About Bapuji

Bapuji (full name: Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel, also lovingly called “Dadaji” by the younger generation) was born in 1956 in the small village of Akhaj in the Mehsana district of Gujarat. However, he spent his childhood in another village named Ambasan, also located in the Mehsana district.

In the early part of his life, he was a highly successful lawyer. Later, he devoted his life to realising the supreme spiritual truth and bringing this divine knowledge forward for the welfare of humanity. Today, this supreme knowledge serves as a guiding light for true seekers to realise their ultimate destiny. It is a blessing of the highest divinity that the present time is witnessing the rise of this supreme spiritual knowledge, guiding souls on Earth to return to their original source.

Despite being raised in a very poor family and facing challenging circumstances, Bapuji had a deep desire to transform this sorrowful and suffering world into a better place. At the young age of six, he questioned God repeatedly, asking why God remained silent about the suffering of humanity. This intense longing to end human suffering eventually led him to attain the highest level of spirituality later in life.

Even as a child, Bapuji would spend hours alone in the fields, often neglecting his own comfort. Due to poverty, he would walk barefoot without shoes or sandals, frequently getting pricked by thorns. Many times, he would stay late in the fields and, on his way back home, encounter subtle world entities. These experiences sparked his interest in communicating with subtle world souls.

Bapuji was courageous from a young age, which helped him overcome many obstacles. Alongside his studies in chartered accountancy (CA), he gave tuition classes to support himself financially. Later, he completed his Bachelor of Law (LLB) degree and became a well-known lawyer in Ahmedabad.

In 1997, he established a spiritual institution called “Vishwa Parivartak Ishwariya Vidhyalay” in Chenpur, Ahmedabad, with the mission of transforming this mortal world, filled with suffering and disorder, into an eternal divine world of immortality. Smt. Sushma Tandon, lovingly known as “Maa,” worked alongside Bapuji in this grand divine mission.

To accomplish this mission, Bapuji worked tirelessly, dedicating all his resources to this divine purpose. During that time, he would deliver continuous spiritual discourses for up to 18 hours without rest. In these discourses, he explained the highest dimensions of divine knowledge, which he realised through deep meditation and divine vision in a state of superconsciousness. This knowledge goes beyond the imagination of the ordinary human mind.

Bapuji’s teachings cover a vast range of topics, including the types of celestial creators across different dimensions, the creation of our solar system, galaxy, and universe, and most importantly, the transcendental knowledge of the multiverse and realities beyond it. His knowledge is supremely profound and is intended for highly evolved seekers, referred to as “behad souls.” According to Bapuji, these “behad souls” will play a key role in transforming this mortal world into an eternal divine realm.

At present, Bapuji remains deeply engaged in intense meditation and samadhi for long hours. He does not meet anyone, as he is continuously immersed in his transcendental mission in a superconscious state.

(Sharing Knowledge is the Highest Charity)

This book presents the spiritual teachings about Mount Kailash as shared by Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel in his divine discourses. Through his deep state of spiritual observation, Bapuji shares knowledge that opens a fresh window of understanding into this sacred place.

Mount Kailash is described not merely as a mountain in the physical sense, but as one of the most powerful spiritual centres on Earth — a place that, according to this discourse, serves as a meeting point between the physical world and the higher dimensions of creation. The teachings shared in this book aim to deepen the seeker’s love and reverence for this sacred site.

This knowledge is part of the broader framework of Behad Gyan, the supreme knowledge beyond all limits, which Bapuji has been sharing with humanity through his discourses.

Mount Kailash is also deeply revered by many spiritual traditions, each with its own profound teachings and inner wisdom. This book honours all such traditions and offers the present teachings purely as one devotional perspective for the spiritual upliftment of sincere seekers.

Chapter One

The Living Presence of Shiv Shankar at Kailash

According to Bapuji's discourse on Behad Gyan, Shiv Shankar and Parvati, along with their family including Shri Ganesh and Kartikeya, are present at Mount Kailash to this very day. They exist in a subtle form, composed of three subtle elements. Their bodies are made of these refined elements, and they reside in this form at Kailash and around Mansarovar.

Bapuji teaches that Shankar and Parvati move freely around the entire Kailash region and Mansarovar. This is described as their divine abode, their sacred station. When souls who carry genuine devotion and heartfelt love for Mahadev visit this place, it is said that they are blessed with an inner experience of the divine presence.

◆ Insight: Only those devotees who worship Mahadev with a true and sincere heart will receive the inner experience of His presence when they visit Mansarovar.

"The blessings of Kailash flow to the heart that is sincere."

Kailash is especially revered by the devotees of Shri Ganesh, Kartikeya, and Shankar-Parvati. According to this discourse, countless souls perform deep spiritual practice in and around Mansarovar and the surrounding mountains. These are described as not ordinary souls — they are said to have devoted many lifetimes to the worship and meditation of Shankar and Parvati.

Bapuji shares that it is only after lifetimes of devoted practice that these souls earn the inner privilege of sensing Mahadev's presence and receiving the experience of divine blessings at Kailash. The real secret of Kailash, according to this discourse, lies in the loving truth that the divine family is felt to be present here, and that souls of deep devotion are blessed to sense their presence within.

Chapter Two

The Gateway Between Earth and the Higher Worlds

One of the most beautiful revelations Bapuji shares about Kailash is that it is described as a spiritual gateway between the Earth and the higher dimensions of creation. According to his discourse, there is a specific point at the peak of Kailash from which souls travel to and from the higher worlds, including Swarg Lok and the second and third dimensions of the subtle world.

Bapuji teaches that souls from the higher dimensions regularly descend to Kailash to pay their respects to Shankar. They are described as arriving in spheres of divine power, travelling in their subtle vehicles. Similarly, souls who have earned spiritual merit through lifetimes of devotion are said to ascend from Kailash to the higher worlds through this same passage.

◆ Insight: In the ancient times, Kailash was the only gateway on Earth through which souls could travel to Swarg Lok and the higher dimensions. Today, there are multiple pathways, but Kailash remains the most sacred.

“The gateway endures — sacred, silent, eternal.”

This is why, according to this discourse, the summit of Kailash is felt to remain protected by subtle-world guardians and is not accessible as an ordinary mountain to spiritual seekers. Bapuji shares this as a direct insight from his deep spiritual observation, offered for the contemplation of sincere devotees.

Bapuji describes that beings from the higher worlds come and go through this passage in their spheres of divine energy. The continuous movement of these souls between Earth and the higher dimensions, in his discourse, makes Kailash one of the most spiritually active locations in the entire creation.

Chapter Three

The Subtle World of Kailash

Bapuji shares that beyond the physical mountain lies a vast subtle region that is described as belonging to Shankar and Parvati. Slightly above the physical peak of Kailash, his discourse describes an enormous territory in the subtle world. This region is so vast and so sacred, he teaches, that no ordinary soul can enter it.

According to Bapuji's discourse, only the most devoted souls — those who have performed sincere worship of Shankar and Parvati across many lifetimes — are granted entry into this subtle territory. Here, the most advanced souls are said to engage in continuous spiritual practice under the divine presence of Mahadev.

◆ Insight: The subtle-world atmosphere around Kailash extends for approximately thirty-five kilometres in all directions. Within this zone, divine powers are felt to be palpably present.

“Within thirty-five kilometres of Kailash, the divine is felt directly.”

Bapuji explains the vertical layers of the subtle atmosphere. According to his discourse, up to approximately three kilometres above the Earth's surface, lower subtle entities cannot easily ascend. Beyond about three kilometres, he teaches, only lighter souls who sincerely remember their chosen deity with a pure heart are able to remain. Beyond approximately five kilometres and higher, only the most advanced souls are said to travel, and from the peak of Kailash itself, the passage is described as leading directly into Swarg Lok.

This layered structure, according to Bapuji's discourse, explains why the physical environment around Kailash is felt to be so different by visitors. The atmosphere, in his teaching, is charged with divine energy at every level, and each layer is described as a natural filter, allowing only souls of appropriate spiritual advancement to ascend.

Chapter Four

The Sacred Sites of the Himalayas

Bapuji connects Kailash to the broader network of sacred sites across the Himalayas. The Char Dham Yatra, one of the most important pilgrimages in Sanatan Dharma, begins at Haridwar, which is reverently described as the gateway of Hari, or the doorway of Vishnu.

At Badrinath, devotees of Bhagwan Vishnu are described as engaging in deep spiritual practice. Bapuji shares that countless ancient souls of the subtle world are felt to reside near the Badrinath temple, performing continuous spiritual practice. At Kedarnath, devotees of Shakti perform their worship, and here too, his discourse describes a large gathering of subtle-world souls.

According to Bapuji, the entire Himalayan range, stretching thousands of kilometres from one end to the other, is filled with sacred sites. Wherever there are temples of Shiv, Shakti, or the Vaishnav tradition, his discourse describes that souls of the subtle world gather to perform their spiritual practice.

◆ Insight: Gyanganj, the legendary centre of knowledge hidden in the Himalayas, is real. The entire Himalayan range is filled with rivers of divine knowledge flowing through it.

“The Himalayas are alive with hidden streams of divine knowledge.”

The Pashupatinath Temple in Nepal is described as another powerful location where great souls of the subtle world are said to reside and perform intense spiritual practice. According to Bapuji’s discourse, these souls work in groups, supporting each other in their journey towards the higher dimensions.

All of these sites, in this discourse, are described as interconnected through the subtle world, forming a vast spiritual network across the Himalayas with Kailash at its centre. The Himalayas are also deeply revered by many other spiritual traditions, and this discourse honours all sincere paths of devotion.

Chapter Five

The Atmosphere of Divine Power

Bapuji shares that those who visit Mansarovar and bathe in its sacred waters are said to receive extraordinary spiritual experiences. The entire area within approximately thirty-five kilometres of Kailash, according to his discourse, is enveloped in a special atmosphere filled with divine powers. Visitors who come with genuine devotion are described as feeling these powers directly within.

However, Bapuji makes an important distinction. Those who visit Kailash as ordinary tourists, simply for sightseeing, are described as not receiving these inner experiences in the same way. Only those who carry sincere devotion, built over many lifetimes of spiritual practice, are said to feel the deeper fruit of their visit.

◆ Insight: The blessings of Kailash and Mansarovar are felt most deeply by souls who have cultivated sincere devotion across many lifetimes.

“Devotion across lifetimes opens the inner door to Kailash.”

Bapuji shares that the souls in the subtle world near Kailash are described as preferring to remain at altitudes of approximately five hundred kilometres or more above the Earth’s surface. According to his discourse, the lower three kilometres of the Earth’s atmosphere is described as affecting them, so they avoid it. This is why the higher reaches of Kailash, both physical and subtle, are said to remain the loving domain of the most advanced spiritual beings.

Kailash, in this discourse, is described as a supreme connection point between the mortal world and the eternal world. It is the place, according to Bapuji's teaching, where the physical and the divine are felt to meet, where the Earth touches the heavens. This is described as the real inner secret of Kailash — a truth that Bapuji has shared with deep love for all sincere seekers.

The Night Activity of Subtle Souls

According to Bapuji's discourse, at night, in the region of Mount Kailash and Mansarovar, from around 11:00 PM until early morning (around 5:00 AM), many subtle-world souls are described as continuously moving in and out of that area. Some subtle beings are said to bathe in Lake Mansarovar in a subtle form. These are described mainly as elevated souls. Lower entities are said to attempt to approach but are described as not being granted entry now. In earlier times, his discourse describes, such entities could come, but now the atmosphere is said to have become so refined that they cannot enter.

The Power of Mansarovar Water

Bapuji shares that the water of Mansarovar is described as containing a small portion of the Supreme Element (Param Tattva). According to his discourse, it is not ordinary water — the water of Mansarovar is described as extremely powerful in its spiritual influence.

In ancient times, a similar inner power is described as having existed in the Ganga when the sacred Ganga descended to Earth as the "Gyan Ganga." According to this discourse, when people bathed in the Ganga, their subtle body is described as being inwardly charged, and many of their stored sins in the subtle body were said to be reduced. However, Bapuji teaches that the causal body cannot be charged in the same way.

Why Negative Entities Cannot Enter

The traditional Puranic depictions beautifully describe Lord Shiva's divine retinue, which lovingly includes many forms of subtle beings. Bapuji's discourse complements this rich tradition by sharing that, at present, the spiritual atmosphere around Kailash is described as carrying an exceptionally refined and powerful divine presence. According to his teaching, this presence is felt as deeply peaceful and intimately connected with the higher realms of creation.

In Bapuji's discourse, the following inner descriptions are offered with reverence:

- the spiritual atmosphere is described as having become extremely refined and powerful;
- the vibrational field is said to be so elevated that lower energies cannot remain there;
- such energies are described as withdrawing of their own accord from a distance.

This refined inner presence, according to Bapuji's discourse, beautifully complements the traditional descriptions of Lord Shiva's divine family — offering the seeker an additional inner doorway into the ever-deepening mystery of Mahadev's loving presence.

Chapter Six

Present Heaven on Earth

In Bapuji's discourse, Kailash is lovingly described as a form of heaven on Earth, because:

- it is associated with deep inner peace;
- it is associated with divine presence;
- it is connected with spiritual awakening;
- it represents higher consciousness.

For spiritually prepared souls, according to Bapuji's discourse, Kailash represents an inner gateway to divine experience.

Kailash Parvat, in this discourse, is described as a multidimensional spiritual centre where physical geography and subtle spiritual reality are felt to intersect.

According to this teaching:

- Kailash is described as connected with the higher worlds;
- advanced souls are said to perform tapasya in Himalayan regions;
- Mansarovar is described as carrying spiritual vibrations;
- divine beings are described as existing in subtle forms;
- spiritual progress is said to allow deeper inner experience of sacred places.

Bapuji's teachings suggest that the true inner understanding of Kailash comes not only through physical travel but through inner spiritual development, devotion, and purification of consciousness.

Glossary

Note: The following terms are defined as used within Bapuji's discourse on Behad Gyan. Some of these definitions are offered in the inner spiritual framework of this teaching and may differ from definitions found in traditional scriptural sources. Both perspectives are honoured.

Atma: The soul. The source of energy in all living entities. The true self. In its pure original state, the soul exists in divine light form.

Param Atma: The Supreme Soul. The creator of souls. A soul in its true formless divine light form that has the power to create other souls through affirmation.

Bramhand: Solar system. The complete system of creation governed by its own Shiv.

Maha Bramhand: Galaxy. A vast collection of solar systems.

Param Maha Bramhand: Universe. The largest known structure of physical creation.

Paramdhaam: The supreme abode. The highest dimension of creation in a solar system where the creator Shiv resides. An incorporeal world of divine light.

Behad Gyan: Knowledge beyond all limits. The supreme spiritual knowledge shared by Bapuji that encompasses the entire creation from the smallest particle to the infinite multiverse.

Tattva: Element. The fundamental building blocks of creation. The visible world is composed of five elements: earth, water, air, fire, and ether.

Param Tattva: Supreme element. Finer and more refined than ordinary elements, carrying far superior inner energy.

Akari: A subtle form. Not a physical form but a form created by energy, like the shape of fire. Not visible to the physical eye.

Sakari: Physical form. When the energy of the soul moves further, it acquires a physical body made of five elements.

Nirakari: Formless. The incorporeal state of the soul in its pure divine light form.

Swarg Lok: Heaven. A higher dimension of creation above the physical world within the solar system.

Sukshma Jagat: The subtle world. A dimension of creation composed of subtle elements, invisible to the physical eye.

Loka: A layer or dimension of creation within a solar system, galaxy, or universe. Each loka represents a different level of existence.

Shankar: The deity who is described as residing at Kailash along with Parvati. In Behad Gyan, Shankar is described as the sustainer and transformer within the solar system.

Mahadev: A title meaning Great God, lovingly referring to Shankar in His most revered form.

Mansarovar: The sacred lake near Mount Kailash. A place of immense inner spiritual power where devotees are said to experience divine energies.

Gyanganj: The legendary hidden centre of divine knowledge within the Himalayas, described in Bapuji's discourse as a real inner place.

Char Dham: The four sacred pilgrimage sites in the Himalayas: Badrinath, Kedarnath, Gangotri, and Yamunotri.

Tapasya: Deep spiritual practice and austerity performed with intense devotion over extended periods.

Bhakti: Devotion. Sincere, heartfelt love and worship directed towards the divine.

Purusharth: Spiritual effort made by a human being to understand soul science through self-enquiry and meditation.

Pralay: The process of dissolution of a creation.

Vikarm: Negative actions committed by the soul that bind it to lower dimensions.
