About Bapuji

Bapuji (full name: Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel, also lovingly called “Dadaji” by the younger generation) was born in 1956 in the small village of Akhaj in the Mehsana district of Gujarat. He spent his childhood in the nearby village of Ambasan, also in the Mehsana district.

In the early part of his life, Bapuji was a highly successful lawyer. Later, he devoted himself entirely to realising the supreme spiritual truth and bringing that divine knowledge forward for the welfare of humanity. Today, this knowledge serves as a guiding light for sincere seekers who wish to understand their ultimate destiny. It is a blessing of the highest order that the present time is witnessing the rise of this supreme spiritual knowledge, guiding souls on Earth to return to their original source.

Despite being raised in very humble circumstances, Bapuji carried from childhood a deep desire to transform this sorrowful world into a better place. At the young age of six, he questioned God repeatedly, asking why God remained silent in the face of human suffering. This intense longing eventually led him to the highest levels of spiritual realisation.

Even as a child, Bapuji would spend long hours alone in the fields, often walking barefoot on thorny ground. On his way home in the evenings, he would sometimes encounter beings from the subtle world — experiences that sparked a lifelong interest in the dimensions beyond physical reality.

Alongside his studies in chartered accountancy, Bapuji gave tuition classes to support himself financially. He later completed his Bachelor of Law (LLB) degree and became a well-known lawyer in Ahmedabad.

In 1997, he established a spiritual institution called “Vishwa Parivartak Ishwariya Vidhyalay” in Chenpur, Ahmedabad, with the mission of transforming this mortal world into an eternal divine realm. Smt. Sushma Tandon, lovingly known as “Maa,” has worked alongside Bapuji in this grand mission.

To fulfil this mission, Bapuji worked tirelessly, dedicating all his resources to the divine purpose. At times he would deliver spiritual discourses for up to eighteen hours without rest, explaining the highest dimensions of divine knowledge — knowledge he received through deep meditation and divine vision in states of superconsciousness. This knowledge goes far beyond the ordinary human mind.

Bapuji’s teachings cover a vast range of subjects, including the types of celestial creators across different dimensions, the creation of our solar system, galaxy, and universe, and — most significantly — the transcendental knowledge of the multiverse and the realities beyond it. His knowledge is intended especially for highly evolved seekers, referred to in his teachings as “behad souls” — souls whose awareness reaches beyond ordinary limits.

At present, Bapuji remains deeply engaged in intense meditation and samadhi for long hours. He does not meet visitors, as he is continuously immersed in his transcendental mission in a superconscious state.

— Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel

There are moments in spiritual learning when a teaching arrives that does not fit neatly into any existing category. It is neither quite science, nor religion, nor mythology — yet it carries the unmistakable ring of lived experience and divine perception. The discourse that forms the basis of this booklet is one such teaching.

In this discourse, Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel turns his divine gaze upon a specific theme of our times: reports of large unidentified craft observed in our skies in recent months, and the subtle inner experiences that some sincere seekers have shared in connection with them. Drawing on what he perceives through his own divine vision, as well as his deep knowledge of the subtle and supreme elements, Bapuji offers a remarkable spiritual account of who such celestial beings may be, where they come from in his perception, what powers their craft, and what they appear to be doing near our world.

This booklet presents that teaching faithfully and in full. For readers encountering Bapuji’s framework for the first time, a glossary is provided at the back to explain key Sanskrit and Hindi spiritual terms such as param tatva, atma, sukshma sharir, and others. These terms carry precise meanings within Bapuji’s teachings and are italicised throughout the text.

CHAPTER ONE

You Are a Soul

The Most Misunderstood Truth in All of Creation

The entire foundation of Bapuji’s teaching rests on a single, verifiable truth: you are not the body. You are a soul. This is not poetry. It is the most precise fact of your existence. Until this is genuinely experienced — not just believed — all other spiritual knowledge remains incomplete.

“You are not a human being seeking God. You are a divine soul remembering its origin.”

The Soul’s Original Nature

The soul is a point of living, luminous energy. It is eternal — it does not age, decay, or die. When the physical body stops, the soul moves on, carrying every subtle impression/desire it has ever generated. Bapuji calls the soul's original, unconditioned state Satopradhan (सतोप्रधान): pure, peaceful, and powerful. Spiritual practice does not add something new to the soul. It removes the layers that were never truly part of it.

The Three Subtle Bodies

One of the most precise and unique aspects of Bapuji's knowledge is his teaching on the soul's three layers of existence. Each body carries different information, operates at a different vibration, and transforms at a different stage of the spiritual journey.

1. Sukshma Sharir: The subtle body and aura — the soul's most immediately accessible layer. It carries thoughts, emotions, and vital energy. It is the FIRST to transform through Yog with Almighty Authority (Supreme Father) and Behad Gyan (बेहद ज्ञान), an infinite knowledge. As the soul connects with the Infinite Supreme Father, the Sukshma Sharir (सूक्ष्म शरीर) brightens visibly — becoming a field of calm, luminous blue-white light.

Sukshma Sharir — The Subtle Body (Aura)

2. Karan Sharir (कारण शरीर): The causal body — the deep storehouse of karmic recordings across all lifetimes. Bapuji likens this to an Akashic record embedded within the soul itself. It holds galactic and multiversal memories, past-life patterns, and deep soul tendencies. When the soul receives supreme knowledge and practises true Yog, these karmic records are said to gradually dissolve layer by layer. Karmic patterns held within this body lighten over time as the soul deepens in Behad Gyan and Yog — a purely spiritual inner transformation, never a substitute for medical care or professional treatment.

Karan Sharir — The Causal Body (Akashic Record)

3. Mahakaran Sharir (महाकारण शरीर): The eternal body — the soul's deepest, most original layer and the direct interface between the individual soul and the Infinite Supreme Father. In an awakening soul, this body gradually charges with divine light. In a fully liberated soul — one that has attained Bhavatit (भावातीत), Karmatita (कर्मातीत), and Gunatita (गुणातीत) — the Mahakaran Sharir glows with pure white Param Light. In this state, Jivan Mukti (जीवन मुक्ति), liberation is attained while living. Even Mahakaal Agni (महाकाल अग्नि) cannot touch a soul whose Mahakaran Sharir is fully charged with Param Light.

Mahakaran Sharir — The Eternal Body (Pure Param Light)

Body Consciousness vs Soul Consciousness

Body consciousness is the soul's case of mistaken identity — believing you are the name, the role, the body. From this one mistake, all suffering flows. Soul consciousness means holding the awareness: 'I am a soul — a point of divine light.' This shift is not philosophical. It is vibrational. It changes the soul's aura, health, relationships, and the atmosphere of everything around it.

"The soul is not something you have. The soul is what you are. Everything else is borrowed."

- Bapuji Dashrath Bhai Patel

CHAPTER TWO

Paramshanti

The Supreme Vibration That Even Nuclear Fire Cannot Destroy

Paramshanti (परमशांति) is not just a greeting. It is a living frequency — an actual vibration generated by the soul that has real, measurable effects on the physical and subtle world. Bapuji teaches that Paramshanti is not achieved; it is remembered. It is the soul's own original state, temporarily forgotten.

▲ A LIVING SPIRITUAL FREQUENCY

Bapuji teaches that a soul fully established in Paramshanti remains untouched at the level of its eternal essence, regardless of what unfolds in the outer physical world. Paramshanti generates a luminous spiritual atmosphere around such a soul — a radiance that touches the aura and the inner being. Those who come into the presence of a lighthouse home naturally feel the influence of these peace vibrations within themselves at the level of awareness and inner state.

Think It. Speak It. Become It.

Bapuji's most consistently repeated teaching: "Behad ki Paramshanti socho, bolo." Think and speak of Infinite Supreme Peace. Every thought generates a frequency.

Thoughts of fear, anger and greed generate destructive vibrations. Thoughts of supreme peace generate healing vibrations that benefit not just the thinker but everyone in their environment.

When a soul consistently holds and speaks Paramshanti with genuine awareness, a cumulative transformation occurs. The Sukshma Sharir brightens. The Karan Sharir dissolves old karmic recordings. The Mahakaran Sharir charges with divine light. This is the spiritual science behind what appears to be a simple practice.

“Paramshanti generates a luminous spiritual atmosphere around the soul. As such vibrations radiate, the aura brightens and the inner state grows steadier. Through gentle awareness of the breath and the soul’s connection with the Infinite Supreme Father, the vibrations of supreme peace are said to spread outward, uplifting the spiritual atmosphere of one’s surroundings.”

— Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel

CHAPTER THREE

Mahakaal Pralaya

The Great Dissolution That Will Swallow Infinite Universes

Of all the subjects Bapuji addresses, none is more urgent than Mahakaal Pralaya (महाकाल प्रलय). Many readers, including those well-versed in scripture and spiritual tradition, have not yet encountered this particular dimension of cosmic teaching. To understand it fully, we must first understand the cosmic structure within which it operates.

“Many seekers, even those advanced in spiritual practice, have not yet encountered the true scale of Behad Mahakaal Pralaya. This is not a local or planetary event. It is a multiversal process — a great cosmic churning that impacts many layers of the multiverse.”

- Bapuji Dashrath Bhai Patel

Mahakaal Agni — A Fire Unlike Any Other

The fire of Mahakaal Pralaya does not merely burn physical matter. It dissolves karmic impressions, purifies subtle elements, and recycles the entire system. Even in the formless state, subtle karmic traces can remain in the soul. Those residues also burn in Mahakaal Agni. That process, for an unprepared soul, is intensely painful.

But a soul that has attained the timeless state — bhavatit (beyond emotions), karmatita (beyond karma), gunatita (beyond the three gunas) — cannot be touched by this fire. A soul made of Param Light is immune to even the supreme cosmic fire.

The Five Levels of Dissolution

- ▶ Ardh Pralaya (अर्ध प्रलय): Partial dissolution at the end of a Yuga.
- ▶ Pralaya (प्रलय): At the end of 71 Yugantar. Vishnu dissolves all creation in the three Lokas.
- ▶ Kalp Pralaya (कल्प प्रलय): End of one day of Brahma (4.32 billion years). All creation dissolves through extreme heat.
- ▶ Maha-Kalp Pralaya: End of 100 Brahma years (311 trillion years). Shiva creates Kaal Agni and dissolves the entire universe.
- ▶ Mahakaal Pralaya: △ THE CURRENT APPROACH. Mahashiv exhausts power, assumes the Mahakal state, absorbs countless Bramhands like a black hole, and merges into Param Mahashiv for renewal. Beyond all scriptural description.

“Without the power of the Almighty Authority, no soul can survive Mahakaal Agni. Only when a soul becomes pure Param Light can it transcend the fire.”

- Bapuji Dashrath Bhai Patel

“What carries a soul through this transition is not the outer form of religion or ritual, but its inner state — its vibration, its karmic record, and its depth of understanding. Souls aligned with supreme light and Behad Gyan move most easily through this transition, while every soul, in its own time and depth, is gradually drawn toward its source.”

— Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel

CHAPTER FOUR

The Practical Path

What to Actually Do — Starting Today

All of Bapuji's cosmic knowledge has one practical destination: your daily life. The revelations about Mahakaal Pralaya and the cosmic hierarchy — all of it is given not to entertain the intellect but to catalyse actual transformation. Here is Bapuji's precise five-step pathway.

THE FIVE-STEP TRANSFORMATION PATHWAY

1. KNOWLEDGE — Receive Behad Gyan. Begin with Bapuji's 10-day Param Gyan course. One hour daily for ten days reorients the intellect fundamentally.
2. YOGA — Connect with the Infinite Supreme Father daily, especially between 4-6 AM. Hold the awareness: I am a soul, a child of the Almighty Father.
3. CHARGE — Observe the transformation in your aura, emotional baseline, and energy. The subtle body is receiving power.
4. TRANSFORM — As the subtle body charges, thoughts naturally become more peaceful. Old karmic patterns begin to dissolve. Actions become divine.

5. BECOME A LIGHTHOUSE — Your home's atmosphere transforms. Other souls are drawn to it. This is not a project you manage. It is what you become.

Sakshi Bhav (साक्षी भाव) — The Witness Stance

When a strong emotion arises, when the mind pulls toward reaction, practise Sakshi Bhav: step back into the observer. Not 'I am angry' but 'I see anger is present.' This small shift in language reflects a profound shift in identity. The witness is the soul, observing the mind from its own stable position. With regular practice, this becomes the soul's natural way of being — no longer a technique, but the default state.

Spreading Paramshanti Every Day

Bapuji recommends beginning and ending every interaction with 'Behad ki Paramshanti' — not as ritual, but as genuine vibrational offering. When you say these words with awareness and real feeling, the person receiving your message receives more than words. They receive a frequency. Even those who oppose you will soften over time, without confrontation or persuasion. The vibration does the work.

Resolve, Renew, Return

Every soul stumbles on this path. Old habits reassert. The mind wanders. Bapuji does not condemn this. He simply reminds: at any moment, in any circumstance, you can take one breath, remember ‘I am a soul, connected to the Infinite Supreme Father’ — and begin again. The practice is not perfection. The practice is direction.

“The spiritual life is not a performance. It is a direction. Keep your face toward the light, and every step — even the stumbling ones — is taking you home.”

The Final Word

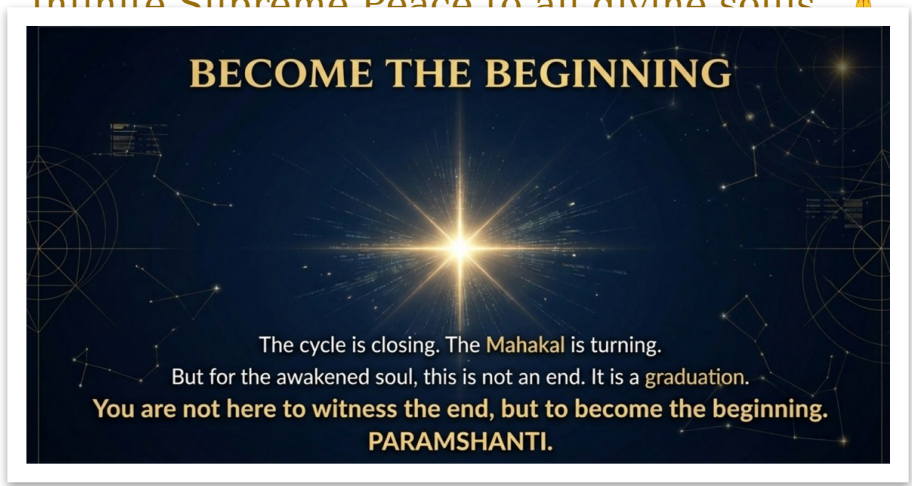

You have come to the end of these pages. You have not, however, reached the end of this journey. These words are a doorway. What lies beyond the doorway is your own soul — infinite, luminous, connected to an Almighty Father who has been waiting patiently for every divine child to remember its way home.

If even one paragraph stirred something within you — a feeling of recognition, a moment of stillness, the quiet sense that there is more to your existence than you have so far known — the purpose of this book is fulfilled. That stirring is not coincidence. It is Bapuji's vibration reaching the deepest layer of your soul. Welcome it. Follow it inward.

Mahakaal stands within the unfolding of the cosmic cycle. The clock of Brahma has measured this moment within the vast timescale of creation. What matters now is not where you were. It is where you choose to turn. Turn toward the light. Turn toward knowledge. Turn toward the Infinite Supreme Father.

Behad ki Paramshanti.

Infinite Supreme Peace to all divine souls 🏹

BECOME THE BEGINNING

The cycle is closing. The Mahakal is turning.
But for the awakened soul, this is not an end. It is a graduation.

You are not here to witness the end, but to become the beginning.
PARAMSHANTI.

Bapuji Insights

The following are key statements from this discourse, preserved in their essential form.

✦ Bapuji Insight ✦

"Through his divine vision, Bapuji perceives the unidentified craft observed in this period as originating from a far-distant region of the cosmos and as being benevolent in nature — present only to observe, and not to cause any harm." — Bapuji

✦ Bapuji Insight ✦

"Bapuji perceives that the beings within such subtle craft are sustained directly by the power of their own souls, with energy flowing through the causal body into the subtle body — a way of being that requires no physical food or drink." — Bapuji

✦ Bapuji Insight ✦

"Through his divine vision, Bapuji perceives many subtle craft and presences existing throughout our solar system. They remain unseen because they exist in the param tatva state, becoming visible only when their vibration shifts into the physical." — Bapuji

✦ Bapuji Insight ✦

"When atma gyan — soul knowledge — is attained, all these extraordinary realities become understandable." — Bapuji

Glossary

The following terms are drawn from the standard glossary of Bapuji's teachings as established in the book Life in Multiverse. Readers encountering these concepts for the first time are encouraged to study them carefully, as they form the foundation of Bapuji's Behad Gyan.

1. Atma — The soul. The source of energy within every living being; the true self. The original and pure state of a soul is divine light form — the supreme light — which is formless, existing only as energy.

2. Param Atma — The Supreme Soul; the creator of souls. In this state the creator is described as Satyam Shivam Sundaram, and is identified with Shiva, the creator of a solar system.

3. Kala — The unit of measurement of power within a soul or supreme soul. Just as electrical power is measured in watts, soul power is measured in kala. Lord Krishna was said to have sixteen kala. The higher the kala, the greater the capacity of the soul.

4. Sankalp — Affirmation or determination generated in a soul. The power of the soul's mind. When a soul resolves to do something, this is called sankalp. The higher the kala, the more powerful the sankalp shakti.

5. Nirakari — The formless state of a soul; the true divine state when the soul exists as pure divine light.

Also called the incorporeal state. In this state the creator is called Satyam Shivam Sundaram.

6. Akari — A subtle, form-bearing state. Not a physical form but a form created by energy, like the form seen in a flame. This form is not visible to the physical eye as it exists in the subtle realm.

7. Sakari — The physical form. When the energy of a soul degenerates, it acquires a gross physical form.

8. Tattva — Element. The visible world is composed of five elements broadly categorised as earth, water, air, fire, and ether. Tattva is a spiritual term that is much finer than elements as understood in modern chemistry.

9. Param Tattva — The supreme element; the highest and most refined state of any element. If tattva is the atom, param tattva is the nucleus. The energy stored in param tattva is far superior to that of ordinary tattva.

10. Paramdhaam — The supreme abode of a solar system, where the creator Shiv resides. It is the highest dimension of creation within a solar system, where the whole creation exists in supreme divine light form. An incorporeal world of creation.

11. Shiv / Maha Shiv / Param Maha Shiv — Shiv is the incorporeal creator of a solar system, residing in the paramdhaam of that solar system. Maha Shiv is the incorporeal creator of a galaxy. Param Maha Shiv is the incorporeal creator of a universe.

12. Shakti / Maha Shakti / Param Maha Shakti —

The divine female counterpart in creation. Akari Shiv first creates its counterpart known as Shakti. Both Akari Shiv and Akari Shakti work together in the furtherance of creation at every level.

13. Peedi —

Generation of creators or supreme souls. Like generations of technology, supreme souls are created chronologically: higher peedi indicates a higher generation with greater power. Creations exist at 21 Peedi, 101 Peedi, 1001 Peedi, and beyond.

14. Param Prakash —

Supreme divine light. The energy of a soul in its incorporeal form is described as supreme divine light. The power inherent in it is measured in kala. This is the state of pure soul consciousness.

15. Param Maha Tattva —

Supreme great element. Around the Param Prakash of the soul, divine brilliance is irradiated, and this is called Param Maha Tattva. Param Tattva is created from Param Maha Tattva, so Param Maha Tattva is at the highest energy level next to Param Prakash itself.

16. Had ki Atma —

A soul created at a lower level of a solar system, constituted of up to supreme ether elements but not containing supreme light. A common soul with relatively low power.

17. Behad ki Atma — A soul constituted of Param Prakash and Param Maha Tattva only. A very powerful soul. Such souls are called Behad souls.

18. Behad ki Duniya — The limitless, boundless world of creation. The creation is so vast it cannot be assigned any boundary. Everything is infinite — solar systems, galaxies, dimensions. At the highest level is a creation of infinite kala whose size and power are immeasurable.

19. Behad ka PM — The most powerful supreme soul in the limitless boundless world of creation; the controller of Behad ki Duniya. Just as a prime minister governs a country, Behad ka PM governs the entirety of unlimited creation.

20. Mukti — Freedom. The stage when a soul no longer exists in creation and dissolves back into its creator.

21. Jeevan Mukti — Freedom from all karmic accounts while still existing. The soul has complete knowledge about its creator and is in a blissful state, existing eternally with its creator.

22. Vyakt — The visible five-element world of creation; the manifest state.

23. Avyakt — The invisible subtle and supreme subtle world of creation; the unmanifest state.

24. Bhavatit — Without any feelings or emotions; the state beyond ordinary emotional experience.

25. Karmatit — The state in which the soul has attained freedom from all karmic bondages and is beyond the law of karmic accounts in any plane of creation.

26. Gunatit / Nirgun — Beyond all three qualities of nature: Satva (purity), Rajo (passion), and Tamo (darkness or ignorance). Gunatit means beyond all these; Nirgun means “no quality of nature.” This is pure soul conscious state.

27. Param Purush — The first creation of the incorporeal supreme creator in any dimension. Exists in supreme subtle form, with maximum energy next to the incorporeal supreme soul. Called Supreme Male Energy, always accompanied by Shakti, the Supreme Female Energy.

28. Vikarm — Sin committed by a soul.

29. Bramhand — A solar system.

30. Maha Bramhand — A galaxy.

31. Param Maha Bramhand — A universe.

32. One Billion — 10^9 , or 100 crore.

33. One Trillion — 10^{12} , or 1 lakh crore.

34. One Light Year — 9.461 trillion kilometres (9,46,100 crore km).

35. Subtle World — The world of subtle elements, beyond the gross physical.

36. Causal World — The world of creation finer than the subtle world, made of supreme subtle elements.

37. Roop — A clone of a soul, created by the supreme soul from its own energy through affirmation. Creating a roop reduces the original power of the supreme soul.

38. Incarnation — A cell of a supreme soul or soul from a higher dimension, used to carry out specific work on earth. The cell has the energy of the supreme soul but less than that of a roop or clone.

39. Pralay — The process of dissolution of a creation.

40. Behad ki Kala ka Paramdhaam — The supreme abode of the highest dimension of creation, whose power is infinite. The abode of the Almighty Authority.

41. Behad ka Baap — The supreme master creator of this limitless vast creation; the Supreme Father or Almighty Authority. He is unique, only one. He is the ultimate source of power of all creations.

42. Jeev — When souls fall to lower levels of creation with physical bodies due to uncontrolled desires, they are called Jeev. This is the ignorance that makes a divine soul live on earth like an animal.

43. Shashtra — A Hindu scripture where spiritual matters are discussed.

44. Puranas — A part of ancient Hindu literature on the wisdom of divinity, in the form of stories describing the history of the creation of the solar system.

45. Ishta Dev — In the path of devotion, every person has a choicest deity they worship throughout their life. That favourite deity at the individual level is called Ishta Dev.

46. Guru — A spiritual instructor who shows the right path to a soul, from darkness to enlightenment.

47. Ishwar — The master or owner of creation; the incorporeal Shiv.

48. Gyan Marg — The path of knowledge; a path to realise the supreme father in which a soul continuously strives to acquire knowledge about its creator and contemplates upon it until the soul realises its supreme destiny.

49. Bhakti Marg — The path of devotion; a way to reach one's Ishta Dev through surrender, chanting, worship, fasting, and rituals.

50. Behad Gyan — The knowledge about the Supreme Father, Almighty Authority, and his boundless infinite creation. The ultimate knowledge from the beginning to the end of vast creation. This knowledge about creation beyond the multiverse has not been written elsewhere or told by anyone until Bapuji.

51. Paramshanti — Supreme peace; the original state of the soul when it is first created. That is why the soul always seeks supreme peace. This is the stage when the soul establishes itself in its pure divine incorporeal state of supreme light.

52. Seva — Selfless service. In Behad Gyan the best form of service is to disseminate the supreme knowledge of self for the benevolence of the soul. Service can also be rendered through affirmations by spreading vibrations of Paramshanti in the atmosphere.

53. Sanskar — The character of the soul; the record in its causal body. The mind of a soul works according to its sanskar. The first step of self-transformation is to transform one's character by imbibing Behad Gyan into one's intelligence.

54. Yog — Connection with the Almighty Authority. When a soul, after acquiring Behad Gyan, immerses in deep love for its creator and totally forgets the physical world, this stage is called Yog.

55. Dharana — The stage when, after regular and diligent practice of Behad Gyan and Yog, the soul gradually transforms its sanskar and its true divinity begins to emerge. The final stage when the soul realises its true state of pure soul consciousness in incorporeal form.

56. Sanatan Dharm — The eternal religion that has existed since the very beginning of creation, before any other religion was established on earth. Hindu religion is also known as Adi Sanatan Dharm — the religion that exists from the beginning of creation and continues to exist.

57. Karan Sharir — The causal body. A human being has many bodies beyond the visible physical body. There are subtle bodies inside the physical outline which hold the energy of the soul and operate the physical body. The karan sharir is the subtlest of these bodies.

Sharing Knowledge is the Highest Charity

The Only Knowledge That Can Save Your Soul

When everything dissolves, one truth remains — the soul. This book reveals the ultimate reality beyond the visible world, the hidden layers of existence,
and the direct path to the Infinite
Supreme. It is not a belief.

Not a concept. It is a remembrance of what you truly are.
In the face of Mahakaal, only pure light survives.

“Become the light that no darkness can dissolve.”
