celestial plane; a stage associated with Jeevan Mukti.

Jeevan Mukti — Immortal liberation; the supreme state where the soul lives free from all karma in an eternal world.

Jyotiswaroop — The form of light; a reference to the incorporeal radiance of the Supreme.

Kalagni — The fire of time; the cosmic fire that dissolves creation at the end of a kalpa.

Kalpa — A cosmic cycle; one day and night of Brahma, spanning billions of years.

Kalp Pralaya — The dissolution that occurs at the end of one kalpa.

Karma Bandhana — Bondage of karma; the accumulated karmic account that binds the soul.

Karmatit — Beyond karma; the state of being free from all karmic bonds.

Kundalini — The dormant spiritual energy located at the base of the spine.

Maha Kalp Pralaya — The great dissolution at the end of Brahma's full lifespan of 100 years.

Maha Paramdham — The supreme abode of Mahashiv at the centre of a galaxy.

Maharlok — The fourth celestial plane, abode of great sages and Brahmrishis.

Mahashiv — The supreme master of a galaxy, presiding over billions of solar systems.

Manvantar — A cosmic period of seventy-one Yugantars, presided over by a Manu.

Moksha — Commonly used for liberation; in Gyan Marg, distinguished from Mukti.

Mrityulok — The mortal world; the plane of birth and death.

Mukti — Salvation; the merging of the soul into Brahm, ending individual existence.

Muladhar Chakra — The root energy centre at the base of the spine.

Nirakar — Incorporeal; without physical form.

Param Mahashiv — The supreme master of a universe, higher than Mahashiv.

Param Prakash — Supreme divine light; the radiance of the Almighty Authority.

Param Tatva — Supreme element; the highest quality of cosmic matter.

Paramdham — The supreme abode; the highest resting place of the soul in a solar system.

Pralaya — Dissolution; the cyclical destruction and renewal of creation.

Sahastragar (Sahasrara) — The crown chakra; the thousandth energy centre above the head.

Shivpuri — The abode of Shiv and Shakti in subtle form, beyond Vishnupuri.

Subtle Body (Sukshma Sharir) — The non-physical body composed of air and ether elements, used for astral travel.

Swargalok — Heaven; the third celestial plane, a world of temporary divine pleasures.

Taplok — The plane of intense spiritual austerity, above Janlok.

Tatva — Element; the fundamental building blocks of creation.

Vaikunth — Another name for Vishnupuri; the abode of Vishnu.

Vishnupuri — The abode of Vishnu; a celestial region of supreme bliss and paramtatva.

Yamraj — The lord of death; the deity who governs the departure of souls.

Yog — Union; the practice of connecting the soul with the Supreme through meditation.

Yugantar — A cycle of four Yugas (Satyug, Treta, Dwapar, Kalyug).
