About Bapuji

Bapuji (full name: Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel, also lovingly called “Dadaji” by the younger generation) was born in 1956 in the small village of Akhaj in the Mehsana district of Gujarat. However, he spent his childhood in another village named Ambasan, also located in the Mehsana district.

In the early part of his life, he was a highly successful lawyer. Later, he devoted his life to realizing the supreme spiritual truth and bringing this divine knowledge forward for the welfare of humanity. Today, this supreme knowledge serves as a guiding light for true seekers to realize their ultimate destiny. It is a blessing of the highest divinity that the present time is witnessing the rise of this supreme spiritual knowledge, guiding souls on Earth to return to their original source.

Despite being raised in a very poor family and facing challenging circumstances, Bapuji had a deep desire to transform this sorrowful and suffering world into a better place. At the young age of six, he questioned God repeatedly, asking why God remained silent about the suffering of humanity. This intense longing to end human suffering eventually led him to attain the highest level of spirituality later in life.

Even as a child, Bapuji would spend hours alone in the fields, often neglecting his own comfort. Due to poverty, he would walk barefoot without shoes or sandals, frequently getting pricked by thorns. Many times, he would stay late in the fields and, on his way back home, encounter subtle world entities. These experiences sparked his interest in communicating with subtle world souls.

Bapuji was courageous from a young age, which helped him overcome many obstacles. Alongside his studies in chartered accountancy (CA), he gave tuition classes to support himself financially. Later, he completed his Bachelor of Law (LLB) degree and became a well-known lawyer in Ahmedabad.

In 1997, he established a spiritual institution called “Vishwa Parivartak Ishwariya Vidhyalay” in Chenpur, Ahmedabad, with the mission of transforming this mortal world, filled with suffering and disorder, into an eternal divine world of immortality. Smt. Sushma Tandon, lovingly known as “Maa,” worked alongside Bapuji in this grand divine mission.

To accomplish this mission, Bapuji worked tirelessly, dedicating all his resources to this divine purpose. During that time, he would deliver continuous spiritual discourses for up to 18 hours without rest. In these discourses, he explained the highest dimensions of divine knowledge, which he realized through deep meditation and divine vision in a state of superconsciousness. This knowledge goes beyond the imagination of the ordinary human mind.

Bapuji’s teachings cover a vast range of topics, including the types of celestial creators across different dimensions, the creation of our solar system, galaxy, and universe, and most importantly, the transcendental knowledge of the multiverse and realities beyond it. His knowledge is supremely profound and is intended for highly evolved seekers, referred to as “behad souls.” According to Bapuji, these “behad souls” will play a key role in transforming this mortal world into an eternal divine realm.

At present, Bapuji remains deeply engaged in intense meditation and samadhi for long hours. He does not meet anyone, as he is continuously immersed in his transcendental mission in a superconscious state.

— Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel

This book addresses one of the most fundamental and deeply misunderstood questions in spiritual life: Is God a dictator? Does everything happen solely by God’s will, or does the soul possess its own free will?

In this discourse, Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel draws a clear distinction between the understanding found on the path of devotion and the understanding found on the path of true knowledge. He explains how the cosmic cycles of creation and dissolution operate on predetermined timelines, not through arbitrary divine intervention. He further reveals that every soul has free will and that karmic bondage arises from the soul’s own choices, not from God’s control.

Through the lens of Brahma Gyan, Bapuji explains the entire cosmic cycle—from the origin of the solar system to its dissolution—covering every stage of destruction, from partial dissolution to the supreme great dissolution. These teachings aim to liberate the seeker from confusion and reveal the true nature of the Supreme Being with clarity.

Note on the Source Discourse

The content of this book is derived from a Hindi-language spiritual discourse delivered by Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel, originally shared on the Param Shanti YouTube channel. The discourse has been carefully translated, refined, and structured into this book format while preserving the complete purity and authenticity of Bapuji's original teachings.

Readers are encouraged to listen to the original discourse for the complete experience.

Chapter One

The Common Belief — Is Everything God's Will?

People commonly perceive God as someone under whose will everything happens. They believe that not even a leaf moves without his will, and that He controls everything. When someone dies, it is often called God's will. When misfortune strikes, it is again attributed to God. Yet when something good happens, people rarely give God the credit.

These are concepts rooted in the path of devotion, the Bhakti Marg. Phrases like “God's will” or “whatever God desires” are the language of devotion. However, the path of knowledge, the Gyan Marg, sees things differently.

A realized being—a Brahma Gyani, one endowed with supreme knowledge—does not perceive things in this way. A Brahma Gyani explains the entire cosmic system, the Bramand, from its origin to its dissolution with complete clarity and precision.

♦ Bapuji Insight: “Those on the path of devotion perceive God as the direct cause of all events. But through the path of knowledge, a much deeper and more accurate understanding emerges.”

Chapter Two

What the Path of Devotion Teaches

Those on the path of devotion believe that when the four ages — Satya Yuga (the Golden Age or Age of Truth) ; Treta Yuga (the Silver Age or Age of Three Virtues) ; Dwapar Yuga (the Bronze Age or Age of Two Virtues) ; and Kali Yuga (the Iron Age or Age of Strife) — come to an end, and when the time of moral decline arrives, God brings destruction.

It is said that Lord Vishnu incarnates and destroys the demons. This belief is true to some extent. At the time of moral decline, God indeed incarnates. As stated in the Gita:

As echoed in the Bhagavad Gita (Chapter 4, Verse 7), whenever dharma declines and unrighteousness rises, the Divine manifests in form to restore the cosmic balance.

This is true. However, the deeper question arises: Do all forms of cosmic dissolution—partial dissolution (Ardha Pralaya), complete dissolution (Pralaya), time-driven dissolution (Kaal Pralaya), great time dissolution (Mahakaal Pralaya), and the supreme great dissolution—occur solely by the will of God, or is there a deeper cosmic law governing them?

A true seeker of knowledge questions the cause behind such events and who governs them. This is where the knowledge of Brahma—Brahma Gyan becomes essential. It reveals the complete cycle of the cosmic system, from its beginning to its end, and only one who holds this knowledge can fully understand the truth.

Chapter Three

Free Will and Karmic Bondage

Based on knowledge, every soul has free will. Every soul acts according to its own will, and by its own will, the soul gets entangled in karmic bondages. This leads to an accounting of deeds, resulting in the experience of happiness and sorrow. Those who perform good deeds ascend to the higher realms, like the heavens or Swarg Lok, to experience joy.

According to the path of devotion, liberation (moksha) depends on one's focus of remembrance, especially at the time of death. A devotee who remembers Lord Vishnu is believed to attain Vishnupuri, whereas one who remembers Lord Shiva reaches Shivpuri.

With Brahma Gyan, the knowledge of the Brahma — the formless, infinite, and eternal cosmic reality — one attains the realization of Aham Brahmasmi, meaning “I am Brahma.” Through this realization, the soul connects with the divine essence and reaches Brahma Lok, which is considered the supreme abode, the Param Dham.

♦ Bapuji Insight: “Every soul acts according to its own will. By its own will, the soul gets entangled in karmic bondages. God does not interfere in human actions.”

Chapter Four

The Cycle of Creation and Destruction

During the four ages, intense battles take place between the divine beings (the Devatas), and the demons (the Asuras). This is called the Devasura Sangram. In the process, the world gradually becomes dominated by ignorance and impurity.

In Satya Yuga, the world is governed by Satva—the principle of purity and harmony. In Treta and Dwapar Yugas, Rajas, representing activity and passion, becomes predominant. In Kali Yuga, Tamas—the force of ignorance and inertia—takes over. As Kali Yuga progresses, not only does ignorance deepen, but the population also expands significantly. At such a stage, complete dissolution becomes inevitable.

Within the solar system, the Bramand, creation is carried out by Lord Brahma, sustenance by Lord Vishnu, and destruction by Lord Shankar. The three deities, Brahma, Vishnu, and Shankar, are always directed by the supreme energy, the Adishakti. Adishakti is the mother of the three deities.

The Origin of the Solar System

Adishiva, the creator of the Bramand, creates the solar system with the essence of Satyam Shivam Sundaram — Truth, Auspiciousness, and Beauty. Adishiva creates Adishakti. Both Adishiva and Adishakti are created from the Nirgun Nirakar, the attributeless and formless state of the Supreme God, the Parabrahma Parameshwar.

When the Supreme God thinks, “Let me become many from one, let me create the solar system,” He manifests from the formless state as Adishiva. Adishiva creates Adishakti, and together they create Vishnu. From Vishnu's navel emerges Lord Brahma. From Lord Brahma, seven supreme beings, the Param Purush, are born. These seven supreme beings then create the seven realms, the Sapta Lok, which are believed to exist beyond the earthly plane.

From Supreme Beings to Humans

Within these realms, numerous supreme beings are created. Each supreme being brings forth the primordial unmanifested matter, the Param Prakriti, from within themselves. As these supreme beings create extensively, their energy begins to deplete significantly.

Over time, their bodies, which were originally composed of supreme elements, the Param Tatva — supreme ether, supreme air, and supreme fire — gradually shift from supreme elements to regular elements. In this process, they transform from supreme beings into deities, the Devatas.

As the deities continue to create extensively, they gradually fall and degenerate, eventually transforming into humans. These humans, formed from three elements, are further covered by the water element, Jal Tatva, and the earth element, Mitti Tatva, forming the five-element human body. Lord Brahma creates the earth, and Lord Vishnu, as the deity Surya Narayana, creates the sun.

♦ Bapuji Insight: “No one was made a deity directly by God, nor were humans created directly. Each soul, from its own free will, transforms from the supreme being state into the human state through its own power of resolve.”

Chapter Five

The Predetermined Timeline

This solar system operates under the timeframe of Lord Brahma, which spans one hundred years of Brahma's time. Even this time cannot exist without the will of the Paramatma, the Supreme God. Time itself is created by the Supreme God.

However, the souls and supreme beings that emerged were not made into deities directly by God, nor were they forced to become humans. Each soul, through its own free will, transforms from the supreme being state into three elements and from three elements into the human form. It is through their own power of resolve, the Sankalpa Shakti, that souls engage in the process of creation.

The Fall into Lower Realms

Over time, humans fall into great vices — desires, anger, greed, attachment, and ego. When humans become trapped in material desires, they turn demonic, becoming Asuras. Thus the seven lower realms of the Pataal Lok were created: Atal, Vital, Satal, Talatal, Mahatal, Rasatal, and Pataal. Gradually, humans descend into these lower realms.

The Role of the Sages

To impart knowledge, great sages manifest as Brahmarishis, Maharishis, and Rajarishis. The Brahmarishis provide brahma Gyan —the supreme knowledge that explains the origin and the course of the cosmic system(Solar system). Souls, in their journey, are said to arrive here from beyond the solar system—from other galaxies, universes, and even greater cosmic realms.

By gaining Brahma Gyan, they become realized beings, the Brahma Gyanis. They comprehend the entire origin and middle of the solar system. Before the time of the solar system is completed, these realized souls leave this Bramand and move to other galaxies, the Maha Bramand, the Milky Way or Akashganga. They leave the solar system before its dissolution.

Chapter Six

The Cycle of Dissolutions

When the solar system faces destruction, the cycle of dissolutions unfolds in stages. When the four ages — Satya Yuga, Treta Yuga, Dwapar Yuga, and Kali Yuga — come to an end, the partial dissolution, the Ardha Pralay, occurs. This partial dissolution occurs repeatedly over time.

After many such cycles, a complete dissolution, the Pralay, occurs on earth. The era of Manu and Shatrupa comes to an end. Manu is the progenitor of humanity, the first man, and Shatrupa is the mother of creation, the first woman. Humanity is entirely wiped out. The earth is submerged in water because of the Jal Pralay, the flood dissolution, and no humans remain alive.

After fourteen Manvantaras, a Kalp Pralay occurs. Kalp Pralay is carried out by Lord Vishnu through the extreme temperature equivalent to 12 suns enters the sun and increases its heat and fire, burning everything. All realms — Bhu Lok, the earth; Bhuvar Lok; and the swarg lok; are dissolved through extreme heat energy of fire elements.

The Cosmic Timeline

Kali Yuga lasts four hundred and thirty-two thousand years. Double that is the duration of Dwapar Yuga. Three times that is the duration of Treta Yuga. Four times that is the duration of Satya Yuga. The total duration of the four ages, the Chaturyuga, is 4.32 million years.

In Lord Brahma's timeline, one day of Lord Brahma in Brahmapuri results in a Kalp Pralay. Lord Brahma's lifespan is one hundred years, which constitutes the lifespan of the Bramand, the solar system. All of this is automatically predetermined.

The Nirgun Nirakar Shiva, the attributeless and formless Supreme Being, governs it all — but in an automatic manner. The cosmos operates according to its own predetermined laws. The devotees of the Bhakti Marg also describe the world as ready-made, pre-created, and following a cycle of creation and destruction.

The Supreme Dissolution

After multiple Ardha Pralay cycles, a Mahakalpa Pralay, the great dissolution, occurs. At that time, Nirakar Shiva enters the sun and generates the fire of time, the Kal Agni, and burns the entire solar system to ashes. In this way, Mahashiva transforms into Mahakal and absorbs countless solar systems into every pore of his being. This is how the Mahakal Pralay occurs.

Chapter Seven

Why God Is Not a Dictator

Does God cause all this? Does Ardha Pralay, Pralay, Kalp Pralay, and Mahakalp Pralay all happen because of God? Yes — God is the one who causes everything. If He causes everything according to His will, would He not be called a dictator?

But look carefully — He is not a dictator. Every single aspect of the solar system operates on a fixed timeline. Just as humans follow their daily routines and actions, and have their own philosophy of karma, even in the pursuit of knowledge, every soul can ascend to the supreme abode of Param Dham by its own will.

There is no compulsion to remain in this solar system, on this earth, in this mortal world, the Mrityu Lok, or to keep revolving in the cycle of birth and death. Every human soul can ascend to the supreme abode by its own free will.

♦ Bapuji Insight: “God is not a dictator. Every single aspect of the solar system operates on a fixed timeline. Even the Nirgun Nirakar Shiva has a recording within him — he only knows how to create and destroy. It is all predetermined.”

The Recording Within the Formless

Even the Nirgun Nirakar Shiva has a recording within him. This recording contains the mechanism for creation and destruction of the Bramand. He only knows how to create and destroy — nothing else. Creation and destruction happen repeatedly. He creates solar systems and destroys them, creates and destroys.

That is why the scriptures say that at every moment, a Bramand is created and destroyed. For Mahashiva, one moment of his time equals one hundred years of Brahma's time. In one second of Mahashiva's time, countless Bramands are being created and destroyed. All of this is predetermined. It is recorded.

Therefore, it cannot be called a dictatorship. When everything functions according to a set timeline, it is not considered a dictatorship.

Chapter Eight

Human Freedom and Divine Non-Interference

God does not forcibly destroy humanity. Humans are free. They are independent. They have free will. God does not interfere in human actions or karma. He does not personally bring storms to the earth or directly intervene. Everything happens according to a set timeline. When the predetermined time arrives, Brahma, Vishnu, and Shankar perform their respective duties.

Those who are wise, the Brahma Gyanis, know everything beforehand. That is why they are called Brahma Gyanis. When destruction of the solar system is about to occur, the Brahma Gyanis leave. They move outside the galaxy and into another universe. When that universe faces destruction, they ascend to the great universe. When the great universe is destroyed, they enter the great-great universe. From there, they move to the multiverse. When the multiverse is destroyed, they ascend to another great multiverse.

The Worlds of Celestial Power

The multiverse is considered the world of one hundred Kala, or degrees of celestial power. The universe is the world of sixteen to twenty Kala. The galaxy, the Maha Bramand, is the world of eight to twelve Kala. The solar system, the Bramand, is the world of one to four Kala.

Great souls — the highly realized ones, the Brahmarishis and the Maha Brahmarishis, who possess knowledge of the Maha Bramand and its beginning and middle — do not call God a dictator. Those who have realized this knowledge understand the cosmic mechanism deeply. Devotion (Bhakti) and Knowledge (Gyan) are both sacred paths — each illuminating a different aspect of the same Supreme Truth.

♦ Bapuji Insight: “Devotion (Bhakti) is the sacred foundation; Knowledge (Gyan) is its flowering. Bhakti opens the heart; Gyan opens the eye. Both are blessed paths leading the soul homeward to the Supreme.”

Chapter Nine

The Path of Knowledge — The Way to Freedom

Many seekers describe natural events as God's direct will — saying that He brings the rain, or that floods occur by His command. From the path of knowledge, a deeper view emerges: everything unfolds according to a predetermined cosmic order. Lord Brahma, Vishnu, and Shankar continue their work according to their set roles. Even Mahadev, the great Shiva, oversees the cycle of creation and destruction according to the established timeline.

The Supreme Soul, the Paramatma, resides in the supreme abode, the Param Dham. He remains beyond action, Karmatit, and detached from all karmic cycles. Those who live on earth, the humans, are subject to the bondage of their actions and remain trapped in the cycle of birth and death.

Those who gain knowledge rise to the higher realms. From the earth, Bhu Lok, they ascend to Bhuvār Lok, Swarg Lok, Mahar Lok, Jana Lok, Tapa Lok, Satya Lok, and then to Maha Satya Lok. Eventually, they reach Brahmapuri, Vishnu Puri, Shiva Puri, and finally the supreme abode, the Param Dham. Souls ascend based on their level of knowledge.

As reflected in the Bhagavad Gita (Chapter 7, Verse 17), among all sincere seekers, the wise one — the gyani — is described as most dear to the Divine.

Breaking Free from Karmic Bondage

One must make one's own effort—Purusharth. By applying the power of knowledge (Gyan Yog) and the strength of meditation (Yog Bal), negative actions (Vikarma) can be dissolved. When the soul connects with the Supreme Soul (Paramatma) to draw divine power, it becomes truly empowered.

When the soul is empowered, the subtle body (the Sukshma Sharir), the causal body (the Karan Sharir) and the great causal body (the Maha Karan Sharir), become charged, and negative actions are destroyed. In the causal body, everything is recorded — the accounts of all actions. Through the power of yog, these records are erased.

The soul then becomes transcendental — beyond karma, the Karmatit; beyond emotions, the Bhavatit; and beyond qualities, the Gunatit. The soul ascends to the supreme abode, the Param Dham, which is the immortal realm, the Amar Lok, also known as Brahma Lok, where the formless Nirgun Nirakar Brahma resides.

Brahmapuri is different — that is where Lord Brahma resides. Brahma Lok refers to the supreme abode, the Param Dham, where the Nirgun Nirakar resides. When a soul becomes formless, when it transcends action, emotion, and quality, it ascends to the Param Dham.

♦ Bapuji Insight: “Embrace knowledge with an open heart. The soul truly thirsts for understanding. Without true knowledge, the soul wanders within Maya. Walk the path of knowledge, become a Brahma Gyani, and clarity will dawn.”

Glossary

Adishakti — The primordial supreme energy; the mother of the three deities Brahma, Vishnu, and Shankar.

Adishiva — The primordial Shiva; the original creator of the solar system, the Bramand.

Aham Brahmasmi — “I am Brahma” — the supreme realization of one’s identity with the formless absolute.

Amar Lok — The immortal realm; another name for the supreme abode, the Param Dham.

Ardha Pralay — Partial dissolution; the periodic destruction that occurs at the end of each cycle of four ages.

Asura — A demon; a being who has fallen from the human state due to vices and material desires.

Atma — The soul; a point of conscious spiritual energy.

Bhavatit — The state of being beyond emotions; a transcendental state.

Bhakti Marg — The path of devotion; the spiritual approach centred on worship and surrender.

Brahma — The creator deity within the solar system; not to be confused with Brahma, the formless absolute.

Brahma Gyan — Divine or supreme knowledge; knowledge encompassing the origin and middle of the entire solar system.

Brahma Gyani — A realized soul who possesses complete Brahma Gyan.

Brahma Lok — The supreme abode, the Param Dham, where the formless Nirgun Nirakar Brahma resides.

Brahmapuri — The realm where Lord Brahma resides; distinct from Brahma Lok.

Brahmarishi — A supreme sage who imparts Brahma Gyan from outside the solar system.

Bramand — The solar system; the cosmic structure created and governed by Lord Brahma's timeline.

Chaturyuga — The cycle of four ages totalling 4.32 million years.

Devata — A deity; a celestial being formed from three elements.

Devasura Sangram — The recurring battle between divine beings and demons.

Dwapar Yuga — The Bronze Age or Age of Two Virtues; the third of the four cosmic ages.

Gunatit — The state of being beyond the three qualities of nature; transcendental.

Gyan Marg — The path of knowledge; the spiritual approach based on true understanding and realization.

Jal Pralay — Flood dissolution; the submersion of earth in water at the end of a Manvantara cycle.

Kala — A degree of celestial power; used to describe the level of energy in different cosmic realms.

Kal Agni — The fire of time; the cosmic fire generated during supreme dissolution.

Kal Pralay — Time dissolution; the destruction that occurs after fourteen Manvantaras, at the end of one day of Brahma.

Kali Yuga — The Iron Age or Age of Strife; the fourth and most degraded of the four cosmic ages.

Karan Sharir — The causal body; the subtle body where all karmic records are stored.

Karma Bandhan — Karmic bondage; the entanglement of the soul in the cycle of action and consequence.

Karmatit — The state of being beyond karma; transcending action and its consequences.

Maha Bramand — The galaxy; a cosmic structure larger than the solar system. Also called Akashganga.

Maha Karan Sharir — The great causal body; a deeper layer of the soul's subtle structure.

Mahakal Pralay — The supreme great dissolution; the destruction of countless solar systems and galaxies.

Mahakalpa Pralay — The great dissolution; the destruction of the entire solar system after multiple partial cycles.

Manu — The progenitor of humanity; the first man in a given cosmic cycle.

Manvantara — The era of one Manu; a cosmic time period within Lord Brahma's day.

Maya — Illusion; the cosmic force that keeps souls trapped in material existence.

Moksha — Liberation; freedom from the cycle of birth and death, as understood on the path of devotion.

Nirgun Nirakar — The attributeless and formless state of the Supreme God.

Parabrahma Parameswar — The Supreme God; the ultimate formless divine reality.

Param Dham — The supreme abode; the highest and immortal realm beyond all creation.

Param Purush — A supreme being; one of the seven original beings created from Lord Brahma.

Param Tatva — Supreme elements; the original composition of the supreme beings before their descent.

Paramatma — The Supreme Soul; God in His highest transcendental state.

Patal Lok — The seven lower realms where fallen souls reside as demons.

Pralay — Complete dissolution; the total destruction of life on earth.

Purusharth — Self-effort; the personal spiritual effort required for liberation.

Rajas — The quality of passion; the prevailing energy in Treta and Dwapar Yugas.

Sankalpa Shakti — The power of resolve; the creative power through which souls manifest.

Satva — The quality of purity; the prevailing energy in Satya Yuga.

Satya Yuga — The Golden Age or Age of Truth; the first and purest of the four cosmic ages.

Satyam Shivam Sundaram — Truth, Auspiciousness, and Beauty; the essence of divine creation.

Shankar — The deity of destruction; the third of the three cosmic deities.

Shatrupa — The mother of creation; the first woman in a given cosmic cycle.

Sukshma Sharir — The subtle body; one of the layers of the soul's structure.

Tamas — The quality of ignorance and inertia; the prevailing energy in Kali Yuga.

Treta Yuga — The Silver Age or Age of Three Virtues; the second of the four cosmic ages.

Vikarma — Negative or sinful actions; the karmic debts accumulated by the soul.

Vishnu — The deity of sustenance; the second of the three cosmic deities.

Yog Bal — The power of meditation; the spiritual force gained through connecting the soul with the Supreme Soul.
