DISCLAIMER

This book is a humble compilation of spiritual reflections shared by Smt. Sakshi Patel, drawn from her own contemplation on the divine discourses of Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel — founder of Vishwa Parivartak Ishwariya Vidhyalay (Ahmedabad, Gujarat, India).

Each reflection is presented in the original Hindi as it was first shared, followed by a faithful English rendering for readers across the world. The episode reference noted with each quote points to the Bapuji discourse that inspired the reflection, so that earnest seekers may listen to the original source for deeper experience.

Nothing in this book is intended as medical, psychological, financial or legal advice. The teachings here are spiritual in nature and are offered solely for inner reflection, awakening and self-realisation.

Every reader is gently invited to receive these words slowly, with an open and quiet heart — not as opinions to be argued, but as reminders of what already lives within.

ABOUT BAPUJI

Bapuji — full name Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel, lovingly called “Dadaji” by the younger generation — was born in 1956 in the small village of Akhaj in the Mehsana district of Gujarat. He spent his childhood in another village called Ambasan, also in Mehsana.

In the early part of his life, he was a highly successful lawyer in Ahmedabad. Later, he gave up everything to realise the supreme spiritual truth and to bring this divine knowledge forward for the welfare of all humanity. Today, this supreme knowledge serves as a guiding light for true seekers who wish to return to their original source.

Despite being raised in a very poor family and facing many hardships, Bapuji carried a deep longing to transform this world of sorrow into a better place. At the young age of six, he repeatedly questioned God — asking why God remained silent about the suffering of humanity. This intense longing later led him to the highest spiritual realisation.

Even as a child, Bapuji would spend long hours alone in the fields. Due to poverty, he walked barefoot, often pricked by thorns. On his way back home in the evenings, he would sometimes encounter beings of the subtle world — experiences that quietly opened his inner doors to the unseen.

Bapuji was courageous from a young age. Alongside his studies in chartered accountancy, he gave tuition classes to support himself, and later completed his Bachelor of Law degree to become a well-known lawyer in Ahmedabad.

In 1997, he established the spiritual institution Vishwa Parivartak Ishwariya Vidhyalay in Chenpur, Ahmedabad — with the mission of transforming this mortal world of suffering into an eternal divine world. Smt. Sushma Tandon, lovingly known as “Maa,” worked alongside him in this great divine mission.

To accomplish this mission, Bapuji worked tirelessly. He would deliver continuous spiritual discourses for up to eighteen hours without rest. In these discourses he revealed the highest dimensions of divine knowledge — knowledge realised through deep meditation and divine vision in a state of superconsciousness.

His teachings cover a vast range of subjects — the celestial creators across different dimensions, the creation of our solar system, galaxy and universe, and most importantly, the transcendental knowledge of the multiverse and the realities beyond it. According to Bapuji, the highly evolved “behad souls” will play a key role in transforming this mortal world into an eternal divine realm.

At present, Bapuji remains deeply absorbed in intense meditation and samadhi for long hours. He does not meet anyone, as he is continuously immersed in his transcendental mission in a superconscious state.

PREFACE

“Gyan Daan Maha Daan”

(Sharing Knowledge is the Highest Charity)

Share to the maximum extent with all.

— by Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel

A quote is a small thing. A few words. A breath, perhaps. And yet — when those few words are born of true experience, they can quietly enter the heart and slowly turn a life around.

This book is a small offering of such small things. The reflections gathered here flow from the divine discourses of Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel — heard, contemplated, and held in silence by Smt. Sakshi Patel until they shaped themselves into these short, simple lines.

Each quote is given first in its original Hindi, exactly as it was first shared, and then in a careful English rendering — so that a soul anywhere in the world may receive its meaning. Beside every quote, you will find the episode reference, so that earnest seekers can return to Bapuji’s original discourse for the deeper experience behind the words.

This is not a book to be finished. It is a book to be lived with. A page a day is enough. A single quote, sometimes, is enough — if it is allowed to settle, to breathe, to slowly do its quiet work within.

May these reflections serve as gentle companions on your path home. And in the spirit of Bapuji's eternal teaching — Gyan Daan Maha Daan — may you share them freely with every soul who is ready to receive.

HOW TO READ THIS BOOK

This is not a book to be rushed.

Read one quote at a time. Pause after each quote. Let it settle within you.

These words are not just to be read — they are to be experienced.

A simple way to walk with this book:

Choose one quiet moment in your day. Open the book at any page. Read the Hindi line first — slowly, even if you do not understand every word. Let its sound move through you. Then read the English meaning. Close your eyes. Sit with it for a few breaths. Do not analyse. Do not argue. Only let it rest in your heart.

If you read like this, even one quote can change a day. And one day, sincerely lived, can change a life.

After every set of reflections in this book, you will find a small page titled “Pause and Reflect.” Honour it. Do not skip ahead. Allow the silence between the quotes to do its silent work — for that silence, too, is a teaching.
