About Bapuji

Bapuji (full name: Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel, also lovingly called “Dadaji” by the younger generation) was born in 1956 in the small village of Akhaj in the Mehsana district of Gujarat. However, he spent his childhood in another village named Ambasan, also located in the Mehsana district.

In the early part of his life, he was a highly successful lawyer. Later, he devoted his life to realizing the supreme spiritual truth and bringing this divine knowledge forward for the welfare of humanity. Today, this supreme knowledge serves as a guiding light for true seekers to realize their ultimate destiny. It is a blessing of the highest divinity that the present time is witnessing the rise of this supreme spiritual knowledge, guiding souls on Earth to return to their original source.

Despite being raised in a very poor family and facing challenging circumstances, Bapuji had a deep desire to transform this sorrowful and suffering world into a better place. At the young age of six, he questioned God repeatedly, asking why God remained silent about the suffering of humanity. This intense longing to end human suffering eventually led him to attain the highest level of spirituality later in life.

Even as a child, Bapuji would spend hours alone in the fields, often neglecting his own comfort. Due to poverty, he would walk barefoot without shoes or sandals, frequently getting pricked by thorns. Many times, he would stay late in the fields and, on his way back home, encounter subtle world entities. These experiences sparked his interest in communicating with subtle world souls.

Bapuji was courageous from a young age, which helped him overcome many obstacles. Alongside his studies in chartered accountancy (CA), he gave tuition classes to support himself financially. Later, he completed his Bachelor of Law (LLB) degree and became a well-known lawyer in Ahmedabad.

In 1997, he established a spiritual institution called “Vishwa Parivartak Ishwariya Vidhyalay” in Chenpur, Ahmedabad, with the mission of transforming this mortal world, filled with suffering and disorder, into an eternal divine world of immortality. Smt. Sushma Tandon, lovingly known as “Maa,” worked alongside Bapuji in this grand divine mission.

To accomplish this mission, Bapuji worked tirelessly, dedicating all his resources to this divine purpose. During that time, he would deliver continuous spiritual discourses for up to 18 hours without rest. In these discourses, he explained the highest dimensions of divine knowledge, which he realized through deep meditation and divine vision in a state of superconsciousness. This knowledge goes beyond the imagination of the ordinary human mind.

Bapuji’s teachings cover a vast range of topics, including the types of celestial creators across different dimensions, the creation of our solar system, galaxy, and universe, and most importantly, the transcendental knowledge of the multiverse and realities beyond it. His knowledge is supremely profound and is intended for highly evolved seekers, referred to as “behad souls.” According to Bapuji, these “behad souls” will play a key role in transforming this mortal world into an eternal divine realm.

At present, Bapuji remains deeply engaged in intense meditation and samadhi for long hours. He does not meet anyone, as he is continuously immersed in his transcendental mission in a superconscious state.

— by Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel

This book gathers, in one place, what Bapuji has spoken about the dissolution of the worlds — the pralay — and the great cosmic transition that lies ahead.

Nothing has been added to Bapuji's knowledge. The pages that follow only refine the way it is presented, so that a reader who is entirely new to this knowledge can follow it, step by step, in simple words. Every concept here is drawn from Bapuji's own discourses.

The journey moves outward through the levels Bapuji describes — from the Earth, to our solar system, to the galaxy, to the universe, and at last to the whole Multiverse. It begins with how worlds dissolve through fire, and it ends with the gentler change now approaching: a transformation not of burning, but of light and of peace.

May this knowledge bring calm to the mind and clarity to the heart, and may it be shared, freely, with all who are ready to receive it.

PART I

The Meaning of Dissolution

CHAPTER 1

What Is Pralay?

Across his discourses, Bapuji speaks again and again of pralay — the dissolution of the worlds. The word can sound frightening. Yet when Bapuji explains it, a quieter truth comes forward. Dissolution is not the end of everything. It is the close of one world and the opening of another. Bapuji clarifies that it is more precisely a returning of manifest forms to their unmanifest origins. Nothing is truly annihilated; everything is absorbed and transformed.

Bapuji teaches that destruction itself is the founding of the new world. Whenever the old has run its full course and grown impure, it is gathered back, cleansed, and a fresh creation begins. This is why the scriptures speak of the end of Kalyug (the dark age) and the coming of Satyug — the close of the old age and the dawn of the age of truth. The point of meeting between the two is called the Sangam Yug (the confluence age).

So pralay is not punishment. It is renewal. The same divine power that brings a world into being is the power that one day withdraws it, so that the suffering and disorder of the old age can give way to a pure new beginning.

◆ BAPUJI INSIGHT

Vinaash hi nayi duniya ki sthaapna hai.

Destruction itself is the founding of the new world.

Bapuji also makes clear that dissolution happens at many levels, and on a vast range of scales. A single Earth can pass through dissolution many times over. A whole Brahmand — a complete solar system — can be drawn back into its source. Even a whole galaxy can be withdrawn. This book follows that ladder, level by level, exactly as Bapuji describes it: from our Earth, to our solar system, to the galaxy, to the universe, and finally to the entire Multiverse.

CHAPTER 2

The One Who Creates Is the One Who Dissolves

Before we can understand how a world dissolves, Bapuji says we must understand how it was made. For there is a natural law that governs all of it: the one who creates a world is the very one who later dissolves it.

◆ BAPUJI INSIGHT

Jisne srijan kiya, wahi visarjan bhi karta hai.

The one who created is the very one who dissolves.

Bapuji explains the creation in a clear sequence. In the beginning there is Shiv Nirakari — the formless Shiv, who rests in the Paramdham (the supreme abode). He is the formless one whom people remember through the symbol of the Jyotirling (the symbol of the formless Shiv) or Shivling. The formless Shiv had a single thought: “I am one; let me become many.”

From that thought, the formless Shiv took form and became Shiv Akari (Shiv in subtle form). Shiv then created Shakti (the divine power). Together, Shiv and Shakti became the Adi Shiv (the first Shiv) and Adi Shakti (the first Shakti), and from them came Brahma, Vishnu and Shankar. From the navel of Vishnu emerged Brahma. Through seven resolves, Brahma created seven rishis (sages), and through those seven rishis the seven lokas — the seven worlds — were made.

Bapuji explains that the subtle worlds were created before the physical world, while Earth was created later as the final stage of creation. Bapuji says that even the Sun was first brought into existence by Shiv, who bestowed it with its divine power and energy. Later, when different cosmic forces and realms were assigned their guardians, the Sun was entrusted to Surya Narayan, the divine deity who governs and sustains it.

Bapuji explains that the cosmic functions are distributed across the divine trinity: Brahma — the Creator: brings new forms into existence at the start of each cycle. Vishnu — the Sustainer: maintains the created order throughout the Yuga cycles. Shiva/Shankar — the Dissolver: presides over the return of all forms to the formless. This is the rhythm by which a single solar system is kept turning. And because the formless Shiv is the original creator of the whole Brahmand, it is the formless Shiv who, in the end, must also be the one to dissolve it.

CHAPTER 3

The Architecture of Our Brahmand

To follow what dissolves in a pralay (dissolution), Bapuji first lays out the structure of our own Brahmand — our solar system. It is far larger than the Earth alone, and it is arranged in worlds above and worlds below.

At the centre of the human story is the Earth, the Bhulok. Above the Earth lie the higher worlds. There is the Bhuvarlok, and then the Swarglok, the heaven where the devtas (celestial beings) dwell. Beyond these rise the Mahalok, the Janlok, the Taplok, and the Satyalok, which is the world of Brahma. Higher still are the great abodes: Brahmapuri, where Brahma and Saraswati reside; Vishnupuri, where Vishnu and Lakshmi reside; Shivpuri, where Shiv and Shakti reside; and at the summit, the Paramdham (the supreme abode), where the formless Shiv abides.

Below the Earth lie the seven *patal*s — the lower worlds — named Atal, Vital, Sutal, Talatal, Rasatal, Mahatal and Patal. Beneath these regions are the realms of narak (the realms of suffering), of which Bapuji speaks as being immense in number.

Bapuji gives a sense of the sheer size of one Brahmand. Our solar system spans about one light year. Measured as a radius, it reaches some ninety-four kharab kilometres; measured across, its diameter is around one hundred and eighty-eight kharab kilometres. This entire structure — the worlds above, the Earth, and the worlds below — is what a pralay acts upon. When we later speaking of a whole Brahmand being drawn back into its source, this is the vastness that is being gathered in.

CHAPTER 4

The Three Meanings of Kaal

The dissolution Bapuji describes is bound up with one word: Kaal (time, power and motion). To understand Mahakal Pralay — the great dissolution — we must understand what Kaal means. Bapuji teaches that the word carries three meanings at once.

First, Kaal means samay — time. Second, Kaal means shakti — power. Third, Kaal means gati — motion. So when the formless Shiv takes the role of Mahakaal (the great form of Kaal), all three meanings come together in him: the time that has run its course, the power, and the motion that draw a world to its close; and from this he brings forth the fire of dissolution.

◆ BAPUJI INSIGHT

Kaal ke teen arth hain — samay, shakti aur gati.

Kaal has three meanings — time, power, and motion.

This is why the same divinity who creates can also dissolve. When the appointed time is complete, the creator enters the Sun and brings forth the Kaal Agni — the fire of dissolution. Bapuji is careful to say this is not ordinary fire. It is param agni (supreme fire), a fire of many times greater power, capable of returning whole worlds to their elemental source.

The Cosmic Dissolution · Mahakal Pralay

PART II

The Levels of Pralay (Stages of Dissolution)

CHAPTER 5

Ardh Pralay — When the Four Yugas End

Bapuji explains that the Earth itself passes through dissolution many times, and at several depths. The smallest of these is called Ardh Pralay (partial dissolution).

The Earth, the mortal world, moves through four ages: Satyug (the age of truth), Treta (the second age), Dwapar (the third age) and Kalyug (the dark age). Bapuji gives their measure. Kalyug lasts about four hundred and thirty-two thousand years. Dwapar is double that span, Treta three times, and Satyug four times — One complete cycle of all four Yugas spans 4,320,000 years. This is not symbolic — Bapuji presents this as the actual measure of one great cosmic rotation. At the end of this cycle, an Ardha-Pralay (partial dissolution) occurs upon the Earth.

Through these ages, the quality of the world changes. In Satyug the atmosphere is sato and rajo — pure and active. By the end of Kalyug it has become tamo-pradhan — heavy with darkness and decay. When this point is reached, destruction comes through Shankar. This closing of the four ages is the Ardh Pralay.

♦ BAPUJI INSIGHT

Kalyug ke ant mein dharti tamo-pradhaan ho jaati hai, tab Shankar dwaara vinaash hota hai.

At the end of Kalyug the Earth becomes heavy with darkness; then destruction comes through Shankar.

Bapuji adds that this cycle repeats. After seventy-one such Ardh Pralays, a fuller dissolution of the Earth takes place. That deeper level is the subject of the next chapter.

CHAPTER 6

Pralay — The Manvantar (The Great Cosmic Era)

When seventy-one Ardh Pralays have passed, Bapuji says, a complete dissolution of the Earth occurs. This is called a Manvantar — the span of one Manu (the first parent) and Shatrupa (the first mother). When their appointed time is complete, the entire human creation upon the Earth comes to its end.

In this dissolution, Bapuji describes Shankar opening his third eye. From it the Kaal Agni (the fire of dissolution) pours forth, and fire rains upon the whole Earth until everything is burned away. The mortal world is wholly cleansed.

But this is not a final ending. After the burning, a new Manu and Shatrupa appear, and a fresh human creation begins once more. So the Manvantar is a turning of the wheel — one full human age ends, and the next is set in motion.

◆ BAPUJI INSIGHT

Manvantar mein poori manushya srishti
samaapt ho jaati hai, phir naye Manu-
Shatrupa se nayi srishti shuru hoti hai.

*In a Manvantar the entire human creation ends; then,
from a new Manu and Shatrupa, a new creation begins.*

Bapuji then lifts the scale higher. Fourteen such Manvantars, taken together, complete what he calls a single Day of Brahma. That brings us to the next, far greater level of dissolution.

CHAPTER 7

Kalp Pralay — A Day of Brahma Ends

When fourteen Manvantars are complete — a span Bapuji measures as one thousand chaturyugas — a Kalp Pralay (the dissolution at the end of a Day of Brahma) takes place. This is the close of one Day of Brahma, counted in Brahmapuri.

In this dissolution, Bapuji explains, the role belongs to Vishnu. Vishnu enters the Sun and brings forth fire. With it, the three worlds — the Bhulok, the Bhuvarlok and the Swarglok — are burned away.

Yet the highest worlds remain. The Mahalok, Janlok, Taplok and Satyalok, and above them Brahmapuri, Vishnupuri, Shivpuri and the Paramdham — these are not destroyed in a Kalp Pralay. And most importantly, the original source still remains, for souls can never be destroyed or burned.

Bapuji gives the rhythm of it. A Day of Brahma is about four arab and thirty-two crore years; the Night of Brahma is equal in length; together the day and night come to roughly eight arab and sixty-four crore years. After the night, creation resumes. Vishnu brings the clouds and the rains, the fire is quenched, the Earth is formed afresh, and the five elements are remade — now purified — so that a new creation can begin once more from Manu (the first parent) and Shatrupa (the first mother).

♦ BAPUJI INSIGHT

Aatmaayein toh rehti hain; teeno lok jalkar
bhasm ho jaate hain, magar aatma ko agni
jalaa nahi sakti.

The souls remain; the three worlds burn away, but fire cannot burn the soul.

CHAPTER 8

Mahakalp Pralay — The Dissolution of the Brahmand

Above the Day of Brahma stands the full life of Brahma — one hundred years. When Brahma's hundred years are complete, Bapuji says, the deepest dissolution of a single Brahmand (solar system) takes place. This is the Mahakalp Pralay (the dissolution of a solar system).

Here the role returns to the formless Shiv, the original creator of the Brahmand. By the end of Brahma's hundred years, the power within the formless Shiv has greatly diminished — Bapuji says only about one or two per cent of it remains. With that, the formless Shiv enters the Sun and brings forth the Kaal Agni (the fire of dissolution). This Kaal Agni, Bapuji stresses, is not ordinary fire but param agni (supreme fire), fire of immense power.

With this fire, the whole Brahmand — all fourteen worlds — is burned and dissolved. But Bapuji describes the dissolution not as mere destruction; it is a returning of everything to its source, element by element. The whole Brahmand is converted into the fire-element, then into param agni, then into param vayu (supreme air), then into param akash (supreme space), then into Param Maha Tattva (the supreme essence), and finally back into the original formless state of Shiv — the very form he held before creation began. In this way, Shiv draws all the powers he had once sent forth back into himself.

♦ BAPUJI INSIGHT

Brahma ke 100 saal poore hone par Shiv
Surya mein pravesh karke Kaal Agni paida
karta hai aur poore Brahmaand ka visarjan
kar deta hai.

When Brahma's hundred years are complete, Shiv enters the Sun, brings forth the fire of Kaal, and dissolves the entire Brahmand.

And what does science see when a Sun is dissolved in this way? Bapuji answers in a single phrase: the Sun has become a black hole. This is where the next part of the book begins.

The Cosmic Dissolution · Mahakal Pralay

PART III

The Black Hole — the Engine of Dissolution

CHAPTER 9

The Sun Becomes a Black Hole

Bapuji draws a direct line between the dissolution of a Brahmand (solar system) and what astronomers call a black hole. When the formless Shiv's power within a solar system is exhausted, he enters the Sun, brings forth the Kaal Agni (the fire of dissolution), and the Sun becomes a black hole. With its gravity it draws the entire Brahmand into itself.

◆ BAPUJI INSIGHT

Ek Surya bhi ek black hole ban gaya — yaani ek poore Brahmaand ka visarjan ho gaya.

A single Sun has become a black hole — that is, one whole Brahmand has been dissolved.

CHAPTER 10

The Black Hole Is Shiv's Own Creation

People sometimes describe a black hole as a kind of devourer — a rakshas, a demon that swallows whatever is placed before it, pulling in more and more by the force of its gravity. Bapuji acknowledges how it appears: a supermassive black hole could draw in an entire galaxy, so great is its gravitational pull.

Yet Bapuji corrects the picture at its root. The black hole is not a demon. It is directly related to Shiv; it is the result of Shiv's own resolve. Since the formless Shiv is the one who created the Brahmand (solar system), and since the one who creates is the one who dissolves, the black hole is simply Shiv carrying out the natural law of dissolution. How can that be called a demon, Bapuji asks, when Shiv himself has made it?

◆ BAPUJI INSIGHT

Black hole ka seedha Shiv se sambandh hai; black hole Shiv ke sankalpon ka hi parinaam hai.

The black hole is directly related to Shiv; the black hole is the result of Shiv's resolves.

Bapuji also explains why a black hole does not simply swallow every Sun near it. Around every Brahmand there is a protective shield — a raksha kavach (protective shield). It is formed by the Sun's own anti-gravity, whose reach extends to many kharab kilometres. This shield guards the solar system against the gravity of any external black hole. So long as the shield holds, even a black hole lying nearby cannot draw in our Sun. Dissolution comes not by random devouring, but only when the appointed time of a Brahmand is truly complete.

CHAPTER 11

White Hole or Black Hole?

A question is sometimes raised: is the great object at the centre of a galaxy truly a black hole, or might it be a white hole? Bapuji takes the question seriously and answers it from his own vision.

What is called a supermassive black hole at the heart of a galaxy is, Bapuji says, in truth the Maha Paramdham — the supreme abode of Mahashiv (the creator of a galaxy). There dwells the Maha Param Light (the supreme divine light of the galaxy), light of the very highest quality, of ten kala (a unit of spiritual power). It is so refined that the instruments of science — their cameras, their great lenses — cannot capture it.

Because the Param Light (supreme divine light) does not register on any instrument, the centre appears dark. It looks black, and so it is called a black hole. But the darkness is only the limit of the watching instrument, not the nature of the place. Whether it is Param Light of one kala, of two kala, or the param tattva (the supreme element) itself, none of it will appear on a camera. The Behad (the unlimited) light is beyond the reach of such tools.

◆ BAPUJI INSIGHT

Wo darsal Mahashiv ka Maha Paramdham hai; 10 kala ki Param Light camera mein nahi aati, isliye woh black nazar aata hai.

It is in truth Mahashiv's supreme abode; ten-kala Param Light does not appear on a camera, and so it looks black.

The Cosmic Dissolution · Mahakal Pralay

PART IV

Dissolution Across the Multiverse

CHAPTER 12

Mahakal Pralay — When a Galaxy Is Withdrawn

So far we have followed the dissolution of a single Brahmand — one solar system. Bapuji now lifts the whole picture to the next level: the Maha Brahmand (galaxy).

A galaxy — an Akashganga — is vast beyond a single solar system. Bapuji gives its diameter as about one hundred thousand light years, and within it lie countless Brahmands — the anant koti Brahmand — an uncountable host of solar systems, each with its own Sun. The lights we see as stars at night are these great Suns. The creator of a whole Maha Brahmand is not the Shiv of a single Brahmand but the Mahashiv (the creator of a galaxy), the great Brahm.

When the time of a Mahashiv is complete, Bapuji describes the Mahakal Pralay — the great dissolution of an entire galaxy. The Mahashiv becomes Mahakaal (the great form of Kaal) and draws the anant koti Brahmand — every solar system of the galaxy — into his every rom, his every pore. He spreads the Mahakaal Agni (the great fire of dissolution), a fire of ten kala (a unit of spiritual power), through the whole galaxy, and the entire Maha Brahmand is dissolved and gathered back into him. To the eye of science, this is the supermassive black hole.

♦ BAPUJI INSIGHT

Mahashiv, Mahakaal banke, anant koti
Brahmaandon ko apne rom-rom mein samaa
leta hai.

*Mahashiv, becoming Mahakaal, draws the infinite
Brahmands into his every pore.*

Bapuji measures this against time in a way that staggers the mind. A single moment of Mahashiv is equal to the full hundred years of a Brahma. In this way, he says, infinite Brahmands are forever forming and dissolving — created and withdrawn, again and again, without end.

CHAPTER 13

The Universe and the Multiverse

Above the galaxy, Bapuji continues to climb. Beyond the Maha Brahmand (galaxy) lies the Param Maha Brahmand — the universe. And beyond a single universe there are greater universes still: what Bapuji calls the great universe and the great-great universe. Galaxies gather into clusters, and clusters of galaxies into still larger super-clusters.

Bapuji teaches that the law of dissolution holds at every one of these levels. Just as a Sun can become a black hole, so a galaxy has its great dissolution, a universe has its own, the great universe its own, and so on — upward through the whole Multiverse. Each level has its creator, and each creator, when the time is complete, performs the visarjan (dissolution) of what it made.

And the Multiverse itself is beyond counting. Bapuji speaks of its regions — naming them as G1, G2, on to G17 — and of the numberless souls contained within them. How many Brahmands are there? How many galaxies? How many universes? How many souls in the whole Multiverse? They cannot be counted.

♦ BAPUJI INSIGHT

Brahmaand, Maha Brahmaand, Param Maha Brahmaand — har star par visarjan hota hai, poore Multiverse tak.

Brahmand, Maha Brahmand, Param Maha Brahmand — dissolution occurs at every level, all the way up to the whole Multiverse.

CHAPTER 14

The Five Elements Return to Their Source

Whatever the level — a Brahmand (solar system), a Maha Brahmand (galaxy), or beyond — Bapuji describes dissolution as a single, orderly process: the five elements are returned, step by step, to their source. Nothing is simply annihilated; everything is drawn back up the ladder it once came down.

Bapuji traces the steps. The whole gross world is first turned into the fire-element. From fire it passes into param agni (supreme fire); from param agni into param vayu (supreme air); from param vayu into param akash (supreme space); from param akash into Param Maha Tattva (the supreme essence); and finally back into the original formless state from which it all began. The creator who sent the powers out now draws every power back into himself.

In the dissolution of a galaxy, Bapuji explains, the same return takes place on a greater scale. The Mahakaal Agni (the great fire of dissolution) must first appear, because the gross matter of the worlds — earth and water — needs the fire-element to be dissolved. Once the gross is consumed, the elements rise back through their subtle and supreme forms, until the Mahashiv (the creator of a galaxy) holds within himself again the full power of the galaxy he had created.

♦ BAPUJI INSIGHT

Agni se Param Agni, Param Agni se Param Vayu, Param Vayu se Param Akash, aur ant mein waapas asli Shiv-swaroop mein.

From fire to supreme fire, from supreme fire to supreme air, from supreme air to supreme space, and at last back into the original form of Shiv.

CHAPTER 15

What Happens to the Soul?

If whole worlds burn, what becomes of the souls within them? Bapuji answers with great care, and his answer is a comfort: the soul cannot be burned.

The soul, he explains, is made of Param Light (supreme divine light). The fire-element — even the param agni (supreme fire), even the Mahakaal Agni (the great fire of dissolution) of the highest quality — cannot burn what is made of Param Light. When the heat of dissolution touches a body, the soul simply leaves it at once. The body, made of five elements, feels the heat and is consumed; but the moment that heat is felt, the soul departs and is gone. The soul itself is not reduced to ash.

◆ BAPUJI INSIGHT

Aatma ko agni tattva jalaa nahi sakta, kyunki aatma Param Light ki bani hai.

The fire-element cannot burn the soul, for the soul is made of Param Light.

Bapuji then explains where souls go, according to their power, measured in kala (a unit of spiritual power). In the dissolution of a single Brahmand (solar system), only the souls of about one kala are dissolved and drawn in; souls above one kala leave the black hole in their formless state and pass out. In the dissolution of a Maha Brahmand — a galaxy of around ten kala, with others ranging from eight to twelve — the souls that have come in from elsewhere likewise leave according to their own kala. The souls of the Paramdham (the supreme abode), who are of pure Param Light, are untouched by it all.

And yet Bapuji does not hide the gravity of it. He speaks from his own experience, in the state of the soul, of what it is to witness a whole galaxy being wound up in the Mahakaal Agni. The anguish of the countless souls in that moment, he says, is beyond imagining — a suffering one cannot even think of. It is precisely this suffering that makes the message of the next chapters so important: the dissolution that lies ahead, Bapuji teaches, will not be like this at all.

The Cosmic Dissolution · Mahakal Pralay

PART V

The Cosmic Cycle and the New World

CHAPTER 16

Destruction Is the Birth of a New World

Having followed dissolution through every level, Bapuji returns to the truth he began with, now seen more deeply. Destruction is never the final word. It is the doorway to a new world.

Bapuji reminds us of the pattern repeated through the scriptures: the end of the old world and the founding of the new; the close of Kalyug (the dark age) and the coming of Satyug (the age of truth); the Sangam Yug (the confluence age) between them. Every dissolution — Ardh Pralay (partial dissolution), Manvantar (the dissolution of a human age), Kalp Pralay (the dissolution at the end of a Day of Brahma), Mahakalp Pralay (the dissolution of a solar system), Mahakal Pralay — exists for one reason: because destruction itself is the establishment of the new world.

◆ BAPUJI INSIGHT

Puraani duniya ka ant, aur nayi duniya ki sthaapna.

The end of the old world, and the founding of the new.

After each great dissolution, creation begins again. The fire is quenched, the elements are remade and purified, and a new human creation rises once more from Manu (the first parent) and Shatrupa (the first mother). In this way, Bapuji says, infinite Brahmands are endlessly forming and dissolving — born and withdrawn, again and again, in a cycle without beginning or end.

But Bapuji also gives a warning that turns into a promise: a new world needs new knowledge. For the transformation now approaching, the old understanding is not enough. To pass into the new world of the Multiverse, the knowledge of the Multiverse is required — and it is that fresh knowledge which the final chapters carry.

CHAPTER 17

The Coming Maha Parivartan — A Dissolution Without Kaal Agni

Here Bapuji unveils what makes the present time unlike any dissolution before it. The great transformation now approaching — the Maha Parivartan — will not follow the old process. It will not come through the Kaal Agni (the fire of dissolution).

In every past dissolution, Bapuji explains, the Kaal Agni or the Mahakaal Agni (the great fire of dissolution) was at work — a burning fire that consumed the gross and the subtle worlds alike, and the whole process was dukhdaai (sorrowful), full of suffering. Whether it was the dissolution of a Brahmand (solar system), a Kalp Pralay (the dissolution at the end of a Day of Brahma), a Mahakalp Pralay (the dissolution of a solar system) or a Mahakal Pralay (the great dissolution of a galaxy), it carried that same fire and that same pain.

The coming transformation, Bapuji says, will be entirely different. There will be no fire that burns, no suffering. It will be the process of param tattva (the supreme element) and Param Light — and it will be sukhdaai (joyful), not dukhdaai. The work now, Bapuji says, is to transform the negative vibrations of the very atmosphere, not to burn.

♦ BAPUJI INSIGHT

Nayi prakriya mein Kaal Agni nahi hogi; yeh Param Tattva aur Param Light ki prakriya hogi — sukhdaayi, dukhdaayi nahi.

In the new process there will be no fire of Kaal; it will be the process of Param Tattva and Param Light — joyful, not painful.

Bapuji describes how it will work. The Param Light does not burn. The param agni (supreme fire) does not consume; it gently converts the gross elements into param agni, then into param vayu (supreme air), param akash (supreme space), and onward — transforming, not destroying. Through the Param Light, the gross matter of the worlds is slowly changed into the supreme elements, and in this way the whole Multiverse is transformed without a single soul being made to suffer.

CHAPTER 18

Param Shanti and the Mukti of the Multiverse

How will this gentle transformation reach a whole Multiverse? Bapuji's answer is Param Shanti — supreme peace — carried on its own vibrations.

The vibrations of Param Shanti, Bapuji teaches, will spread outward in every direction. They will touch the gross world and the subtle world; they will move through the Brahmand (solar system), the Maha Brahmand (galaxy) and the universe; and they will fill the whole Multiverse. Even those subtle-world beings who, in this age, stir the gross world into conflict and confusion — they too shall be stilled and softened by the descending waves of Param Shanti and Param Light (supreme divine light). Wherever they reach, conflict softens, and peace, settles in.

In this transformation, Bapuji says, the souls of the Multiverse will attain mukti or jeevan mukti — liberation. But he places one tender condition before liberation: every soul must first be made to feel Param Shanti. They are not to be hurt as they were in the Kaal Agni (the fire of dissolution). First the soul is given the experience of supreme peace; only then is liberation given.

♦ BAPUJI INSIGHT

Sabhi aatmaon ko pehle Param Shanti ka ehsaas karaana hai, phir mukti deni hai.

Every soul must first be made to feel Param Shanti; only then is liberation given.

And this work, Bapuji says, is placed in the hands of the Behad (the unlimited) children. Sitting at home, transforming first themselves, they will help transform the atmosphere of the world through the vibrations of Param Shanti. For the final moments, when conditions grow most difficult, he speaks of a protective gift — a gola (protective shield) of two hundred kala of Param Light, about six feet around them. Within it they feel no suffering, even amid the Kaal Agni; and any suffering soul drawn into that Param Light is quietened by Param Shanti and given mukti. So the Multiverse is changed — not by fire and fear, but by peace, by light, and by liberation.

This is Bapuji's vision of the cosmic transition ahead. The old dissolution was the burning return of the worlds to their source. The new one is the gentle ascent of every soul into Param Shanti. Where once there was Kaal Agni, now there is Param Light. Where once there was suffering, now there is the supreme peace — and the liberation of the Multiverse.

Bapuji Insights

The following insights, in Bapuji's own words, run through the heart of this book. Each is given first in Hinglish, as Bapuji spoke it, and then in English.

◆ BAPUJI INSIGHT

Vinaash hi nayi duniya ki sthaapna hai.

Destruction itself is the founding of the new world.

◆ BAPUJI INSIGHT

Jisne srijan kiya, wahi visarjan bhi karta hai.

The one who created is the very one who dissolves.

◆ BAPUJI INSIGHT

Kaal ke teen arth hain — samay, shakti aur gati.

Kaal has three meanings — time, power, and motion.

◆ BAPUJI INSIGHT

Kalyug ke ant mein dharti tamo-pradhaan ho jaati hai, tab Shankar dwaara vinaash hota hai.

At the end of Kalyug the Earth becomes heavy with darkness; then destruction comes through Shankar.

♦ BAPUJI INSIGHT

Manvantar mein poori manushya srishti
samaapt ho jaati hai, phir naye Manu-
Shatrupa se nayi srishti shuru hoti hai.

*In a Manvantar the entire human creation ends; then,
from a new Manu and Shatrupa, a new creation begins.*

♦ BAPUJI INSIGHT

Aatmaayein toh rehti hain; teeno lok jalkar
bhasm ho jaate hain, magar aatma ko agni
jalaa nahi sakti.

The souls remain; the three worlds burn away, but fire cannot burn the soul.

♦ BAPUJI INSIGHT

Brahma ke 100 saal poore hone par Shiv
Surya mein pravesh karke Kaal Agni paida
karta hai aur poore Brahmaand ka visarjan
kar deta hai.

When Brahma's hundred years are complete, Shiv enters the Sun, brings forth the fire of Kaal, and dissolves the entire Brahmand.

♦ BAPUJI INSIGHT

Ek Surya bhi ek black hole ban gaya — yaani ek poore Brahmaand ka visarjan ho gaya.

A single Sun has become a black hole — that is, one whole Brahmand has been dissolved.

♦ BAPUJI INSIGHT

Black hole ka seedha Shiv se sambandh hai;
black hole Shiv ke sankalpon ka hi parinaam
hai.

The black hole is directly related to Shiv; the black hole is the result of Shiv's resolves.

♦ BAPUJI INSIGHT

Wo darasal Mahashiv ka Maha Paramdham hai; 10 kala ki Param Light camera mein nahi aati, isliye woh black nazar aata hai.

*It is in truth Mahashiv's supreme abode; ten-kala Param
Light does not appear on a camera, and so it looks black.*

♦ BAPUJI INSIGHT

Mahashiv, Mahakaal banke, anant koti
Brahmaandon ko apne rom-rom mein samaa
leta hai.

*Mahashiv, becoming Mahakaal, draws the infinite
Brahmands into his every pore.*

♦ BAPUJI INSIGHT

Brahmaand, Maha Brahmaand, Param Maha
Brahmaand — har star par visarjan hota hai, poore Multiverse tak.

Brahmand, Maha Brahmmand, Param Maha Brahmmand — dissolution occurs at every level, all the way up to the whole Multiverse.

♦ BAPUJI INSIGHT

Agni se Param Agni, Param Agni se Param Vayu, Param Vayu se Param Akash, aur ant mein waapas asli Shiv-swaroop mein.

From fire to supreme fire, from supreme fire to supreme air, from supreme air to supreme space, and at last back into the original form of Shiv.

♦ BAPUJI INSIGHT

Aatma ko agni tattva jalaa nahi sakta, kyunki aatma Param Light ki bani hai.

The fire-element cannot burn the soul, for the soul is made of Param Light.

♦ BAPUJI INSIGHT

Puraani duniya ka ant, aur nayi duniya ki sthaapna.

The end of the old world, and the founding of the new.

♦ BAPUJI INSIGHT

Nayi prakriya mein Kaal Agni nahi hogi; yeh Param Tattva aur Param Light ki prakriya hogi — sukhdaayi, dukhdaayi nahi.

In the new process there will be no fire of Kaal; it will be the process of Param Tattva and Param Light — joyful, not painful.

♦ BAPUJI INSIGHT

Sabhi aatmaon ko pehle Param Shanti ka
ehsaas karaana hai, phir mukti deni hai.

Every soul must first be made to feel Param Shanti; only then is liberation given.

Glossary

A simple, beginner-friendly guide to the terms used in this book.

Akashganga — A galaxy; the same as a Maha Brahmand.

Anant Koti Brahmand — The countless, uncountable solar systems contained within a single galaxy.

Ardh Pralay — The partial dissolution of the Earth that occurs when the four ages — Satyug, Treta, Dwapar and Kalyug — are complete.

Behad — The unlimited or boundless; used by Bapuji for the highest, limitless knowledge and for the souls who carry it.

Bhulok — The Earth; the mortal world where human beings live.

Bhuvarlok — The world lying just above the Earth in the structure of the Brahmand.

Brahmand — A solar system; the complete structure of worlds centred on one Sun. Spans about one light year.

Brahmapuri — The abode of Brahma and Saraswati, high in the structure of the Brahmand.

Chaturyuga — A cycle of the four ages taken together; one thousand of these make a Day of Brahma.

Devta — A celestial being who dwells in the heaven, the Swarglok.

Dukhdaai — Sorrowful or full of suffering; the quality of the old dissolution through fire.

Gola — The protective shield of Param Light described by Bapuji for the final transformation.

Jeevan Mukti — Liberation attained while still living; freedom of the soul.

Jyotirling — The symbol of the formless Shiv; also called the Shivling.

Kala — Kala is a unit of measurement of power of the soul . Just like on earth we measure the electric power by “watt” that means it is the capacity of an electrical equipment, similarly in spirituality “kala” means the capacity of a creator or soul. In space there are many creators so they have different magnitude of power that we call power of different celestial degree or kala.

Kaal — Carries three meanings together — samay (time), shakti (power), and gati (motion).

Kaal Agni — The fire of dissolution brought forth in the Sun; a param agni of immense power, not ordinary fire.

Kalp Pralay — A great dissolution at the end of a cosmic age in which the lower worlds are destroyed; lower-category souls are dissolved while higher souls ascend.

Kalyug — The fourth and darkest of the four ages, lasting about 432,000 years. The final era in the four age cycle of cosmic time.

Maha Brahmand — A galaxy; the great structure containing countless Brahmands. Its creator is Mahashiv.

Mahakaal — The form taken by Mahashiv to perform the great dissolution of a galaxy.

Mahakaal Agni — The fire of ten kala by which Mahashiv, as Mahakaal, dissolves an entire galaxy.

Mahakal Pralay — The great dissolution of a whole galaxy, a Maha Brahmand. The supreme dissolution in which infinite solar system are absorbed back into the Mahashiv; the total of all cosmic dissolutions within the relevant realms, all lokas and all existence back into himself.

Mahakalp Pralay — The dissolution of a whole Brahmand (solar system), at the close of Brahma's hundred years.

Mahalok — A higher world above the heaven in the structure of the Brahmand.

Maha Paramdham — The supreme abode of Mahashiv at the centre of every galaxy; the home of Mahashiv seen by science as a black hole.

Maha Parivartan — The great transformation now approaching; a gentle change through Param Light, not fire.

Mahashiv — The great Brahm; the creator of an entire galaxy, the Maha Brahmand.

Manu and Shatrupa — The first parents from whom each new human creation begins.

Manvantar — A great cosmic era. The full dissolution of the Earth's human creation, after seventy-one Ardh Pralays.

Mukti — Liberation; the freeing of the soul from bondage.

Multiverse — The cosmic scale that contains many Universes, Great Universes, Great-great universe upto G 17 layers of universe. The architecture of creation extends further still, beyond what the human mind can readily comprehend.

Narak — The lower realms of suffering, lying beneath the seven patalas.

Param Agni — The supreme fire; a fire of many times greater power than ordinary fire.

Param Akash — Supreme ether; a higher and more refined element than ordinary Akash. Together with Param Vayu and Param Agni, it constitutes the Param Tattvas of the causal body.

Paramdham — The supreme abode — the original home of souls. Paramdham is the highest dimension within a Solar system— a world of pure divine light where the creator resides in formless form. Souls in Paramdham exist in complete peace, light, and bliss. It is the original home from which all souls come and to which the most advanced souls return. Also called Amarloka — the immortal realm. Every Creator of solar system, Galaxy, Universe, multiverses have their respective supreme abode in incorporeal form.

Param Light — The supreme light of which the soul is made; it cannot be burned, and instruments cannot capture it. This is the state of pure soul consciousness.

Param Maha Brahmand — A universe; the level above a galaxy in the cosmic structure.

Param Maha Tattva — The supreme essence; the highest, finest principle, from which param tattva itself is formed.

Param Shanti — Supreme peace — the original state of the soul. Param Shanti is not merely the absence of noise or conflict. It is the original state of the soul when it rests in its pure divine light form. It is both a living state and a vibration that can be radiated outward. That's why soul always seeks supreme peace or Paramshanti. This is stage when soul establishes itself in its pure divine incorporeal state of supreme light.

Param Tattva — Supreme elements; the purified, elevated form of the five basic elements. the fundamental substance of higher real creations. Just as a nucleus is finer than an atom, param tattva is finer than tattva (elements). The energy of a param tattva is far greater than that of a tattva. Param Akash, Param Vayu and Param Agni are three param tattva.

Param Vayu — The supreme air; one of the supreme elements in the return of dissolution.

Patal — The lower worlds beneath the Earth; seven in number.

Pralay — Dissolution; the gathering back of a world. It occurs at many levels and scales.

Raksha Kavach — The protective shield around a Brahmand, formed by the Sun's anti-gravity, guarding it from external black holes.

Rishi — A sage; Brahma created seven rishis, through whom the seven worlds were made.

Rom — A pore; Bapuji speaks of Mahashiv drawing countless Brahmands into his every rom.

Satylok — The world of Brahma, among the highest in the structure of the Brahmand.

Satyug — The first and purest of the four ages, the age of truth.

Shakti — The divine power created by Shiv; together they bring forth creation.

Shankar — The divinity who performs destruction within a Brahmand.

Shiv Nirakari — The formless Shiv; the original creator who resides in the Paramdham.

Shivpuri — The abode of Shiv and Shakti in the structure of the Brahmand.

Srijan — Creation; the bringing forth of a world.

Sukhdaai — Joyful or full of happiness; the quality of the coming transformation through Param Light.

Swarglok — The heaven, where the devtas dwell.

Sangam Yug — The confluence age; the meeting point between the end of Kalyug and the dawn of Satyug.

Taplok — A higher world in the structure of the Brahmand.

Tamo-pradhan — The state of heaviness and decay reached by the world at the end of Kalyug.

Vishnupuri — The abode of Vishnu and Lakshmi in the structure of the Brahmand.

Visarjan — Dissolution; the act of withdrawing a world back into its source.

Yuga — An age; the four ages are Satyug, Treta, Dwapar and Kalyug.
