About Bapuji

Bapuji (full name: Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel, also lovingly called “Dadaji” by the younger generation) was born in 1956 in the small village of Akhaj in the Mehsana district of Gujarat. However, he spent his childhood in another village named Ambasan, also located in the Mehsana district.

In the early part of his life, he was a highly successful lawyer. Later, he devoted his life to realizing the supreme spiritual truth and bringing this divine knowledge forward for the welfare of humanity. Today, this supreme knowledge serves as a guiding light for true seekers to realize their ultimate destiny. It is a blessing of the highest divinity that the present time is witnessing the rise of this supreme spiritual knowledge, guiding souls on Earth to return to their original source.

Despite being raised in a very poor family and facing challenging circumstances, Bapuji had a deep desire to transform this sorrowful and suffering world into a better place. At the young age of six, he questioned God repeatedly, asking why God remained silent about the suffering of humanity. This intense longing to end human suffering eventually led him to attain the highest level of spirituality later in life.

Even as a child, Bapuji would spend hours alone in the fields, often neglecting his own comfort. Due to poverty, he would walk barefoot without shoes or sandals, frequently getting pricked by thorns. Many times, he would stay late in the fields and, on his way back home, encounter subtle world entities. These experiences sparked his interest in communicating with subtle world souls.

Bapuji was courageous from a young age, which helped him overcome many obstacles. Alongside his studies in chartered accountancy (CA), he gave tuition classes to support himself financially. Later, he completed his Bachelor of Law (LLB) degree and became a well-known lawyer in Ahmedabad.

In 1997, he established a spiritual institution called “Vishwa Parivartak Ishwariya Vidhyalay” in Chenpur, Ahmedabad, with the mission of transforming this mortal world, filled with suffering and disorder, into an eternal divine world of immortality. Smt. Sushma Tandon, lovingly known as “Maa,” worked alongside Bapuji in this grand divine mission.

To accomplish this mission, Bapuji worked tirelessly, dedicating all his resources to this divine purpose. During that time, he would deliver continuous spiritual discourses for up to 18 hours without rest. In these discourses, he explained the highest dimensions of divine knowledge, which he realized through deep meditation and divine vision in a state of superconsciousness. This knowledge goes beyond the imagination of the ordinary human mind.

Bapuji's teachings cover a vast range of topics, including the types of celestial creators across different dimensions, the creation of our solar system, galaxy, and universe, and most importantly, the transcendental knowledge of the multiverse and realities beyond it. His knowledge is supremely profound and is intended for highly evolved seekers, referred to as "behad souls." According to Bapuji, these "behad souls" will play a key role in transforming this mortal world into an eternal divine realm.

At present, Bapuji remains deeply engaged in intense meditation and samadhi for long hours. He does not meet anyone, as he is continuously immersed in his transcendental mission in a superconscious state.

Preface

“Gyaan Daan Mahadaan”

(Sharing knowledge is the highest charity. By Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel)

This book is based on the divine knowledge of Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel. It contains a detailed account of the three bodies of the soul — the Physical Body (Sthool Sharir), the Subtle Body (Sukshma Sharir), and the Causal Body (Kaaran Sharir). According to Bapuji, a human being’s existence is not limited to the visible physical body alone — it is a complex combination of three bodies composed of five elements.

In this book, Bapuji explains that the root cause of all illness and suffering lies in the Causal Body, and to recharge it, it is essential to receive Divine Light from the Almighty Authority through the practice of Yoga. The book also sheds light on profound subjects such as the Great Causal Body, the journey of the soul, the science of Karma, and world welfare.

This knowledge is extraordinary — out of millions, perhaps one listens to it; out of crores, perhaps one imbibes it; and even among those, only a rare few put it into practice. This book is for those rare seekers who wish to walk the path of their soul’s liberation and the welfare of the world.

Chapter I

The Soul and Its Various Bodies Across Different Bramands (Solar System)

In every Bramand, there are 8.4 million species of living beings. All living beings have different types of bodies. The question arises: which is the finest body and in which universe would it exist?

Perhaps no one at this time would have the answer to this question, but the knowledge of Behad (the Unlimited) explains that the jeev / Atma / jeevatma — all of these are connected to time and space. As time changes, bodies also change. Just as in the mortal world (Mrityu Lok), the human body passes through different stages — childhood, youth, old age — after all of which the body dies and that soul is reborn. These are all laws connected to this body in this Bramand, and this is a normal occurrence. But when the soul travels to dimensions above this Bramand, it becomes not merely difficult but impossible to describe that reality, because the human being of the earthly realm is not yet capable of knowing and understanding this. The power of the human soul has not yet evolved. In the time to come, when science advances, perhaps human beings will be able to believe this. For now, let us try to lift the veil on this subject as much as possible. A blessed soul will surely understand this. This message will be clear only to those souls who are worthy of it.

There are, of course, endless and infinite Bramands, countless galaxies, countless universes, countless multiverses. It is impossible to know about all of them. Whatever knowledge a human being knows today is merely like a single drop from the ocean. The world of Behad has no end — it is infinite. All of this is beyond human intellect, because the human intellect, mind, and impressions (Sanskaars) are all made of Maya (illusion), and the world of Behad, which belongs to the Supreme Light and Supreme Elements, is a world beyond Maya. That is why, until a human being becomes a conqueror of Maya (Mayajeeet), it is not possible to understand all of this.

In the knowledge of Behad, Bapuji explains that when the power of the soul changes, its body also changes and its speed also changes. That is why we need to know: what is the speed of light, and what is the Supreme Speed (Param Gati)?

The Supreme Speed is that which a human being attains from the Supreme Being (Paramatma) through the strength of the soul. When the soul, having ended its karmic bondages through its thoughts and intentions (Sankalpas), uses the power of thought at the time of leaving the body, it directly attains the Supreme Speed and reaches its original abode. That is the world of Behad (the Supreme Abode of Behad). It attains the Supreme Speed only through its final thought-intention. But this requires practice throughout one's entire lifetime — only then can the soul attain the Supreme Speed. During this journey, the soul passes through different Bramands and during that time its body also changes. Bapuji has explained this in great depth in his video "Journey of the Soul." The soul keeps changing its body in the ascending (Urdhvagati) and descending (Adbhogati) movements. As it transcends the world of Maya, the light of the soul within the body increases progressively. When the soul reaches different Yuga (epochs) or different worlds of different Kala (degrees of power), its body also changes according to the power of that Kala — different bodies of different light, and the degree of knowledge within them is also different. If the human soul deeply understands the secrets of the body in our Bramand, its onward journey will become easier.

Chapter II

An Introduction to the Soul — Form, Experience and Abode

All religions acknowledge the existence of the soul. Some call it “Atma”, some call it “Rooh”, while others call it “Soul”. Science considers the soul to be a Conscious Energy that is awakened. I am a soul — the body is merely an instrument through which the soul performs its actions. The Behad soul is made of Supreme Light. The rays of the soul’s light spread in all directions — this is called Might. Might means Nature (Prakriti). There is always a protective shield of Might over the Light. Might protects the Light, so that no kind of impurity enters within the soul.

The soul resides at the centre of the greater Mind, at the point where we apply the tilak. The soul’s original form is pure, sacred, and immaculate. The light of the soul is like a bright white shining star. Just as stars shine in the night sky, so does our soul shine. The scriptures state that our soul is smaller than even a billionth of the thickness of a hair. The soul cannot be seen with the physical eyes. It can only be known and experienced in the state of Self-realisation (Atma Swaroop). Along with the soul, there is the mind (Man); within the mind is the intellect (Buddhi); and within the intellect are the Sanskaars (impressions). The soul operates the body through the mind. The soul is untouched by anything (Nirlep).

Currently, the second half of Brahma’s cosmic cycle is underway. The first half of Brahma’s cycle has passed and 1.98 billion years of the second half have elapsed. Souls have been caught in the cycle of birth and death for 1.98 billion years. That is why the human soul has accumulated layers of Karma from many lifetimes. After death, the soul is accompanied by the subtle body and the causal body. A human being is the owner of all these bodies, but they will never know them, because a human being considers only the body visible to these eyes as the truth and spends most of their time looking after it.

Without the study of Self-identity (Atmaswaroop ki Padhai), this is not possible.
Let us attempt to know the ultimate truth of the human body.

Chapter III

The Science of the Four Bodies: The Soul's Journey from the Physical to the Maha-Causal

Part 1: Physical Body (Sthool Sharir)

The body made of the five great elements (Panchmahabhoot) is called the Physical Body (Sthool Sharir). Our physical body is composed of five elements — Aakash (Space), Vayu (Air), Agni (Fire), Jal (Water) and Prithvi (Earth). When the soul resides in a body of five elements, the soul's power is diminished due to the Earth and Water elements. The body becomes heavy. Because of the physical body, the human mind and intellect become entangled in gross objects, and the human being becomes indulgent in sensory pleasures, causing the soul's knowledge to become hidden.

Part 2: Subtle Body (Sukshma Sharir)

Image: AI-generated (GPT Image 2.0) · Artistic interpretation only — actual reality may differ.

When the soul meets death, its body of five elements becomes a body of three elements. The Earth element merges back into the earth and Water evaporates into steam when burned by Fire. That is, its body is left with only the Space (Aakash), Air (Vayu) and Fire (Agni) elements — this is called the Subtle Body (Sukshma Sharir). The subtle body cannot be seen with the physical eyes. After death, the power of the soul increases in the subtle body because the Earth and Water element body no longer exists. The lesser the burden of Karma, the lighter the soul. Through spiritual discipline (Tapa), the soul's speed and power to ascend increases. The higher the soul goes, the greater the experience of happiness and peace. All records of emotions and actions are contained within the subtle body. Travel in the subtle world can only be undertaken in the subtle body. After death, the soul's mind (Man), intellect (Buddhi), and Sanskaars (impressions) accompany the subtle body. Above, in the subtle world, there is a subtle dimension of different elements — which cannot be seen by these eyes; it can only be seen through divine vision (Divya Drishti). In ancient times, sages (Rishis) and ascetics (Munis) could take their subtle bodies wherever they wished through the power of their thoughts.

Part 3: Causal Body (Kaaran Sharir)

When the soul is born, first the mind (Man) comes into the soul. As the mind slowly begins to think, intellect (Buddhi) arises. Through intellect, action (Karma) is performed, and through action, Sanskaars (impressions) are formed. From Sanskaars, the Causal Body (Kaaran Sharir) is formed. From the Causal Body, the Subtle Body is formed, and from the Subtle Body, the Physical Body is formed. The body that is created due to our mind, desires, thoughts, and actions is the Causal Body. Through karmic bondages, sinful actions, the desire for indulgence, and negative thinking, the powers of our Causal Body become depleted. All records of a human being's Karma are stored in the Causal Body; by charging the Causal Body, one can destroy the Vikarms (sinful Karmas). When the Causal Body is charged, the Space element (Aakash Tatra) within the soul increases and the soul travels to Vishnupuri (the causal realm). Any disease that enters a human being's physical body first manifests in the Causal Body. The Causal Body is composed of the Space element. The Causal Body, from the throat to the navel, appears as a fine Silver Chain-like Light with a soft light around it. Angels possess a Causal Body. Souls in Vishnupuri have a Causal Body. The Causal Body is made solely of the Space element. The Space element is subtler than Air and Fire elements. The Space element exists within Air and Fire, which is why the Subtle Body is built upon the Causal Body. When the soul's desires decrease and it becomes thoughtless (Nissankalpa), the Air element becomes calm and the soul is able to experience the Causal Body; this requires practice. The more agitated the mind and the greater the desires, the heavier the Air element, the more excited the mind remains, and the Aura of the soul will be Tamo-predominant, meaning of a dark (black) colour.

Part 4: Great Causal Body (Maha Karan Sharir)

The Great Causal Body is composed of three Supreme Elements (Param Tatva) — Supreme Space (Param Aakash), Supreme Air Element (Param Vayu Tatva), and Supreme Fire (Param Agni). The Supreme Element (Param Tatva) is even subtler than the elements (Tatva); the Supreme Element exists within the elements, meaning the elements are made of the Supreme Element. When desires in the mind increased, the soul began to form more thoughts, and then the Supreme Elements gradually transformed into elements. The soul's thoughts (Sankalpas) function through the elements. The more thoughts the soul forms, the more energy is depleted in the elements. Therefore, the energy in the Supreme Element is many times greater than in the elements. The Great Causal Body exists within the Causal Body. Only the soul that possesses a Great Causal Body will experience its Great Causal Body through Yoga and can travel to the Maha Causal world. When the Space element increases in the soul, it experiences peace; and when the amount of Supreme Element in the soul increases, it experiences Param Shanti (Supreme Peace). When all desires and cravings in the soul come to an end, it enters the Maha Causal world. Souls in Shinpur possess the Great Causal Body.

The Great Causal Body is made of Supreme Elements, and the Param Great Causal Body is made of Supreme Light. The Param Great Causal Body belongs to absolutely high-quality souls, or the Behad souls. The Param Great Causal Body is a body of Light — it is the state prior to the Seed-Form state. That is, after the Param Great Causal Body, there is no further body; beyond this exists only the completely formless (Nirakaar) pure soul. Even within the Param Great Causal Body, the “mind” remains, but in the fully formless, pure soul-state, the “mind” does not remain. The Param Great Causal Body is the most subtle and the most powerful in energy. The foundation of the Great Causal Body is the Param Great Causal Body. The higher the soul ascends, the more subtle and energetically potent its body becomes.

*In the fully pure soul-state, neither the mind remains, nor any body.
That is the attributeless (Nirgun), formless (Nirakaar), Seed-Form state.*

Chapter IV

How Does the Soul Journey According to Satva, Rajo and Tamo Qualities?

Every soul has its own Creator. Some souls are made solely of the Space element — those souls possess only a Causal Body. Those souls are created in the causal realm. That is, all those souls are of a lighter quality. These souls can travel in some dimensions through the power of their thoughts. The journey of those souls begins from the causal realm to the physical realm. When souls perform more Vikarms (sinful actions), they wander in 8.4 million life forms.

There are many types of souls — some are made of Supreme Element (Param Tatva), some of Maha Element (Maha Tatva), some are made of Supreme Light (Param Prakash). Higher souls above this are made of the Supreme Light of a high order of Kala (degree). Souls made of Supreme Light are called Supreme Souls (Param Atma). Even within Supreme Light, there are souls of many degrees of Kala according to Power — starting from 1 Kala, going up to 100 Kala, from 100 Kala to 2101 Kala, and above 2101 Kala are the Behad Kala, which we call the Behad souls. The more Kala a soul possesses, the higher the quality of that soul. All souls journey through various dimensions through their thoughts and Karma. Then, when the soul gains the knowledge of its Creator, it returns to its Creator. This is called the soul's Return Journey.

As the soul passes through various dimensions during its journey, it assumes a body according to the atmosphere of that realm. This is expressed as “Yatha Brahmande Tatha Pinde” (As the universe, so the body). The soul principally assumes three types of bodies — Incorporeal (Nirakari), Subtle-Form (Akari), and Gross-Form (Sakari). As the soul assumes different bodies during its journey, those qualities come into it. Accordingly, the soul has three states: Satva (Sato), Rajo, Tamo.

From Vishnupuri to the physical realm (Bhu Lok / Prithvi), the Rajo quality decreases and the Tamo quality increases. The Tamo quality is highest on Earth in the physical world.

Part 1: Satva (Sato) Predominant Soul

Image: AI-generated (GPT Image 2.0) · Artistic interpretation only — actual reality may differ.

When the soul assumes the body of Supreme Element (Param Tatva), it possesses the Satva (Sato) quality. At that time, the soul's thoughts (Sankalpas) are powerful — that is, whatever it thinks comes to fruition. This state can be called the Supreme Purush (Supreme Being). At that time, all divine qualities reside within the soul. In the Satva (Sato)-predominant state, the soul's aura remains pure white (Pure White).

Part 2: Rajo Predominant Soul

When the soul creates through its thoughts, the soul's power becomes depleted and the soul's aura undergoes a change. Through creation, and through further expenditure of the soul's power, the soul gradually assumes the subtle body of three elements, and the power of its thoughts decreases.

Part 3: Tamo Predominant Soul

When the soul assumes the physical body, the soul becomes completely ignorant. Then the soul becomes trapped in the five elements, becomes indulgent in pleasures, and no power remains in its thoughts.

The atmosphere is formed according to the state of the soul. When the soul is Satva (Sato)-predominant, the atmosphere too is filled with the Satva (Sato) quality. When the soul is Tamo-predominant, the atmosphere becomes Tamo-predominant and natural calamities begin to occur — which is what we see on Earth today. At this time, no power remains in the elements, nature has become a source of suffering, and the soul is experiencing pain and sorrow.

Chapter V

The Science of the Causal Body — Deep Questions and Clear Answers

The human body is not only what we see with our eyes. According to Bapuji, a human being's existence is formed by the combination of five elements — Earth (Prithvi), Water (Jal), Fire (Agni), Air (Vayu), and Space (Aakash). From these five elements, three types of bodies are formed, and each body has its own specific function. Until we understand these three bodies, we will not be able to identify the root cause of our illness and suffering.

♦ “The human being has a body of five elements. What is visible within it — the Water and Earth elements — that is the Physical Body (Sthool Sharir). The body of Air and Fire elements is the Subtle Body (Sukshma Sharir). And the body of the Space element — this we call the Causal Body (Kaaran Sharir).”

— Bapuji Dasbrathbbhai Patel

The principle of the three bodies is not merely a philosophical concept — it is practical science. Just as modern medicine treats the physical organs of the body, Bapuji explains that healing the Subtle and Causal bodies is also possible — and without it, complete wellness for a human being is impossible.

♦ “When the Causal Body is affected, its impact is felt on both the Subtle and the Physical bodies. Therefore, the root of all diseases and suffering lies within the Causal Body itself.”

Image: AI-generated (GPT Image 2.0) · Artistic interpretation only — actual reality may differ.

Chapter VI

Medicine, Blessings and Divine Light — The Science of Holistic Healing of the Three Bodies

Part 1: Medicine — Healing the Physical Body

Bapuji explains a very beautiful distinction — the distinction between medicine (Dawa) and blessings (Dua). Medicine heals the physical body. Whether it is allopathy, homoeopathy, or Ayurveda — most medicines primarily provide only temporary relief to the physical body.

♦ “Medicine heals the physical body, and blessings heal your Subtle Body. But to heal the Causal Body, you need power — you need Supreme Light (Divine Light).”

— Bapuji Dasbrathbbhai Patel

Part 2: Blessings (Dua) — Healing the Subtle Body

Just as medicine heals the physical body, in the same way, blessings (Dua) — that is, positive thoughts, good wishes, and blessings — heal the Subtle Body. Bapuji explains that in today’s world, people are receiving curses (Baddua) instead of blessings — they are hurting the hearts of others.

♦ “When we give people the experience of Gyaan-Yoga, tell them the knowledge of their soul, make them embody knowledge — then from those people we will receive a positive power — that our soul has been uplifted — and this blessing will help in charging our Causal Body.”

— Bapuji Dasbrathbbhai Patel

Part 3: Divine Light — Healing the Causal Body

To heal the Causal Body, neither medicine works nor ordinary blessings — for this, Divine Light is needed. Bapuji says that this Divine Light comes only from the Almighty Authority — the Supreme Father, the Supreme Being (Parampita Parmatma).

Chapter VII

How Negative Karma and Energy Damage the Causal Body — A Deep Understanding of the Mind, Subtle and Causal Bodies

Part 1: Bad Karma and Curses (Baddua)

Bapuji explains that the Causal Body is primarily damaged by bad Karma — when we hurt the hearts of others, the negative thoughts (Baddua — curses) of those people strike our Causal Body.

★ “In many lives you have hurt the hearts of people — you have caused pain to their hearts. So the negative thoughts of people have come upon your heart — you have received the curses (Baddua) of people.”

— Bapuji Dasbrathbbhai Patel

Part 2: Heart Attack — Trauma Across All Three Bodies

Image: AI-generated (GPT Image 2.0) · Artistic interpretation only — actual reality may differ.

Bapuji gives a profound example — a heart attack. He says this is not merely a disease of the physical body — it affects all three bodies. Over many lifetimes, the curses (Baddua) accumulated from hurting others' hearts accumulate upon the heart region of the Causal Body. And if that person leaves the body, the damage carries forward into the next life — which is why many children are born with a weak heart.

Note: This spiritual perspective is offered for understanding only. It is not a substitute for paediatric or cardiac medical care. Parents of any child with a heart condition, congenital condition, or chronic illness must seek qualified medical treatment without delay and continue all prescribed care.

Part 3: Cancer and Incurable Diseases

Bapuji also explains regarding cancer — wherever the Causal Body becomes discharged, diseases like cancer arise. Medicine plays an important role at the physical level, while the deeper root cause is addressed at the level of the Causal Body itself.

♦ “Such deep-rooted diseases find their root healing through Yoga (meditation), working alongside ongoing medical care.”

— Bapuji Dasbrathbbhai Patel

Part 4: Depression — Crisis of the Mind and Causal Body

Today, depression has become an epidemic across the entire world. Bapuji says that the primary cause of depression is a blow to the mind — when a desire is not fulfilled, the mind receives a blow. The person keeps thinking the same negative thought repeatedly, and illnesses continue to increase. Bapuji's remedy — become free from desires (Ichchhamukta).

♦ “Suffering comes because of desires. So uplift your soul — surrender to the soul itself.”

— Bapuji Dasbrathbbhai Patel

Note: Clinical depression is a recognised medical condition that requires qualified professional support. The spiritual practices described here are intended to complement, not replace, medical and psychological care. If you or someone you know is experiencing depression, persistent low mood, or thoughts of self-harm, please reach out to a qualified mental-health professional, doctor, or trusted helpline without delay.

Chapter VIII

Causal Body Empowerment — The Path to Liberation through a Joyful Mind, Yoga and Self-Knowledge

First Step — Keep the Mind Joyful

♦ “If you keep the mind joyful, your Causal Body will suffer no further damage. But to re-empower (recharge) the damage that occurred in past lives, Divine Light is needed.”

— Bapuji Dasbrathbbhai Patel

Second Step — Lifestyle Transformation

Bapuji says — become Antarmukhi (inward-looking), “Antarmukhi sada sukh?” (One who looks inward is always happy). Withdraw your mind from the attractions of the outer world. Do not show off. Speak less, speak sweetly, speak only when needed. Limit unnecessary associations with people. Practise silence and solitude — lead the life of a Karmayogi.

♦ “Speak less, speak sweetly. Speak only when needed. Do not show off — this is a world of illusion (Maya).”

— Bapuji Dasbrathbbhai Patel

Third Step — Self-Knowledge (Atmagyaan)

To recharge the Causal Body, first there must be Self-Knowledge (Atmagyaan) — “Who am I?” Understanding that I am not this body, I am a soul. Rising above the relationships of the body and being established in the identity “I am a soul.”

Fourth Step — Connection with the Power House (Yoga)

Image: AI-generated (GPT Image 2.0) · Artistic interpretation only — actual reality may differ.

This is the most important step. Bapuji says that to recharge the Causal Body, the soul needs Divine Light — and this Divine Light comes from the Almighty Authority — from the Power House.

♦ “Remember the Almighty Authority — remember only the One, forget all else. As Meera said — ‘Mere to bas ek Giridhar Gopal, doosaro na koi’ (For me there is only Giridhar Gopal, there is no other).”

— Bapuji Dasbrathbbhai Patel

The meaning of Yoga is connection — the connection of the soul with the Supreme Being (Parmatma). As Yoga deepens — Vikarms will be destroyed, the Causal Body will be recharged, the mind will become calm, and the level of consciousness will rise.

♦ “When you connect the power connection with the Power House, practise Yoga — the level of consciousness will keep rising. Divine Light will come into the soul, Vikarms will be destroyed, the body will become lighter.”

— Bapuji Dasbrathbbhai Patel

Fifth Step — What Happens When the Causal Body is Charged

Image: AI-generated (GPT Image 2.0) · Artistic interpretation only — actual reality may differ.

Knowledge awakens, the mind begins to become calm, detachment from bodily relationships arises, solitude becomes dear, knowledge begins to emerge from within, and transformation occurs in the mind, intellect, and Sanskaars.

♦ “As power comes into the soul — the mind will keep becoming calm, and gradually the experience of Param Shanti (Supreme Peace) will be felt.”

— Bapuji Dasbrathbbhai Patel

Sixth Step — Liberation from the Cycle of Birth and Death

Bapuji says — when the Causal Body is completely recharged, the bondage of birth and death itself will be broken.

♦ “When the Causal Body is fully empowered (recharged), the bondage of birth and death is automatically dissolved.”

— Bapuji Dasbrathbbhai Patel

Chapter IX

Daily Practice and Affirmations — The Path to Spiritual Elevation for World Welfare

First Step — Daily Affirmations

Bapuji says — repeat this affirmation in the mind again and again every day:

◆ “I am the supreme-supreme-supreme soul of Behad. Supreme-supreme elements are coming into me. Supreme Light, Param Light is coming.”

— Bapuji Dasbrathbbhai Patel

Along with this, also hold the affirmation for world welfare:

◆ “I am a world-serving soul of Behad. I am a world-benefitting soul of Behad. I am a world-transforming soul of Behad.”

— Bapuji Dasbrathbbhai Patel

Second Step — Understand Your True Identity

Bapuji says — first understand that you are no ordinary soul — you are a high-quality soul. Out of millions, perhaps one listens to this knowledge; out of crores, perhaps one imbibes it.

◆ “To imbibe this knowledge, to walk upon it, and to practically serve the welfare of the world — this is not within the capacity of an ordinary person.”

— Bapuji Dasbrathbbhai Patel

Third Step — The Goal of World Welfare

Image: AI-generated (GPT Image 2.0) · Artistic interpretation only — actual reality may differ.

Bapuji's final message — this knowledge is not for oneself alone, it is for the welfare of the world. Hold the affirmation of Param Shanti across infinite Bramands, connect with the Almighty Authority, receive the power, and channel that power towards the welfare of the world.

Bapuji Insights

♦ 1. Sare rog-shok ka asli karan humare karan sharir mein hota hai — sthool sharir par jo dikhta hai, woh sirf parinaam hai.

Meaning: The real root of all diseases and sorrows lies in our causal body; what manifests on the physical body is merely the effect.

♦ 2. Sthool sharir jal aur prithvi tatva ka, sukshma sharir vayu aur agni tatva ka, aur karan sharir aakash tatva ka banaa hota hai.

Meaning: The gross body is made of water and earth elements, the subtle body of air and fire elements, and the causal body of the space (aakash) element.

♦ 3. Davaa sthool sharir ko theek karti hai, Dua sukshma aur karan sharir ko theek karti hai — dono ka kaam alag hai.

Meaning: Medicine heals the physical body, while blessings (prayer/ divine grace) heal the subtle and causal bodies — each serves a different purpose.

♦ 4. Karan sharir ko recharge karne ke liye medicine kaam nahi aati — Divine Light, Param Light, Brahma tatva chahiye, jo sirf Param Pita Parmatma se milta hai.

Meaning: Medicine cannot recharge the causal body — only Divine Light, Supreme Light, and Brahma essence can, and these come only from the Supreme Father (Parmatma).

♦ 5. “Antarmukhi sada sukhi” — jo antarmukhi hai, wahi sachcha sukhi hai.

Meaning: “The one who turns inward is ever happy” — true and lasting happiness belongs only to those who look within.

♦ 6. Kam bolo, meetha bolo — jitni zaroorat ho utna hi logon se connection rakho, baaki maun rakho.

Meaning: Speak less, speak sweetly — connect with people only as much as necessary, and keep silence otherwise.

♦ 7. Mele-thele, bheed-bhaad mein mat jaao — wahan aatma “mailay” hoti hai, shuddh nahi.

Meaning: Avoid crowded fairs and gatherings — such places pollute the soul rather than purify it.

♦ 8. Tension wale kaam mat karo, tension wale logon se door raho — mann par aaghat seedha karan sharir ko damage karta hai.

Meaning: Avoid stressful work and stressful people — any shock to the mind directly damages the causal body.

♦ 9. Iccha matram avidya — iccha hi dukh ka mool karan hai. Doosron se apeksha chhod do, apni aatma se hi khush ho.

Meaning: “Desire itself is ignorance” — desire is the root cause of suffering. Drop all expectations from others and find happiness within your own soul.

♦ 10. Depression ka karan: baar-baar ek hi negative thought pakad kar baithna — isse aatma mein negative energy ikatthi hoti hai aur rog badhte hain.

Meaning: Depression is caused by clinging repeatedly to the same negative thought — this accumulates negative energy in the soul and intensifies disease.

♦ 11. Heart attack ka gehra karan — kai janmon mein logon ke dil dukhaye, unki bad-dua aur negative sankalp saath aaye, aur karan sharir par chot lagi.

Meaning: The deeper cause of heart attacks — hurting others’ hearts across many lifetimes invites their curses and negative thoughts, which wound the causal body.

♦ 12. Cancer jaise asaadhya rog sirf medicine se theek nahi hote — yeh karan sharir ke discharge hone ki nishaani hain; meditation hi ilaaj hai.

Meaning: Incurable illnesses like cancer cannot be healed by medicine alone — they signal a discharged causal body; their root-level healing comes through meditation, working alongside medical treatment.

♦ 13. Janm se jo rog bachchon mein dikhte hain, woh pichle janm ke damaged karan sharir ki wajah se aate hain.

Meaning: Diseases that appear in children from birth are carried over from a damaged causal body of a previous lifetime.

Note: This spiritual understanding is offered as a deeper context only. It must never delay or replace paediatric medical treatment. Any child with a birth condition or chronic illness must receive timely and ongoing qualified medical care.

♦ 14. Aatma swayam gyani, dayalu, shaanti swaroop hai —
“kasturi kundal base, mrig dhoondhe ban maahi” — bahar mat dhundo, andar dhundo.

Meaning: The soul itself is wise, compassionate, and peaceful by nature — “the musk is in the deer’s own navel, yet it searches the whole forest” — don’t search outside, search within.

♦ 15. Deh aur deh ke sarva sambandho ko bhulo, ek hi
Almighty Authority Power House se connection jodo.

Meaning: Forget the body and all bodily relationships — connect only with the one Almighty Authority, the Supreme Power House.
