About Bapuji

Bapuji (full name: Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel, also lovingly called “Dadaji” by the younger generation) was born in 1956 in the small village of Akhaj in the Mehsana district of Gujarat. However, he spent his childhood in another village named Ambasan, also located in the Mehsana district.

In the early part of his life, he was a highly successful lawyer. Later, he devoted his life to realizing the supreme spiritual truth and bringing this divine knowledge forward for the welfare of humanity. Today, this supreme knowledge serves as a guiding light for true seekers to realize their ultimate destiny. It is a blessing of the highest divinity that the present time is witnessing the rise of this supreme spiritual knowledge, guiding souls on Earth to return to their original source.

Despite being raised in a very poor family and facing challenging circumstances, Bapuji had a deep desire to transform this sorrowful and suffering world into a better place. At the young age of six, he questioned God repeatedly, asking why God remained silent about the suffering of humanity. This intense longing to end human suffering eventually led him to attain the highest level of spirituality later in life.

Even as a child, Bapuji would spend hours alone in the fields, often neglecting his own comfort. Due to poverty, he would walk barefoot without shoes or sandals, frequently getting pricked by thorns. Many times, he would stay late in the fields and, on his way back home, encounter subtle world entities. These experiences sparked his interest in communicating with subtle world souls.

Bapuji was courageous from a young age, which helped him overcome many obstacles. Alongside his studies in chartered accountancy (CA), he gave tuition classes to support himself financially. Later, he completed his Bachelor of Law (LLB) degree and became a well-known lawyer in Ahmedabad.

In 1997, he established a spiritual institution called Vishwa Parivartak Ishwariya Vidhyalay in Chenpur, Ahmedabad, with the mission of transforming this mortal world, filled with suffering and disorder, into an eternal divine world of immortality. Smt. Sushma Tandon, lovingly known as “Maa,” worked alongside Bapuji in this grand divine mission.

To accomplish this mission, Bapuji worked tirelessly, dedicating all his resources to this divine purpose. During that time, he would deliver continuous spiritual discourses for up to 18 hours without rest. In these discourses, he explained the highest dimensions of divine knowledge, which he realized through deep meditation and divine vision in a state of superconsciousness. This knowledge goes beyond the imagination of the ordinary human mind.

Bapuji’s teachings cover a vast range of topics, including the types of celestial creators across different dimensions, the creation of our solar system, galaxy, and universe, and most importantly, the transcendental knowledge of the multiverse and realities beyond it. His knowledge is supremely profound and is intended for highly evolved seekers, referred to as behad souls. According to Bapuji, these behad souls will play a key role in transforming this mortal world into an eternal divine realm.

At present, Bapuji remains deeply engaged in intense meditation and samadhi for long hours. He does not meet anyone, as he is continuously immersed in his transcendental mission in a superconscious state.

Preface

There is a kind of knowledge so vast that the ordinary mind struggles to contain it. And yet, when spoken by one who has truly seen — who has received this knowledge through direct experience and living transmission — it becomes something remarkable: clear, calm, and luminous.

This book is drawn from the discourses of Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel in which he opens the subject of Brahm Gyan — the supreme knowledge of the cosmos. In these pages, Bapuji traces the origins of creation, the nature of the great souls who carry this knowledge across galaxies and manvantaras, and the immense preparation required for a soul to receive and transmit such wisdom.

He reveals that Brahm Gyan is not merely cosmic in its scope — it begins within. The journey of the cosmos begins with Atma Gyan: the realisation that ‘I am not the body; I am the soul.’ From that foundation, the knowledge expands — outward into the cosmos, inward into liberation, and ultimately into the supreme service of all existence.

He teaches us that Maya — the world of illusion and attachment — is the source of all suffering. And that Gyan, knowledge, is the only true path of liberation. Not through jap, tap, or dhyan alone — but through the living flame of supreme knowledge that illuminates everything.

Nothing has been added. Nothing has been interpreted beyond what Bapuji has spoken. The purpose of this text is simply to present his words in a form that is still, spacious, and readable — so that this extraordinary knowledge may reach those who are ready to receive it.

Chapter I

WHAT IS BRAHM GYAN?

Bapuji begins with a gentle salutation before opening one of the most profound subjects in all of spiritual science.

Brahm Gyan literally means the knowledge of Brahm — the supreme creative power that brings the entire cosmos into existence. To understand Brahm Gyan, one must first understand what Brahm means.

Brahm is not a person. It is a power — an infinite, creative intelligence that gives rise to the cosmic creation, the Bramhand, in its entirety. Brahm is the creator of the Bramhand. And Brahm Gyan, therefore, is the complete knowledge of that creation.

What This Knowledge Contains

Brahm Gyan is not partial knowledge. It is the complete science of creation — its origin, its unfolding, and its end. It includes: the full account of how the Bramhand was created, why it came into being, and by whom; the complete span of cosmic time — the hundred years of Brahma, from beginning to end; the seven lokas above the Earth and the seven lokas below; the realms of the Devtas and their distinction from manusha; and the nature and description of Paramdham — the supreme abode.

This is the scope of Brahm Gyan. And it is the Brahm Rishi — the sage of supreme cosmic knowledge — who alone is capable of transmitting it.

Atma ka Sachha Swaroop

When Brahm Gyan first enters a soul, it brings with it a profound realisation — the knowledge of the self. Before the cosmos can be understood, the self must be known.

Bapuji explains: the body is only an instrument. Sharir ek karm karne ka saadhan hai — the body is merely a vessel through which the soul performs its karma in this world. The one who inhabits this vessel, who animates it, who watches through its eyes and breathes through its breath — that one is the Atma, the soul.

Atma ajar amar avinashi hai — the soul is ageless, immortal, and imperishable. It was never born and will never die. When the body falls away, the soul continues its journey. It is not diminished, not extinguished, not ended. This is the first gift of Brahm Gyan: the living certainty that Main atma hun — I am the soul.

Once this realisation takes hold, the seeker begins to strive not for the body and its comforts, but for the soul itself. They seek Atma Swaroop — to fully embody the soul's original nature. And Brahm Swaroop is simply this same truth expressed at cosmic scale: to become Brahm Swaroop means to dwell fully in one's original soul-nature, radiant with divine light.

Gita ke Mahavakya — The Two Supreme Declarations

Bapuji draws upon the Gita to illuminate the twin pillars of this path, calling these its two Mahavakyas — the supreme declarations that every seeker must hold close.

The first is the supremacy of Gyan: Gyaan se bada koi cheez nahi hai. There is nothing greater than knowledge. The Supreme does not reveal Himself through jap alone, through tap alone, through dhyan or yog alone. He reveals Himself through Gyan. And the Gita declares: Gyaani to Atma mujhe vishesh priya hai — the soul that is a knower is especially dear to Me. This is an anamol — a priceless — declaration.

The second is the path of the Karma Yogi: to dwell in the Grihastha Ashram — the householder life — and to remember the Supreme even while performing one's worldly duties. The Gita declares: the one who, living fully in the world, holds Me in remembrance, shall in the end find Me — shall reach the highest Paramdham. These two Mahavakyas together form the complete map: knowledge and devoted action, cosmos and daily life, the infinite and the immediate.

Chapter II

WHO IS THE BRAHM RISHI?

One who has fully received and can fully transmit Brahm Gyan is called a Brahm Rishi.

This title is not ordinary. It cannot be achieved through effort alone, through intellectual study, or through social position. A Brahm Rishi is a soul of extraordinary capacity — one who has lived through countless cosmic cycles, who carries within their consciousness the direct experience of multiple universes, and who comes to this Bramhand specifically to transmit this supreme knowledge to others.

Bapuji draws a clear distinction here. A Raj Rishi — like King Janaka — is a royal soul who holds a worldly position while living with the inner quality of a sage. A Brahm Rishi is something rarer still. Even the great sage Vishwamitra, who was himself a Raj Rishi and a powerful being, journeyed across many lifetimes toward becoming a Brahm Rishi — because the receptive capacity required for Brahm Gyan is vast beyond ordinary measure.

The Categories of Realised Souls

Bapuji makes clear that there are different levels of spiritual realisation, and therefore different names for souls at different stages of their journey. Brahm Rishi, Raj Rishi, Maharshi, Sant, Mahatma — each of these is a distinct category, a distinct definition, for souls at different levels of Gyan and Yog.

As Gyan and Yog increase in a soul, so too does the depth of its Vishva Kalyan — its drive to serve the entire world. The more a soul advances in knowledge, the less it lives for itself and the more it lives for all. The vision expands until the soul sees every being as part of one vast family — Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam: the entire world is one family.

Even Indra Must Transcend Pride

And what of the god Indra? Even Indra — lord of the celestial realm — must first transcend the subtle pride that arises from his exalted position before fully receiving Brahm Gyan. Where pride exists, the knowledge cannot fully stabilise.

This is the exacting standard of Brahm Gyan: it flows only into a consciousness completely free from Vishay Vikaar — the bondage of desire, attachment, and ego. Where even a trace of Ahankara remains, the knowledge simply does not stabilise.

Chapter III

THE ARCHITECTURE OF THE COSMOS

For Brahm Gyan to be understood, one must have at least a sense of the scale of what is being described.

Our Earth exists within a Bramhand — our solar system. Above the Earth there are seven lokas: Bhurlok, Bhuvarlok, Svarlok, Maharlok, Janlok, Taplok, and Satyalok. Beyond these, there is Brahmpuri, Vishnupuri, Shivapuri, and finally Paramdham — the supreme abode. Below the Earth, there are seven more lokas.

Above Satyalok, great souls reside who are absorbed in truth. In Maharlok and the lokas beyond, highly refined souls perform profound Tapasya — spiritual discipline — over immense periods of cosmic time.

Bapuji also reveals the full sweep of cosmic time embedded within Brahm Gyan: the knowledge of Kaliyug, Dwapar, Treta, and Satyug; the knowledge of Ardha Pralaya and Pralaya; the knowledge of Mahakaal Pralaya and how Mahashiv Mahakaal draws all of creation into himself at the moment of final dissolution. This complete knowledge of cosmic time — from the first breath of Brahma to the last moment of Mahakaal Pralaya — is contained within Brahm Gyan.

The Scale of a Galaxy

Our solar system exists within a galaxy, what the ancient teachings call the Aakashganga. That galaxy is one hundred thousand light-years across and contains hundreds of billions of stars. Each star, in this cosmic understanding, corresponds to a Bramhand.

Hundreds of billions of stars. Hundreds of billions of Bramhands — within a single galaxy. And beyond our galaxy are countless other galaxies. Beyond those, there are clusters of galaxies. And beyond those clusters are what the ancient texts call niharika — what modern science now refers to as super-clusters of galaxies.

Your soul, Bapuji explains, has come from one such niharika.

Chapter IV

SOULS FROM BEYOND THE STARS

In each manvantar — each great cosmic era — seven Brahm Rishis come from seven other Bramhands, from seven other stars, to bring their knowledge into our universe. These are not ordinary visitors.

They are souls of immense cosmic age — souls who have travelled across galaxies and dimensions, who carry within their being the lived experience of other universes entirely. Different Brahm Rishis come in different manvantars, at different times. Their histories are recorded in the ancient scriptures.

They arrive. They establish ashrams in the physical world. And simultaneously, they maintain subtle ashrams in the higher lokas — connecting the earthly realm with the cosmic one.

The Origin of Powerful Souls

Bapuji speaks with precision about the origin of different categories of souls. The soul that has come from the Maha Bramhand — from the galaxy, the Aakashganga — is equipped with a far greater capacity than the soul that has only traversed this Bramhand. And the soul that has come from the Param Maha Bramhand — from beyond the galaxy entirely — carries an even vaster awareness.

The souls born of Prajapita Brahma's creation remain within the cycles of this Bramhand — they are part of the 84 lakh births-and-deaths cycle. These souls will not naturally gravitate towards Brahm Gyan, for their capacity has not yet expanded to receive it. It is the soul that has arrived from other Bramhands, from other galaxies and universes, that feels the pull of this knowledge and has the inner equipment to receive and carry it.

And just as each soul's dharma is shaped by the creator from whom they originate, so too will different souls be drawn to different paths, different teachers, different traditions. This is not limitation — it is cosmic design. The one who belongs to a certain origin will be called back to that origin in its own time.

Why Their Knowledge Is Real

It is not that these great souls simply descend and speak. Their very buddhi — their intelligence — is encoded with the knowledge of the galaxies they have traversed. They have seen what they describe. That is what makes their transmission real, not theoretical.

These Brahm Rishis exist simultaneously in three forms. Their original form rests in Paramdham — in the nirakaar state, beyond all form. They take a Karya Roop — a working form — and reside in Maharlok. And they also come into direct earthly existence, establishing ashrams in the physical world.

The soul that comes to the Earth to open an ashram and give knowledge is the same soul that holds connection to all the galaxies above. That is why they can speak of niharika, of Aakashganga, of anant koti Bramhands — because they have come from there.

Chapter V

PAR BRAHM PARAMATMA

Knowledge Beyond All Universes

Brahm Gyan itself is the complete knowledge of one Bramhand — one cosmic creation. But Bapuji reveals that there is a knowledge even beyond this.

Par Brahm Parmatma is the one who transcends even the Bramhand. Where Brahm is the creative intelligence of a single cosmic creation, Par Brahm Parmatma holds the knowledge of anant koti Bramhands — infinite crores of cosmic creations extending across galaxies and universes.

And there is yet another level: Mahaprabhu. Mahaprabhu holds the knowledge of the Param Maha Bramhand — the grand cosmic system at the level of an entire universe, containing infinite galaxies and *Aakashganga*s within it.

Bapuji explains that as a soul advances in Gyan and Yog, the knowledge that emerges within it expands correspondingly. The soul begins to understand not only the Bramhand it inhabits, but the Maha Bramhand beyond it, and the Param Maha Bramhand beyond that. Each time the word Param is added, another kala of understanding opens — one Param, one kala; two Params, two kalas; a hundred Params — and the vision expands into the full multiverse of a hundred kalas.

What Is Transmitted in Brahm Gyan

Brahm Rishis who come from distant galaxies understand these levels. They explain how the Aakashganga — the galaxy — was created and why. They describe the infinite universes within it. They reveal how Mahashiv Mahakaal gathers all of these back into himself at the time of dissolution.

This knowledge — of how anant koti Bramhands are created, sustained, and ultimately dissolved — is part of what is transmitted in the living tradition of Brahm Vidya.

This also aligns with what modern science describes through astrophysics and cosmology. When Mahashiv Mahakaal, entering the sun, ignites the fire of dissolution — Kaal Agni — and draws the entire Bramhand into himself, the sun itself is absorbed back into that singular point. The imagery is reminiscent of what astronomy describes as a black hole, though the spiritual and scientific frameworks remain distinct in their nature and intent.

Chapter VI
MAHAKAAL PRALAYA
The Great Dissolution

There are different scales of dissolution in the cosmic cycle. At the end of a Bramhand's full cycle, there is Pralaya — the dissolution of one solar system. But at a far greater scale, there is Mahakaal Pralaya — the dissolution of everything.

In Mahakaal Pralaya, even the lokas above the Earth are affected. The fire of dissolution — agni tattva — rises with such power that it reaches even into Maharlok and beyond. Souls residing there ascend further upward, moving one crore yojana — an immense distance — above their current position.

At the time of Mahakaal Pralaya, Mahashiv Mahakaal draws all of creation — all the Bramhands, all the lokas, all that exists — back within himself. The entire cosmos is dissolved and absorbed.

Yet the Brahm Rishi Souls Are Not Destroyed

These souls — of 16 to 20 kala — are among the most powerful and ancient in existence. While ordinary souls may be absorbed at the time of Mahakaal Pralaya, a Brahm Rishi soul remains.

They move through the universe, continuing their journey across *Aakashganga*s and niharika, until the cosmos is recreated and they return once more. This is what makes them avanaashi — imperishable. Not even the greatest dissolution can end them.

Chapter VII

THE RARITY OF BRAHM GYAN

Maya, Karma and Liberation

Bapuji speaks clearly: Brahm Gyan is not for everyone.

This is not a statement of exclusion. It is a statement of reality. Just as not every person can hold the highest scientific office, not every soul — regardless of its goodness — is equipped to receive Brahm Gyan in its fullness. The preparation required is immense, the inner purity must be total, and the ego must be completely dissolved.

Even souls at very high levels — such as Indra, who rules the celestial realm — must first transcend every trace of pride connected to their position to fully receive Brahm Gyan. The knowledge simply does not stabilise where ego is present.

What Is Required

To receive Brahm Gyan, a soul must be completely free from Vishay Vikaar — the impurities of desire, attachment, and ego. It must have undergone immense Tapasya — spiritual austerity across many lifetimes. And it must possess a buddhi that has been refined across vast stretches of cosmic time.

A soul that lives only for itself — that turns inward toward personal gain or comfort — cannot even access ordinary bhakti at its deepest level, let alone Brahm Gyan. As Bapuji notes, the Gita itself makes clear that one who lives only for oneself has a consciousness no different from an animal's. Brahm Gyan is, in that sense, the highest possibility of human — and cosmic — development.

Maya aur Dukh ka Rahasya

Maya is the source of all sorrow. Bapuji defines Maya with great clarity: it is not simply wealth or material things. Maya is andhkar — darkness. Maya is illusion. Maya is dukh dard — pain and suffering at its root.

The deeper a soul drowns in Maya, the more suffering it accumulates. Maya ka sagar — the ocean of Maya — is the world of illusion and attachment through which most souls wander, seeking happiness where only suffering lives. Every attachment to Maya is a chain. Every desire fulfilled within Maya only deepens the hunger.

This world, Bapuji reminds us, is Mrityu Lok — the realm of death. It is not Amar Lok — it is not the immortal realm. Everything here rises and falls. Everything here is temporary. The purpose of this life is not to settle permanently in Mrityu Lok, but to use it as a crossing — to travel from Mrityu Lok to Amar Lok, from this mortal world to the immortal Paramdham.

When a soul understands this — truly understands this — something shifts within it. The knowledge of life after death becomes living knowledge: after this body falls, I will not remain in this Mrityu Lok. Establishing myself in Brahm Swaroop, in Atma Swaroop, I will travel to Paramdham, and from there to the Maha Bramhand — the galaxy, the Aakashganga. The Atma always journeys toward the source from which it came.

Karma Yog aur Grihastha Jeevan

Bapuji teaches that the highest path of action in this world is Karma Yog — and it does not require retreat from life. The Grihastha Ashram — the householder's life — is, in fact, the greatest of all ashrams. To live fully in the world and yet to remain inwardly free — this is the supreme art.

The Karma Yogi remains in the world of Maya and yet becomes Maya Jeet — the conqueror of Maya. The buddhi remains always with the Supreme Father, always anchored in Paramdham. From that high connection, the soul draws power downward — power that builds the Atma's light, the Atma's aura, the Atma's shakti.

As the Atma's aura grows, so does the power of its sankalpas — its intentions. Every sankalpa offered for the welfare of the world gradually, slowly, surely, comes to fruition. The Karma Yogi does not need to grasp or chase. Ichha matra avashyam — the mere intention is sufficient. There is no entanglement with Maya, no longing for the things of the world. The mind remains detached — like Meera, who sang: Mera to Giridhar Gopal, doosra na koi — my beloved is the Supreme alone; there is no other.

When Maya comes to such a soul — as it will, for Atma Swaroop naturally attracts worldly abundance — the soul does not fall into its net. It uses Maya wisely, for Jagat Kalyan — for the upliftment of the world. It does nothing for itself. Its every action flows outward, toward all.

Chapter VIII

WHY ORDINARY SOULS CANNOT BECOME BRAHM RISHI

The Brahm Rishi soul is a soul of 16 to 20 kala. This is a specific measure of the soul's accumulated spiritual capacity — its power, its purity, its vast experience across cosmic time.

Ordinary souls are not of this calibre. Most souls have far fewer kala and have not traversed the distances — physical or spiritual — that a Brahm Rishi has. This is why, even among great sages and rishis across history, the Brahm Rishi stands apart.

And this is why — across all manvantars — only a small number of Brahm Rishis ever incarnate in any given cosmic period. They are not born in abundance. Their arrival is an event of immense cosmic significance.

The Examination

The knowledge they carry is not something that can be casually received or transmitted. In each manvantar, ashrams are opened — in the physical world and in the subtle realms — where aspirants are tested. Those who pass the examination of inner purity are given access to Brahm Gyan. Those who are not yet ready must continue their preparation.

Formerly, the tests were rigorous and the access to Brahm Gyan carefully guarded. Today, Bapuji notes, the Gyan flows freely — like a river of light through a mobile phone. The one who is ready can open this knowledge at any moment. But readiness remains the requirement. Gyan must be sought with discernment: judge the Gyan by its depth, by whether it opens the cosmos or merely decorates the ordinary mind.

Chapter IX
THE LIVING CONNECTION
Vishva Kalyan and Param Shanti

Every ashram that exists on the Earth has a corresponding subtle ashram in the higher lokas. This is not metaphor. It is cosmic architecture.

The soul who comes to Earth and opens an ashram — who gathers seekers, transmits knowledge, and guides lives — is the same soul whose original consciousness resides in Paramdham, whose working form is established in Maharlok, and whose teachings flow downward from the subtle world into the physical.

This three-level presence is the reason such teachers are able to give knowledge that goes beyond ordinary human experience. They are not drawing from books or from memory alone. Their transmission is connected, in the subtle dimension, to the cosmos itself.

The Source of Their Knowledge

Bapuji explains: all the ashrams of the Earth are connected to the subtle world. And it is these Brahm Rishi souls — who have traversed galaxies and niharika — who come and open these earthly centres of knowledge, carrying the Gyan of the entire cosmos with them. Their buddhi carries this knowledge not because they studied it, but because they lived it — across immeasurable distances of space and time.

Vishva Kalyan Sankalp

The Brahm Gyaani soul does not live for itself. As Gyan and Yog deepen, the natural outpouring is a boundless impulse toward Vishva Kalyan — the welfare of the entire world. Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam: the entire world is one family.

Every being, near or distant, is seen as part of one vast whole.

The Brahm Gyaani seeks to spread knowledge to every corner of existence. Not all will receive it — for not all have the Atma's capacity for it. But the impulse to share remains undiminished. The Sankalp — the intention — goes out like a beacon.

This service is offered without a single expectation in return. Bapuji teaches: when you expect nothing from anyone, all will give in the end. First, the world does not understand — because the world is Maya, and those living within Maya see only through Maya's eyes. But gradually, as the soul's vibrations reach further and further, good souls begin to gather. The Gyaani souls multiply. The world slowly transforms.

The Brahm Gyaani does not cling to this world out of personal desire. They understand: there is Paramdham waiting; the journey upward is inevitable. But the call of Vishva Kalyan holds them here a little longer — to give, to share, to illuminate every soul that is ready before departing.

Param Shanti ke Vibrations

The ultimate expression of Brahm Gyan in daily life is the radiation of Param Shanti — supreme peace. This is not mere calm. It is the soul's original nature, its deepest frequency, its home state. When a soul dwells fully in Atma Swaroop, it naturally becomes a transmitter of Param Shanti.

Bapuji teaches this truth with absolute clarity: the one who gives peace to others cannot receive suffering in return. Jo tum doge wahi tumhe milega — what you give is what you receive. When every manasa, every word, every action is infused with the impulse to give Param Sukh and Param Shanti to others, then the Karan Sharir — the causal body — records nothing but Param Shanti vibrations. No suffering can enter it. No ashanti can take root.

As this vibration grows, it spreads outward: the home fills with Param Shanti; the surroundings fill with Param Shanti; far and near, the aura of Param Shanti expands. Seekers arrive drawn not by words, but by the resonance of a soul dwelling in its own truth.

Therefore, says Bapuji: if you wish to remove suffering and ashanti from your own life, make the removal of suffering and ashanti from the world your aim. Become a Vishva Sewadari — a servant of the world — with humility and wisdom. Let your aura be the gift. Let your mere presence be peace. This is the highest Karma Yog in action.

Param Shanti sochein — bolein.

(Think Param Shanti. Speak Param Shanti. Receive Param Shanti.)

Chapter X

THE IMPERISHABLE KNOWLEDGE

Gyan, Yog, Seva, Dharana

Brahm Gyan does not disappear. It does not become extinct. It may become hidden, rare, or difficult to access — but it is avanaashi, imperishable. Just as the Brahm Rishi souls themselves cannot be destroyed even in Mahakaal Pralaya, the knowledge they carry endures through every cycle of creation and dissolution.

What has reached us today through the Vedas, the Upanishads, the Puranas, and the great Dharmic texts is only a fragment — an ansh — of the full Brahm Gyan that has been transmitted through the ages. The fullness of that knowledge is vaster than any single scripture can contain.

Gyaan hi Param Marg

Of all paths, Bapuji declares, Gyan is supreme. Knowledge is the lamp that illuminates everything else. And this Gyan is not static — it unfolds in stages. First comes laukik Gyan — worldly knowledge. Then comes alaukik Gyan — transcendental knowledge, beyond the worldly. And then comes parlaukik Gyan — the knowledge of what lies beyond even the transcendental: the cosmic, the galactic, the infinite.

As knowledge deepens, it does not remain abstract. It enters the life and transforms it. Gyan brings the capacity to discern truth from illusion: to know what is Maya and what is real; to see through the illusion that Maya creates; to walk in the world without being captured by it.

Bapuji teaches: immerse yourself in the ocean of Gyan. Perform Vichar Sagar Manthan — churn the ocean of thought. The more you churn, the more clarity rises. The more Gyan enters, the more Yog follows naturally. The more Yog follows, the more the soul's power grows.

Char Vishay ka Sutra

Bapuji speaks of four essential subjects that together form the complete path of the Brahm Gyaani:

Gyan. Knowledge is the first and foundational subject. There is nothing greater than Gyan. Through Gyan, the soul understands its own nature, the nature of the cosmos, and the purpose of its existence. Gyan is the light. Without it, all effort moves in darkness.

Yog. Where Gyan enters, Yog follows. Yog is the sustained connection of the buddhi to the Supreme — the anchoring of awareness in Paramdham. This connection draws power into the soul, builds the Atma's aura, and fills the sankalpas with divine force.

Seva. Service is the fruit and expression of Gyan and Yog combined. Through Seva, destiny is built. Gyan Daan Maha Daan — the giving of knowledge is the highest charity. Every act of Behad Seva — unlimited, cosmic service — creates Behad and Avinashi destiny that cannot be diminished. The fruits of limited action are received once and exhausted; the fruits of unlimited action endure forever.

Dharana. Whatever Gyan has been received must be dharan — embodied, incorporated, lived. The one who embodies their Gyan is called Gyan Swaroop. The one whose very life has become a living expression of Yog is called Yog Swaroop. This is not an intellectual holding of knowledge — it is the soul itself becoming what it knows.

Behad ka Avinashi Karma

Bapuji draws a clear distinction that the seeker must understand. The karma of Had — limited, finite action done for personal or worldly ends — gives its fruit once, within this bramhand, and then is spent. It exhausts itself in one receiving. But the karma of Behad — unlimited action offered for the good of the entire cosmos — remains avinashi: imperishable. It does not exhaust itself. It continues to give, in the infinite, without end.

Therefore, Bapuji says: always strive for Behad action. Carry Behad in your buddhi. Think Behad. Serve Behad. See all beings with one equal, loving vision — Uch Neech nahi, all are equal; all are suffering; all deserve Param Sukh and Param Shanti.

Always Present, Never Lost

Bapuji closes with this: the tradition of Hindu Sanatana Dharma has always existed and will always continue. Brahm Gyan is its deepest stream. It does not depend on historical continuity alone. It is carried by souls — imperishable, cosmic, ancient souls — who bring it back in every manvantar, in every great cycle, for those who are ready to receive.

The knowledge was never truly lost. It simply waits, in the cosmic ashrams of those who carry it, for the right moment and the right soul.

Glossary

Sanskrit and Hindi terms used throughout this book, each explained in plain English.

THE SOUL

1. Atma (आत्मा)

In simple terms: The Soul.

The soul is the true self. You are not the physical body — you are the soul inside it. The soul is a point of pure conscious energy. In its original state it exists as divine light. When a person dies, the soul leaves the body and continues its journey. The soul is the source of all life and awareness.

2. Atma Swaroop (आत्म स्वरूप)

In simple terms: Soul-consciousness — the state of dwelling in the soul's original nature.

Atma Swaroop is the state in which one fully identifies with the soul rather than the body. When a seeker attains Atma Swaroop, the soul's original light, peace, and power are fully activated. Brahm Swaroop is the cosmic expression of this same state: the soul dwelling in its full cosmic identity.

3. Had ki Atma (हद की आत्मा)

In simple terms: A common soul with limited power.

Had means limit or boundary. Had ki Atma are souls created within the lower levels of a solar system. They are ordinary souls with limited spiritual power and awareness. Most souls on Earth are Had ki Atma. Their journey is to grow, purify, and eventually return to their creator.

4. Behad ki Atma (बेहद की आत्मा)

In simple terms: A cosmic soul of infinite power.

Behad means beyond limits. Behad ki Atma are souls of immense power, constituted of Param Prakash (supreme divine light) and Param Maha Tattva (the supreme great element that surrounds it). They have travelled across galaxies, universes, and vast dimensions of creation. They come to Earth with a specific mission: to transmit knowledge and guide humanity.

5. Buddhi (बुद्धि)

In simple terms: Intelligence — the faculty of understanding.

Buddhi is the intelligence or discerning faculty of the soul. A Brahm Rishi's buddhi is encoded with the direct experience of multiple universes — not because they studied it, but because they lived it across immeasurable cosmic journeys. The higher the soul's purity, the clearer the buddhi.

6. Kala (कला)

In simple terms: Unit of spiritual power.

Kala measures a soul's power and energy. Just as electricity is measured in watts, spiritual power is measured in kala. Lord Krishna is described in scripture as having 16 kala. A Brahm Rishi soul has 16 to 20 kala. Higher creators at galactic and universal levels have vastly more.

7. Ahankara (अहंकार)

In simple terms: Ego — the primary obstacle to receiving high knowledge.

Ahankara is ego: the false sense of 'I am this position, this body, this status.' Even Indra, lord of heaven, must first transcend the Ahankara connected to his exalted position before fully receiving Brahm Gyan. Where even a trace of Ahankara remains, supreme knowledge cannot enter or stabilise in the soul.

8. Vishay Vikaar (विषय विकार)

In simple terms: Impurities of desire and ego.

Vishay Vikaar refers to the collective impurities: attachment, desire, lust, anger, greed, and ego. These keep the soul trapped in lower consciousness. To receive Brahm Gyan, one must be completely free of Vishay Vikaar.

MAYA AND KARMA

9. Maya (माया)

In simple terms: Illusion — the world of attachment and suffering.

Maya is not simply wealth or worldly objects. Maya is andhkar — darkness. It is the great illusion that covers the soul's original nature. Bapuji defines Maya as the cause of all dukh (suffering) and dard (pain). The ocean of Maya — Maya ka sagar — is the world in which most souls wander, seeking happiness where only suffering lives. The soul's task is not to escape the world, but to become Maya Jeet — the conqueror of Maya — while living fully within it.

10. Mrityu Lok (मृत्यु लोक)

In simple terms: The mortal realm — the world of death.

This Earth, this physical existence, is Mrityu Lok — the realm of death. Everything here is temporary. The purpose of life in Mrityu Lok is to use it as a crossing: to travel from Mrityu Lok to Amar Lok (the immortal realm, Paramdham). Understanding this transforms one's relationship to the world entirely.

11. Karma Yog / Karm Yogi (कर्म योग)

In simple terms: The path of devoted action in the world.

Karma Yog is the supreme path of living fully in the world while remaining inwardly free. The Karm Yogi performs every action as an offering, keeps the buddhi anchored in the Supreme, conquers Maya without renouncing the world, and serves all beings without expectation. Bapuji calls the Grihastha Ashram — the householder's life — the greatest of all ashrams, and Karma Yog its highest expression.

12. Sankalp (संकल्प)

In simple terms: A divine intention or resolution.

Sankalp is not an ordinary wish — it is an intention charged with spiritual power. As the soul's aura grows through Gyan and Yog, the sankalpas it offers for Vishva Kalyan gradually and surely come to fruition. Sankalp seva — service through divine intention — is one of the highest forms of spiritual action.

13. Grihastha Ashram (गृहस्थ आश्रम)

In simple terms: The householder's life.

Bapuji teaches that Grihastha Ashram — the life of a householder, living in the world with family and duty — is the greatest of all ashrams. It is here, in the midst of ordinary life, that the highest spiritual realisation unfolds. The Gita also confirms this: the one who lives in the world as a Karma Yogi, remembering the Supreme in every moment, reaches the highest Paramdham.

THE COSMOS

14. Bramhand (ब्रह्माण्ड)

In simple terms: Our solar system — one unit of creation.

In Bapuji's knowledge, Bramhand refers specifically to a solar system — one self-contained cosmic creation by one Brahm or Shiv. There are countless such Bramhands inside a single galaxy. Our own solar system is our Bramhand.

15. Aakashganga (आकाशगंगा)

In simple terms: The Milky Way — our galaxy.

Aakashganga means 'river of the sky.' It refers to our galaxy, the Milky Way — one hundred thousand light-years across, containing hundreds of billions of stars. Each star in this understanding corresponds to one Bramhand. There are infinite such galaxies in creation.

16. Niharika (निहारिका)

In simple terms: A super-cluster of galaxies.

In Bapuji's knowledge, Niharika refers to the vast cosmic clusters that contain many galaxies — comparable to what modern science describes as galactic superclusters. Many of the most powerful souls on Earth have come from a specific Niharika. Their buddhi carries knowledge of that distant cosmic origin.

17. Loka (लोक)

In simple terms: A dimension or layer of existence.

Loka means world or realm. Within every Bramhand there are multiple lokas — layers of creation at different energy levels. Above the Earth there are seven: Bhu-loka, Bhuvar-loka, Swarga-loka, Maharloka, Janaloka, Tapaloka, and Satyaloka. Beyond these are Brahmapuri, Vishnupuri, Shivapuri, and Paramdham.

18. Maharloka (महर्लोक)

In simple terms: The great realm — where powerful sages reside.

Maharloka is one of the seven lokas above the Earth. Great Rishis and refined souls perform profound Tapasya here. Brahm Rishi souls also maintain subtle ashrams in Maharloka, connecting the cosmic dimension to the earthly one. At the time of Mahakaal Pralaya, even souls in Maharloka are pushed upward by the force of dissolution.

19. Satyalok (सत्यलोक)

In simple terms: The realm of truth — the highest of the seven lokas.

Satyalok is the highest of the seven lokas above Earth. Souls absorbed in truth reside here. Above Satyalok are Brahmapuri, Vishnupuri, Shivapuri, and finally Paramdham.

20. Paramdham (परमधाम)

In simple terms: The supreme abode — the original home of souls.

Paramdham is the highest dimension within a Bramhand — a world of pure divine light where the creator resides in formless form. Souls in Paramdham exist in complete peace, light, and bliss. It is the original home from which all souls come and to which the most advanced souls return. Also called Amarloka — the immortal realm.

21. Behad (बेहद)

In simple terms: Infinite — beyond all limits.

Behad literally means beyond limits or without boundary. In Bapuji's knowledge, Behad refers to the infinite, boundless dimensions of creation. Key terms: Behad ki Atma (a limitless soul), Behad Gyan (infinite knowledge), Behad Seva (unlimited service), Behad ka Karma (imperishable action).

22. Had (हद)

In simple terms: Limited — within boundaries.

Had means limit or boundary. Had refers to the limited, finite dimensions of creation. Our solar system is part of the Had creation. The spiritual journey is to grow from the limited (Had) toward the infinite (Behad).

THE CREATORS

23. Brahm (ब्रह्म)

In simple terms: The creative power that brings a universe into existence.

Brahm is not a person. It is an infinite creative intelligence — the supreme power that gives rise to a Bramhand (solar system). Brahm is the creator of the Bramhand. Brahm Gyan, therefore, is the complete knowledge of that creation.

24. Par Brahm Parmatma (पर ब्रह्म परमेश्वर)

In simple terms: The consciousness beyond all universes.

Par means beyond. Par Brahm Parmatma transcends the limits of any single creation. This is the Almighty Authority who holds knowledge of anant koti Bramhands — infinite crores of solar systems extending across galaxies and universes. He is also referred to as Behad ka Baap — the Supreme Father of all infinite creation, the ultimate source of power across every dimension.

25. Mahashiv Mahakaal (महाशिव महाकाल)

In simple terms: The creator of an entire galaxy (Maha Bramhand), who as Mahakaal dissolves all the solar systems within it.

Mahashiv Mahakaal is the creator of an entire galaxy (Maha Bramhand), holding power between 8 and 12 Kala. As Mahakaal — the lord of cosmic time — he draws all the Bramhands (solar systems) within his galaxy back into himself at the moment of Mahakaal Pralaya. At the higher level of the universe (Param Maha Bramhand), the corresponding creator is Param-Maha-Shiv (16-20 Kala). Brahm Rishi souls of 16-20 Kala — whose origin is at the universe-creator level — pass through this great dissolution undestroyed.

26. Brahm Rishi (ब्रह्म रishi)

In simple terms: A cosmic sage-soul who transmits the knowledge of the entire universe.

A Brahm Rishi is a soul of 16 to 20 kala who has travelled across galaxies and universes, carrying the direct experience of multiple dimensions of creation. In each Manvantar, seven Brahm Rishis come from seven other Bramhands to transmit Brahm Gyan on Earth. Their buddhi is encoded with the lived experience of the cosmos.

27. Raj Rishi (राज रishi)

In simple terms: A royal sage — a king who lives with the purity of a sage.

A Raj Rishi holds a position of worldly power yet lives with the inner purity of a sage. King Janaka is the classic example. A Raj Rishi is honourable but not the same as a Brahm Rishi.

28. Karya Roop (कार्य रूप)

In simple terms: The working form.

When a Brahm Rishi soul takes a subtle-form body to reside in Maharloka and perform cosmic work, that form is called the Karya Roop. Brahm Rishi souls exist in three forms simultaneously: their original formless state in Paramdham, their Karya Roop in Maharloka, and their physical form on Earth.

KNOWLEDGE AND SERVICE

29. Brahm Gyan (ब्रह्म ज्ञान)

In simple terms: The complete knowledge of the cosmos from its beginning to its end.

Brahm Gyan is the complete knowledge of a Bramhand — how it was created, by whom, how it operates across its full cosmic time span, and how it dissolves. It includes knowledge of all lokas, the devas, Paramdham, and the relationship between galaxies and universes. Only a Brahm Rishi soul can transmit this knowledge in its fullness.

30. Brahm Vidya (ब्रह्म विद्या)

In simple terms: The living science and tradition of cosmic knowledge.

Brahm Vidya is the formal tradition through which Brahm Gyan is studied and transmitted. It is not a book subject — it is a living science carried by Brahm Rishi souls who open ashrams in every Manvantar for souls ready to receive it.

31. Vishva Kalyan (विश्व कल्याण)

In simple terms: The welfare of the entire world.

Vishva Kalyan is the impulse of the Brahm Gyaani — to serve not themselves, not their family alone, but the entire world. Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam: all creation is one family. Every advanced soul on the path of Brahm Gyan becomes a Vishva Sewadari — a servant of the world — offering knowledge, peace, and light to all.

32. Tapasya (तपस्या)

In simple terms: Spiritual austerity.

Tapasya is intense spiritual austerity and discipline sustained across many lifetimes. A Brahm Rishi soul has performed immense Tapasya to develop the capacity to hold and transmit Brahm Gyan. Tapasya purifies the soul of Vishay Vikaar and prepares the buddhi to receive knowledge that the ordinary mind cannot contain.

33. Manvantar (मन्वंतर)

In simple terms: A great cosmic era.

A Manvantar is a vast unit of cosmic time. One Manvantar contains 71 smaller time cycles. In each Manvantar, seven Brahm Rishis descend from seven other solar systems to transmit knowledge.

34. Pralaya · Mahakaal Pralaya (प्रलय)

In simple terms: Dissolution. The Great Dissolution at cosmic scale.

Pralaya is the dissolution of a creation. Mahakaal Pralaya is the supreme dissolution: the event in which Mahashiv Mahakaal absorbs all Bramhands, all lokas, and all existence back into himself. Only Brahm Rishi souls of 16–20 kala survive this event.

35. Avanaashi (अविनाशी)

In simple terms: Imperishable — that which cannot be destroyed.

Avanaashi means eternally indestructible. Brahm Gyan is Avanaashi — it never permanently disappears from the cosmos. Brahm Rishi souls are Avanaashi — even Mahakaal Pralaya cannot destroy them.

36. Param Shanti (परम शान्ति)

In simple terms: Supreme peace — the original state of the soul.

Param Shanti is not merely the absence of noise or conflict. It is the original state of the soul when it rests in its pure divine light form. It is both a living state and a vibration that can be radiated outward. When a soul dwells fully in Atma Swaroop, it becomes a transmitter of Param Shanti — filling its surroundings with the frequency of supreme peace. Bapuji begins and ends every discourse with this word.
