About Bapuji

Bapuji (full name: Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel, also lovingly called "Dadaji" by the younger generation) was born in 1956 in the small village of Akhaj in the Mehsana district of Gujarat. However, he spent his childhood in another village named Ambasan, also located in the Mehsana district.

In the early part of his life, he was a highly successful lawyer. Later, he devoted his life to realising the supreme spiritual truth and bringing this divine knowledge forward for the welfare of humanity. Today, this supreme knowledge serves as a guiding light for true seekers to realise their ultimate destiny. It is a blessing of the highest divinity that the present time is witnessing the rise of this supreme spiritual knowledge, guiding souls on Earth to return to their original source.

Despite being raised in a very poor family and facing challenging circumstances, Bapuji had a deep desire to transform this sorrowful and suffering world into a better place. At the young age of six, he questioned God repeatedly, asking why God remained silent about the suffering of humanity. This intense longing to end human suffering eventually led him to attain the highest level of spirituality later in life.

Even as a child, Bapuji would spend hours alone in the fields, often neglecting his own comfort. Due to poverty, he would walk barefoot without shoes or sandals, frequently getting pricked by thorns. Many times, he would stay late in the fields and, on his way back home, encounter subtle world entities. These experiences sparked his interest in communicating with subtle world souls.

Bapuji was courageous from a young age, which helped him overcome many obstacles. Alongside his studies in chartered accountancy (CA), he gave tuition classes to support himself financially. Later, he completed his Bachelor of Law (LLB) degree and became a well-known lawyer in Ahmedabad.

In 1997, he established a spiritual institution called "Vishwa Parivartak Ishwariya Vidhyalay" in Chenpur, Ahmedabad, with the mission of transforming this mortal world, filled with suffering and disorder, into an eternal divine world of immortality. Smt. Sushma Tandon, lovingly known as "Maa," worked alongside Bapuji in this grand divine mission.

To accomplish this mission, Bapuji worked tirelessly, dedicating all his resources to this divine purpose. During that time, he would deliver continuous spiritual discourses for up to 18 hours without rest. In these discourses, he explained the highest dimensions of divine knowledge, which he realised through deep meditation and divine vision in a state of superconsciousness. This knowledge goes beyond the imagination of the ordinary human mind.

Bapuji's teachings cover a vast range of topics, including the types of celestial creators across different dimensions, the creation of our solar system, galaxy, and universe, and most importantly, the transcendental knowledge of the multiverse and realities beyond it. His knowledge is supremely profound and is intended for highly evolved seekers, referred to as "behad souls." According to Bapuji, these "behad souls" will play a key role in transforming this mortal world into an eternal divine realm.

At present, Bapuji remains deeply engaged in intense meditation and samadhi for long hours. He does not meet anyone, as he is continuously immersed in his transcendental mission in a superconscious state.

Preface

Gyan Daan Maha Daan

*(Sharing Knowledge is the highest charity — share to the maximum extent with all.) —
Bapuji Dasbrathbbhai Patel*

The journey of understanding life does not begin with the outer world — it begins with understanding the laws that govern existence itself.

In Day 1, the foundation was laid by realising the distinction between the soul and the body. With that awareness, a deeper question naturally arises: What governs the experiences of the soul? Why does life unfold the way it does?

Day 2 answers these questions by revealing one of the most fundamental truths of existence — the Law of Karma.

Karma is not merely a philosophical concept; it is the invisible architecture shaping every moment of life. Every thought, every action, and every intention contributes to a larger cycle that determines not only present experiences but also future realities.

This book explores the deeper mechanics of karma — how it is created, how it is stored, how it manifests as destiny, and how it leads to the continuous cycle of birth and rebirth. It also uncovers the profound connection between thoughts, vibrations, and the cosmos, offering a new perspective on responsibility and awareness.

More importantly, this knowledge is not meant only to inform — it is meant to transform. By understanding karma at its root, one gains the power to break repetitive patterns and move toward true freedom.

This is not just knowledge to be read.

It is knowledge to be realised.

About This Series

This book is part of a 10-day spiritual journey designed to expand human consciousness beyond limits. Each day reveals deeper layers of truth, guiding the reader from self-awareness to universal understanding.

Based on the Divine Knowledge of

Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel

This book is a structured presentation of spiritual knowledge shared through discourses.

How to Read This Book

This is not just a book to read, but a knowledge to experience. Read slowly. Reflect deeply. Let each thought transform your inner state.

Day 2

Karma & Rebirth | Quantum Entanglement

Introduction

Day 2 takes the journey deeper — from understanding the self to understanding the laws governing existence.

It reveals how every experience in life is connected to karma, how destiny is formed, and how the cycle of birth and rebirth operates.

This knowledge is not philosophical — it is the foundation of life itself.

Understanding the Law of Karma

Once the distinction between the soul and the body is understood, the next essential step is to understand the laws governing the soul's journey.

The soul does not exist randomly. It operates under universal laws — and the most fundamental among them is the Law of Karma. After understanding that the soul and body are separate, the next important step is to understand the journey of the soul, the law of karma, and how karmic actions determine future births.

Every soul that enters the cycle of creation becomes bound by actions. These actions determine its experiences, its circumstances, and even its future births. Understanding karma helps us to understand why we experience happiness or suffering, and how we can transform our destiny through conscious action.

Types of Karma

Karma can be understood in three primary forms:

- Positive Actions (SatKarma) — actions that create harmony, goodness and upliftment

For example: Good deeds, Charity, helping others, compassion and truth

- Negative Actions (Vikaram) — actions that create suffering, imbalance or harm

For examples: all sinful deeds, harmful actions

- Action Without Attachment (Nishkarm)— the highest state, where all actions are performed without personal reward, desire or ego. Emphasised in the Bhagavad Gita by Shri Krishna

Each type of action generates its own result.

The Three Layers of Karma

The journey of the soul is governed by three layers:

1. Accumulated Karma (Sanchit Karma)

All actions performed across countless past births are stored.

2. Destiny (Prarabdha Karma)

A portion of accumulated karma manifests as the present life circumstances.

3. Current Actions (Kriyamana karma)

The actions performed in the present moment, which will shape future destiny.
Between Prarabdha and Kriyamana karma, Free will plays a vital role.

→ Your present life is not accidental

→ It is the result of accumulated past actions

Karma and Destiny

A crucial question arises: If destiny is fixed, can it be changed?

The answer is:

- Some aspects must be experienced
- But a significant portion can be transformed through present actions

The present moment holds free will. Through conscious action, awareness, and knowledge, one can shape the future.

Karma and Vibrational Energy

Every thought, word, and action generates energy Vibrations.

Not only physical actions — but also:

- Thoughts / Intentions (Mind)
- Speech (Words)
- Emotions

Each of these produces vibrations. These vibrations do not remain limited to the individual. They interact with the entire cosmos.

- The universe is interconnected
- Every thought creates a subtle impact, creates karmic bonds and effect future circumstances.

This means:

Even thinking is a form of karma.

The Power of Thought

The most powerful form of karma is thought.

Even if a person isolates themselves physically, their mind continues to create karma. If someone continuously thinks about a person — whether with attachment or hatred — a karmic connection is formed.

This is why:

→ Freedom requires mastery over thoughts

Karmic Relationships

Relationships are not random. They are formed based on past karmic connections.

Souls are drawn toward environments and families that match their accumulated tendencies.

Sometimes, souls remain in subtle states waiting for the right conditions to take birth again due to unresolved karmic bonds.

Hence Bapuji explains in his knowledge that it is very essential for souls to know concept of "Ant mati so Gati". Which means the state of mind at the moment of death determines the soul's next journey or rebirth.

Suffering often arises from ignorance of karmic law.

When a person understands karma: acceptance increases, emotional maturity develops, reactions become balanced and spiritual growth begins. Understanding karma helps individuals respond consciously rather than emotionally.

Life After Death

After leaving the body, the soul does not disappear.

It carries:

- Impressions
- Memories
- Karmic records

Depending on its state, it may:

- Move to higher dimensions
- Remain in subtle realms
- Stay connected to earthly surroundings

The next birth is determined by:

- Karma
- Mental state at the time of death
- Inner tendencies

The Cycle of Rebirth

Rebirth is not random. It follows a precise law:

- The soul is drawn to conditions that match its internal state

Just like elements in nature combine to complete themselves, the soul moves toward environments that fulfil its karmic balance.

Breaking the Karmic Cycle

The cycle of karma continues endlessly unless broken.

The only way to break it is:

→ Through true supreme divine knowledge

Without knowledge, the soul remains trapped in repeating patterns.

Karma vs Destiny

A common confusion:

Is karma stronger or destiny?

The answer:

→ Karma creates destiny

If everything were pre-fixed, no transformation would be possible. The existence of free will proves that transformation is real.

The Illusion of Repetition

Some believe life is a fixed repeating script.

But if that were true:

- No effort would matter
- No transformation would be possible

The law of karma exists precisely to allow change.

Origin of Karma

Karma began when the soul moved from a pure, formless state into manifested existence, interaction begins, and karmic impressions are formed.

In its original state:

- The soul is pure
- Free from all impressions

But as soon as it enters creation:

- Action begins
- Karma begins

Evolution of the Soul

As creation progresses:

- The soul gradually loses its original power
- Its actions become more complex
- Its karmic burden increases

Eventually, the soul enters human life — where both awareness and bondage reach their peak.

The Karmic Record

Every action is recorded in subtle layers of consciousness .

Nothing is lost.

The soul carries a complete record of its journey — even if it is not consciously remembered.

Liberation from Karma

To become free from karma:

- One must connect to the highest source of energy

Ordinary effort is not enough.

The soul must:

- Rise beyond attachments
- Knowledge of the soul
 - Stabilize in its Soul Consciousness.
 - Connect with the supreme Almighty Authority
- Meditation and spiritual practice

Only then can karmic impressions dissolve.

True Transformation

No external method alone can free the soul.

Only:

- Knowledge
- Awareness
- Connection to the supreme source

can bring real transformation.

What We Have Understood on Day 2

- Karma is the cosmic law that records every action, thought, and feeling — it is neither punishment nor reward, but the precise response of the universe.
- The atma (the soul) carries karmic imprints across lifetimes; this is what links one birth to the next.
- There are three layers of karma: sanchit (accumulated), prarabdha (active in this life), and kriyamana (being created now).
- Karma and destiny are not the same — destiny is the unfolding of past karma, but the soul retains the freedom to create new karma in every moment.
- Vibration matters: every thought emits karmic energy. Even unspoken thoughts leave a trace upon the soul.
- Karmic relationships explain why some souls feel familiar from the first meeting — old accounts continue across many lifetimes.
- Life after death is a journey through subtle realms; the soul's vibration determines where it goes and what form it next takes.
- Rebirth is not random — the soul is drawn to the body, family, and circumstance that match its karmic record.

- The karmic cycle can be broken through gyaan (knowledge), yoga (union with the Supreme), and selfless action — this is the door to mukti.
- Liberation from karma is the soul's true goal — not escape from life, but freedom from the bondage that pulls it back into birth and death.

Glossary

Karma

The universal law of cause and effect — every thought, action, and intention generates a corresponding result. Karma is not punishment or reward but the precise response of existence to every vibration the soul releases.

Destiny (Prarabdha)

The portion of accumulated past actions that manifests as present life circumstances. Prarabdha unfolds events that must be experienced, but the soul's response to them remains free.

Accumulated Karma (Sanchit Karma)

The total stock of all actions performed across multiple lifetimes, stored within the deepest causal body. Sanchit is vast; only a fraction ripens in any one birth as prarabdha.

Current Actions (Kriyamana Karma)

Actions performed in the present moment that shape future experiences and destiny. Kriyamana is the seed of tomorrow's prarabdha and the soul's living freedom.

Soul

The conscious, eternal entity that exists beyond the physical body. A point of light at the seat of the forehead, the source of all life-energy, that journeys through bodies and dimensions while remaining indestructible.

Subtle Body

The non-physical energetic layer where thoughts, emotions, and impressions operate. It governs the physical form and accompanies the soul beyond death into its next embodiment.

Causal Body (Karan Sharir)

The deepest layer of a soul's individual existence, where all karmic records are stored and from which destiny unfolds. Cleansing this layer is the essence of true spiritual practice.

Vibrations

Subtle energy frequencies generated by thoughts, emotions, and actions. Every vibration interacts with the larger field of creation, attracting matching circumstances and binding the soul to corresponding karmic results.

Rebirth (Reincarnation)

The process through which the soul takes a new physical form based on its karmic balance and unfulfilled vasanās. The new body, family, and circumstances are precisely matched to the soul's accumulated record.

Cycle of Birth and Death

The continuous process of taking birth, performing actions, and experiencing results, driven by karma. This wheel turns endlessly until the soul attains liberation through realisation of its true nature.

Karmic Cycle

The repeating loop of action and reaction that continues across lifetimes until consciously broken through true knowledge and spiritual practice. Only behad gyan and connection with the supreme can end it.

Karmic Patterns

Repeated behavioural and experiential tendencies formed due to accumulated impressions. The same situations recur until the soul transforms the underlying sanskar.

Karmic Relationships

Connections between individuals formed due to past karmic interactions. Family, friends, and adversaries are not random; each relationship carries unfinished karmic threads from previous births.

Liberation (Jeevan Mukti)

Liberation while living — a state where the soul becomes free from karmic bondage even while still in a physical body. The soul rests in complete knowledge of its creator and remains eternally connected with the supreme source.

Behad (Infinite State)

Boundless, infinite, unlimited — that which has no limit. Used to describe dimensions, knowledge, or souls beyond ordinary cosmic boundaries; the space where the word 'infinite' itself becomes meaningful.

Behad Soul

A highly evolved soul with expanded consciousness beyond ordinary cosmic limitations — composed of supreme light and supreme elements, capable of operating across multiple dimensions.

Paramshanti (Supreme Peace)

Supreme Peace — the original state of the soul at the moment of its first creation. This is why the soul forever seeks paramshanti; it is the home-frequency of pure consciousness in its incorporeal form of supreme light.

Paramdham

The Supreme Abode — the topmost layer of any creation, where the creator resides in pure incorporeal form of supreme light. Each level of creation has its paramdham: solar system, galaxy, universe, multiverse, and beyond.

Karma Bandhan (Karmic Bondage)

Karmic bondage — the binding effect of actions and thoughts that keeps the soul trapped in cycles of birth and death. Every unresolved action creates a thread tying the soul to future experience.

Sanskar (Impressions)

The character of the soul — the impressions stored in the causal body that shape thought, behaviour, and reaction. The mind operates according to sanskar; transforming sanskar through behad gyan is the first step of self-transformation.

Subtle World (Sukshma Jagat)

The world of subtle elements — finer than gross matter but denser than the causal. Where the sukshma sharira operates and where most cosmic activity actually takes place.

Maha Causal State

An advanced state beyond the causal level — where the soul reconnects with its higher origins and the great cosmic streams of consciousness from which it emerged.

Param Prakash (Divine Light)

Supreme Divine Light — the energy of a soul in its incorporeal form. The original luminous substance from which all souls first emerged and which fills the Paramdham. Power inherent in Param Prakash is measured in kala.

Free Will

The power given to the soul to choose actions in the present moment. Even within prarabdha, kriyamana karma — the freedom to respond — remains the soul's living birthright.

Cosmic Connection

The interconnected nature of existence — every action, thought, and intention influences the larger universe, and the universe in turn shapes every soul. Nothing happens in isolation.

Source (Supreme Origin)

The highest divine origin from which the soul first emerged and to which it ultimately reconnects. Returning to the source is the final goal of every spiritual practice.

Knowledge (Gyan)

Knowledge — specifically the supreme spiritual knowledge that transforms consciousness and reveals the soul's true nature. Not information, but realised truth that changes the seeker permanently.

Knowledge Yoga (Gyan Yog)

Knowledge yoga — the practice of connecting with truth and the supreme source through awareness and discrimination. The integration of gyan-marg with the inner connection of yoga.

Maya (Illusion)

The grand illusion — the veil that hides the soul's true nature and creates attachment to body, relationships, and the visible world. Maya operates in subtler forms even in the higher lokas; only in Paramdham does it cease.

Vairagya (Detachment)

Detachment — a state of inner freedom beyond desires and attachments. Not external renunciation but an inner unmoving in which the soul rests in itself, untouched by the pull of objects, persons, or pleasures.

Supreme Authority (Paramatma)

The Supreme Soul — the creator of souls. In its formless divine light state, a soul has tremendous power to create many souls through sankalp (affirmation), and is then called Paramatma. In Hindu scripture, this state is described as 'Satyam Shivam Sundaram'.

Divine Connection

The state of linking the soul with the supreme source to receive higher energy. Through this connection, sanskaras dissolve, knowledge flows, and the soul rises through dimensions.
