About Bapuji

Bapuji (full name: Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel, also lovingly called “Dadaji” by the younger generation) was born in 1956 in the small village of Akhaj in the Mehsana district of Gujarat. He spent his childhood in another village named Ambasan, also in the Mehsana district.

In the early part of his life, he was a highly successful lawyer. Later, he devoted his life to realising the supreme spiritual truth and bringing this divine knowledge forward for the welfare of humanity. Today, this supreme knowledge serves as a guiding light for true seekers to realise their ultimate destiny.

Despite being raised in a very poor family and facing challenging circumstances, Bapuji had a deep desire to transform this sorrowful and suffering world into a better place. At the young age of six, he questioned God repeatedly, asking why God remained silent about the suffering of humanity. This intense longing to end human suffering eventually led him to attain the highest level of spirituality later in life.

In 1997, he established a spiritual institution called Vishwa Parivartak Ishwariya Vidhyalay in Chenpur, Ahmedabad, with the mission of transforming this mortal world, filled with suffering and disorder, into an eternal divine world of immortality. Smt. Sushma Tandon, lovingly known as “Maa,” worked alongside Bapuji in this grand divine mission.

Bapuji’s teachings cover a vast range of topics, including the types of celestial creators across different dimensions, the creation of our solar system, galaxy, and universe, and most importantly, the transcendental knowledge of the multiverse and realities beyond it. His knowledge is supremely profound and is intended for highly evolved seekers, referred to as behad souls.

At present, Bapuji remains deeply engaged in intense meditation and samadhi for long hours. He does not meet anyone, as he is continuously immersed in his transcendental mission in a superconscious state.

Preface

The concept of the Third Eye has captivated seekers across the world for centuries. Countless traditions, Gurus, and schools of thought have offered their own interpretations of what the Third Eye is and how to open it. Yet, for most people, the subject remains shrouded in mystery and confusion.

In this discourse, Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel offers a remarkably clear and direct understanding. He explains that the Third Eye is not a physical phenomenon to be forced open through external techniques. Rather, it is the state of Atma Swaroop — the experience of being established in one's true identity as a soul. This is the very same state that Bhagwan Krishna described in the Bhagavad Gita as Sthit Pragya — the state of stable soul-consciousness.

Bapuji speaks entirely from his own practical experience, having practised Atma Swaroop for decades while living as a householder and working as a lawyer. His words carry the authority of direct experience.

This book presents Bapuji's teachings in simple, accessible language, faithful to the original discourse, so that every reader — regardless of background — may understand and begin this journey.

CHAPTER I

The Third Eye — What It Truly Means

People around the world have many different concepts about the Third Eye. Some associate it with supernatural vision, others with physical techniques, and many find the subject confusing. Bapuji offers a direct and clear explanation drawn from his own experience in yog and samadhi.

The Third Eye is Divya Drishti — divine vision. When the Third Eye opens, divine vision comes. But what is the Third Eye in reality? It is the stage of Atma Swaroop — being established in the consciousness of the soul.

In the Bhagavad Gita, which is regarded as the crown jewel of all scriptures, Bhagwan Krishna gave a clear instruction: become Atma Swaroop and remember Paramatma. The Bhagavad Gita calls this state Sthit Pragya Avastha — the state of stable, awakened consciousness. This is exactly what the Third Eye means.

Bhagwan Shankar is called Trinetri — the one with the Third Eye. With this divine vision, He could see the entire universe and do whatever He wished. Bapuji explains that when the Third Eye truly opens, the soul gains the capacity to perceive the thoughts of others and the future paths of souls. This is the power of Atma Swaroop.

However, the real purpose of the Third Eye is not to perform miracles or to see others. It is to know yourself — to know who you truly are. The Third Eye means knowing the self. Bapuji asks: what is the need to know about others? Know yourself first.

The essence of all the Vedas and scriptures can be distilled into two words: Atma and Paramatma. You are a soul.

Know yourself. Become Atma Swaroop. Then know and connect with Paramatma.

CHAPTER II

The Soul and Its Inner Faculties

There is much confusion, even among spiritual practitioners, about where the atma is located. Some say the soul is in the heart. Some say the mind is in the heart. Bapuji clarifies this with precision.

The mind (Mann), intellect (Buddhi), and impression (sanskars) are all within the soul — not separate from it. The mind is inside the soul. The intellect is inside the mind. And the sanskars are inside the intellect. The actions you perform create sanskars, and these shape your destiny.

The soul is located at the centre point of the brain — the mind centre. It is the soul that operates the mind. It is the soul that runs the body. When asked “Who are you?”, the answer is simple: I am a soul. This much has become common knowledge today. But merely knowing “I am a soul” is Atma Gyan — soul knowledge. The real goal is Atma Swaroop ki Anubhuti — the actual experience of being the soul consciousness.

The Third Eye is known to be between the two eyebrows — where we apply the tilak. Behind that point lies the soul. It is an extremely subtle point of light — a point of conscious energy.

CHAPTER III

The Practice of Atma Swaroop

Various methods exist for awakening the Third Eye — tratak vidya with a candle flame, kriya yog, and many others. Bapuji does not go into those details. Instead, he offers a direct, practical approach rooted in his own experience.

The White Light Method

For those who wish to strengthen their Atma Swaroop, Bapuji recommends a simple practice using a soft white light. Sit comfortably at a gentle distance from a soft white light source. Close your eyes and bring your awareness gently to the point between your eyebrows — where the soul resides.

Then, with awareness, affirm: Main Atma hoon — I am a soul. Repeat this while sitting, while going about daily tasks, while eating and walking. Until you become Atma Swaroop, the power of Paramatma will not come to you — no matter how much you try to remember God.

The Bhagavad Gita itself states: first become Atma Swaroop, then remember Paramatma. Only then will divine power flow into you.

It Takes Time and Effort

Bapuji is clear that this is not a quick or easy process. The experience of Atma Swaroop comes gradually — little by little, over a long period of dedicated practice. Those who claim to open the Third Eye in a matter of days or months through external methods have not understood the true depth of this practice.

In many places, various external methods and techniques are taught, often claiming to open the Third Eye within a short period. Bapuji explains that genuine awakening of the Third Eye cannot be forced through such outer practices. Truly opened Third Eye is exceedingly rare in scriptural history. Among all the rishi, muni, and saints described in the scriptures, Bhagwan Shankar Himself stands as the supreme example of the fully opened Third Eye.

Bapuji himself has practised Atma Swaroop since approximately 1991-92. He practised intensely while living a householder's life and working as an income tax lawyer. He would devote entire Sundays to deep meditation and intense tapasya. This is the level of dedication he embraced on his own spiritual path.

Living as a Karm Yogi

The Bhagavad Gita teaches karm yog — do not abandon your work and responsibilities. Do not run to the jungle. In ancient times, many great souls renounced their families and worldly life in their search for the truth. Bapuji explains that today this path of complete renunciation is not required. The Grihasth Ashram — the householder's life — is called the greatest ashram in the Bhagavad Gita. One must practise Atma Swaroop while living in the world, fulfilling one's responsibilities.

It is explained:

- household life can also be spiritual path
- duties can continue alongside spiritual awareness
- renunciation is not mandatory
- balance between karma and awareness is important

CHAPTER IV

Miracles, Siddhis, and the Real Purpose

Many people are fascinated by miracles and supernatural abilities — siddhis. Stories abound of saints who could levitate, appear in two places at once, or see the future. Many spiritual biographies describe such phenomena, and countless readers have wished to experience similar abilities themselves.

Bapuji states clearly: an ordinary person cannot perform miracles. The extraordinary feats attributed to certain individuals are not performed by their own power. Subtle world souls — entities from the sukshma jagat — assist them in order to make them famous. These souls use human beings as instruments for their own purposes.

Even in practices like Yog Nidra, subtle souls gather around the practitioners, seeking to absorb spiritual power. The practitioner may not even realise that the experiences they receive are being influenced by these entities.

Similarly, those who appear to perform sensory feats with their eyes covered are not using their own Third Eye, according to Bapuji. Such phenomena may be enabled by subtle world souls who use the practitioner as an instrument to gain attention and following. These are not signs of genuine spiritual awakening.

Bapuji asks a direct question: even if you gain siddhis, what will you do with them? Will flying in the air take you to Paramdham? Even the great sage Vishwamitra performed thousands of years of penance, yet could not enter Swarg Lok with his body. He became Trishanku — suspended between worlds.

Difference Between Siddhi and True Spiritual Awakening

Many seekers become attracted to miracles — seeing distant places, predicting the future, levitation, appearing in multiple locations, and other supernatural experiences.

According to Bapuji's teaching, such phenomena may not represent true spiritual realisation. Even magicians demonstrate illusions. True Third Eye awakening means the removal of ignorance, realisation of one's soul nature, connection with the Supreme consciousness, and stability in this knowledge. The real path is simple: know the soul, know Paramatma, and connect with the Almighty Authority directly. Do not get caught in the trap of miracles and siddhis. These are distractions from the true goal.

CHAPTER V

The Soul's Vision — What Opens When the Third Eye Awakens

When genuine Atma Swaroop is achieved, a remarkable transformation takes place. The soul begins to access the records stored within it — the complete file of its journey opens.

The Sahasrara — The Soul's Antenna

Above the atma lies the Sahasrara — the crown energy centre. Bapuji compares it to a satellite dish or television antenna. When the soul awakens and the Sahasrara opens, it functions as the soul's receiver. Visions begin to flow from higher dimensions into the soul's awareness.

The scope of what the soul perceives depends entirely on its origin and quality. If the soul belongs to this Bramand, it will see this entire Bramand. If it is a soul from the galaxy level — of the Maha Maha Shiv category — it will see the entire galaxy, the Anant Koti Bramand. If it is a soul from the universe level, the whole universe will become visible. If it is from the multiverse level, the multiverse will open before it. And if it is a behad soul — from beyond the limits — the behad dimensions will gradually reveal themselves.

The Soul's Quality Determines Everything

Not all souls are at the same stage of evolution. Bapuji has described multiple categories of souls in his discourses. Souls at earlier stages of evolution will not naturally be drawn to this deeper work. Only souls of higher spiritual maturity — behad souls, special souls — can truly practise Atma Swaroop and access these higher dimensions.

A behad soul will naturally be drawn to behad gyan. It will practise Atma Swaroop. And it will seek to connect directly with the Almighty Authority — not with limited forms of divinity, but with the ultimate source from Unch Te Unch Paramdham.

The Subtle Bodies Awaken

When Atma Swaroop is achieved and connection with Paramatma is established, the soul's accumulated vikarms — negative karmic records stored in the Karan Sharir and Maha Karan Sharir — are destroyed. The Bhagavad Gita itself promises: become Atma Swaroop, know Me, and I will wash away all your sins and take you to Paramdham.

As this process deepens, the gross body transforms. The sukshm sharir, karan sharir, maha karan sharir, and param maha karan sharir all awaken. The soul's aura expands tremendously, and the power of sankalp siddhi — the ability to manifest through thought — emerges naturally.

Yet, at that stage, one stops desiring anything for oneself. The only goal that remains is Vishwa Parivartan — world transformation.

CHAPTER VI

Param Shanti and World Transformation

Bapuji's mission is clear: Swa Parivartan se Vishwa Parivartan — self-transformation leads to world transformation. First, transform yourself. Then, transform the world.

Along with Atma Swaroop, Bapuji instructs seekers to spread the vibrations of Param Shanti — supreme peace — throughout the day. These are not ordinary peaceful vibrations. They are the vibrations of Param Param Param Maha Shanti — the supreme, beyond-limits peace from the highest dimensions.

When these vibrations are practised sincerely, the home becomes a temple. The atmosphere changes. The environment transforms. Those around you also experience peace and well-being. Param Shanti is the path to true happiness.

Behad Ka Bhagya — Beyond-Limits Fortune

Bapuji distinguishes between ordinary fortune and behad ka bhagya — beyond-limits fortune. To build this supreme fortune, three things are necessary.

First, receive behad gyan — knowledge beyond limits. Second, know and connect with the Almighty Authority of the behad dimension. Third, contribute to the mission of behad ka Vishwa Parivartan — beyond-limits world transformation.

Simply listening to knowledge is not enough. One must act. One must contribute. The slogan is clear: Sabke sahyog se behad ka Vishwa Parivartan — through everyone's cooperation, the beyond-limits world transformation will happen.

Even one soul that fully awakens can change a great deal. If fifty or a thousand such souls awaken, the entire multiverse can be transformed. This is the scale of Bapuji's vision.

The call is for every behad soul to share this knowledge far and wide — Gyan Daan Maha Daan. Establish Gita Pathshalas in every home. Spread the knowledge. Transform yourself and become a partner in transforming the world.
