ABOUT BAPUJI

Bapuji (full name: Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel, also lovingly called “Dadaji” by the younger generation) was born in 1956 in the small village of Akhaj in the Mehsana district of Gujarat. However, he spent his childhood in another village named Ambasan, also located in the Mehsana district.

In the early part of his life, he was a highly successful lawyer. Later, he devoted his life to realizing the supreme spiritual truth and bringing this divine knowledge forward for the welfare of humanity. Today, this supreme knowledge serves as a guiding light for true seekers to realize their ultimate destiny. It is a blessing of the highest divinity that the present time is witnessing the rise of this supreme spiritual knowledge, guiding souls on Earth to return to their original source.

Despite being raised in a very poor family and facing challenging circumstances, Bapuji had a deep desire to transform this sorrowful and suffering world into a better place. At the young age of six, he questioned God repeatedly, asking why God remained silent about the suffering of humanity. This intense longing to end human suffering eventually led him to attain the highest level of spirituality later in life.

Even as a child, Bapuji would spend hours alone in the fields, often neglecting his own comfort. Due to poverty, he would walk barefoot without shoes or sandals, frequently getting pricked by thorns. Many times, he would stay late in the fields and, on his way back home, encounter subtle world entities. These experiences sparked his interest in communicating with subtle world souls.

Bapuji was courageous from a young age, which helped him overcome many obstacles. Alongside his studies in chartered accountancy (CA), he gave tuition classes to support himself financially. Later, he completed his Bachelor of Law (LLB) degree and became a well-known lawyer in Ahmedabad.

In 1997, he established a spiritual institution called “Vishwa Parivartak Ishwariya Vidhyalay” in Chenpur, Ahmedabad, with the mission of transforming this mortal world, filled with suffering and disorder, into an eternal divine world of immortality. Smt. Sushma Tandon, lovingly known as “Maa,” worked alongside Bapuji in this grand divine mission.

To accomplish this mission, Bapuji worked tirelessly, dedicating all his resources to this divine purpose. During that time, he would deliver continuous spiritual discourses for up to 18 hours without rest. In these discourses, he explained the highest dimensions of divine knowledge, which he realized through deep meditation and divine vision in a state of superconsciousness. This knowledge goes beyond the imagination of the ordinary human mind.

Bapuji’s teachings cover a vast range of topics, including the types of celestial creators across different dimensions, the creation of our solar system, galaxy, and universe, and most importantly, the transcendental knowledge of the multiverse and realities beyond it. His knowledge is supremely profound and is intended for highly evolved seekers, referred to as “behad souls.” According to Bapuji, these behad souls will play a key role in transforming this mortal world into an eternal divine realm.

At present, Bapuji remains deeply engaged in intense meditation and samadhi for long hours. He does not meet anyone, as he is continuously immersed in his transcendental mission in a superconscious state.

PREFACE

“Gyan Daan Maha Daan”

(Sharing Knowledge is the Highest Charity)

— by Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel

This book carries one clear message. It is a message for the thirty-three crore devī-devta — the divine souls spoken of in the scriptures.

Bapuji says these souls are not far away in the sky. Most of them have taken human birth. Many of them are among us right now. But they have forgotten who they are. They are asleep in a deep sleep.

This book is a gentle call to wake up. It explains who these souls are, where they came from, and why they came to Earth. It explains the time we are living in. And it explains what these souls must now do.

The knowledge here comes only from the discourses of Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel. Nothing has been added. The words have only been made simple, so that any reader can understand them easily.

One thing must be clear from the start. Bapuji is not a prophet of doom. He has always spoken of positive change. He speaks of the coming time only so that we may wake in time and turn it toward peace.

REMEMBER, YOU ARE A DEITY

Read it in peace. Let it settle in your heart. The awakening it speaks of may be your own.

Who Are the 33 Crore Devi-Devta?

Our scriptures speak of thirty-three koti devi-devta. What does this mean?

The word koti has two meanings. One meaning is crore, a number. The other meaning is “type” or “kind.”

Bapuji makes one thing clear. For the thirty-three koti devi-devta, koti means crore — the number. Here it does not mean “types.” They are thirty-three crore souls, that is, three hundred and thirty million. This is because they were created as thirty-three crore souls in the great-great universe, which Bapuji calls G2, and sent here. (What G2 means, and how the whole of creation is arranged, is explained in the next chapter, “Where They Came From.”)

The meaning “type” fits a different phrase. When the scriptures say anant koti Brahmand, it means countless kinds of universes. But for the thirty-three crore devi-devta, we take the plain number: thirty-three crore.

These are not ordinary souls. They are divine souls. Once they lived in the higher worlds. They held great power.

The Gods the Scriptures Name

These are the very deities—the devtas—named throughout our scriptures. Their king was Indra. Among them were Varuna, lord of the waters; the Ashwini Kumaras, the divine twin healers; the twelve Adityas, the solar deities representing different aspects of the Sun; and the eleven Rudras, the powerful forms of Shiv. Also among them were the divine goddesses—Saraswati, the bestower of wisdom, and Lakshmi, the bestower of prosperity—as well as Surya Dev, the Sun-god. Each was connected with a particular higher realm and entrusted with a unique power and a distinct role in the cosmic order.

There were also the devtas who presided over the five elements—the deities of air, water, fire, earth, and space. In ancient times, people performed yajnas and havans, chanting their sacred mantras. Through these spiritual practices, the soul received subtle power and energy from these divine beings. But those very devtas have now all become human beings.

How Far They Have Fallen

Their fall has been great. The scriptures say that even Indra, the king of the thirty-three crore devtas, sank so low that he became like a worm of hell. He was cursed for his sins. If their king could fall so far, we can imagine the state of the rest. This is why they must now be woken.

Today most of these divine souls have become human beings. Some are in human form, which Bapuji calls sakari. Some are in subtle form, which he calls akari. Even the akari ones move about on the Earth. And most of them are here in Bharat.

The Soul Sits at the Forehead

Where is the soul? Bapuji says the soul rests at the centre of the forehead, between the eyebrows. This is the very place where, in the Sanatan tradition, the tilak is applied. The mark is placed there because the soul, the true self, sits there.

BAPUJI INSIGHT

“33 koti- koti mana crore, 33 prakar nahi, 33 crore, woh G2 se aaye the”

BAPUJI INSIGHT

“33 koti devi devta ki jo aatmayein hain, woh zyaadatar to manushya ban gayi, aur zyaadatar Bharat mein hi hain.”

“The souls of the thirty-three crore devi-devta have mostly become human beings, and most of them are in Bharat.”

Where They Came From

To understand these souls, we must look at the vastness of creation. Bapuji gives us a simple code for this.

Our Brahmand is but one small creation, like a single solar system. Countless Brahmands together form a galaxy. Countless galaxies together form a universe. And beyond the universe lie the vast Great Universes, rising one above another.

Bapuji describes these higher realms in a simple sequence — G1, the Great Universe; G2, the Great-Great Universe; and onward through G3, G4, up to G17. The thirty-three crore devi-devtas came down from G2. That descent occurred 198 crore years ago, meaning these devi-devtas have dwelled within this Brahmand ever since — for 198 crore years.

Why They Were Sent

At that time, our Brahmand had collapsed- the power of its Creator had diminished significantly and it was in this state that they were sent into this realm. It was the transition point when the first Parardh had ended and the second Parardh had begun. Our Brahmand lay in utter ruin — broken, powerless, drained of all strength. It looked like a shattered creation.

The creator of G2 witnessed this. He resolved to help. He created thirty-three crore souls, each carrying two kala of power, and sent them into our Brahmand to restore it.

These souls first arrived in Paramdham as formless light. Slowly, they took on subtle form. From there, they descended — first to Shìvpuri, then Vishnupuri, then Brahmapuri, and finally into Swarga-lok.

There, they began creating countless souls to heal and uplift this Brahmand. From within themselves, they brought forth many forms, and their creation multiplied endlessly. Over 198 crore years, their creation kept taking human birth.

What a Devta Is

A devta does not dwell in a body of five gross elements. Its true form is a subtle body made of three elements. In ancient times, devtas would descend to Earth wearing the guise of human beings, transforming their three-element body into a five-element human form — but only for as long as their task demanded.

They never took birth the way humans do. A single thought was enough to bring them down. And the moment their work was done, they returned to Swarga-Lok in an instant. Our scriptures are filled with such accounts.

Yet even a devta is not eternal. Bapuji teaches that a devta, too, has a fixed lifespan — one that ends within a single day of Brahma. And one day of Brahma equals eight arab sixty-four crore years on Earth. Power and long life, Bapuji reminds us, are not the same as liberation.

Their Way Home

There is a way back, too. When one of these souls attains knowledge and leaves the body, it does not linger near the Earth. It sees that Earth's atmosphere is crowded with countless souls, and it knows that staying here would trap it once again in the cycle of birth and death. So instead, it chooses to rise — and remain — in the higher realms.

In its formless light, the soul grows immensely powerful. It reaches the Paramdham of our Brahmand in a single moment. There, its awareness expands, and it rises further still, toward the formless world of the galaxy. With each rise, the fine layers upon it fall away, one by one. More and more of its own energy is released. And slowly, it comes to recognize its true creator.

Around the pure soul lies one very fine layer — one that holds the complete record of the soul across all its lives. Bapuji calls this covering the "might." When true knowledge dawns, this record is wiped clean, and the soul stands free.

BAPUJI INSIGHT

“Jo 33 koti devi devta hain, woh G2 se aaye — 198 crore saal pehle.”

“The thirty-three crore devi-devta came from G2 — 198 crore years ago.”

The Two Ages of the Sanatan Dharma

The scriptures speak of the Adi Sanatan devi-devta dharma — the eternal religion of the gods. Bapuji goes deeper. He explains that there are really two ancient creations, not one.

The Anadi Creation — This Brahmand's Own

The first is the Anadi Sanatan devi-devta dharma. This is this Brahmand's own original creation. It was made long, long ago, in Brahma's first parardh.

The Adi Shakti — the primordial energy of this Brahmand — brought it into being. Every Brahmand's creation begins with the union of Shiv and Shakti, the half-male, half-female form. Through Brahma, the first souls came forth. They lived in the third realm of this Brahmand i.e. Swarga lok, as devtas.

These devta souls went on creating. Creation gave rise to further creation, again and again. But with each step, their soul power diminished. In time, they grew weak. They fell. They entered the cycle of birth and death, and began to wander through the eighty-four lakh forms of life.

The Adi Creation — From G2

The second is the Adi Sanatan Devi-Devta Dharma. These are the thirty-three crore souls who came from G2 (great great universe), 198 crore years ago, during the transition between Brahma's first Parardh and second Parardh. They were sent to restore and rejuvenate this dilapidated Brahmand after the first Parardh had ended.

Thus, both are eternal devi-devta souls. The first belongs to this Brahmand itself and is the more ancient of the two. The second came from the Great-Great Universe (G2) to help restore this creation. In the course of time, both took human birth in this Brahmand, and today both are caught in the cycle of birth and death on Earth.

Bapuji says that only a behad soul—one who possesses behad gyan—can truly understand this profound truth. The ordinary human intellect cannot fully comprehend it.

How a Universe Is Made and Unmade

To understand our place, Bapuji explains how a whole Brahmand is made, and how it is unmade. It is a vast and beautiful pattern.

The Making of a World

From the formless emerges form. The formless takes shape as Shiv. Shiv brings forth Shakti. Together, Shiv and Shakti bring forth Vishnu. From the navel of Vishnu emerges Brahma. Everything in this realm of creation unfolds through the power of affirmation — Sankalp Shakti.

Brahma then creates, to expand this Brahmand further. Through the power of thought — Sankalp Shakti — he brings forth seven Param Purush. From them arise the seven upper worlds. From these higher worlds, creation descends step by step. Devtas come into being as the souls born from Param Purush lose power. From devtas, souls deteriorate further to become human beings in gross elements. And from human beings, some fall further still, becoming asuras.

Below the Earth plane lie seven lower worlds — the nether world, Patal Lok. In total, there are fourteen worlds. Rising above these fourteen realms are Brahmapuri, Vishnupuri, Shivpuri, and finally the formless Paramdham.

Three prime deities keep the wheel of time turning in this Brahmand: Brahma creates, Vishnu sustains, Shankar destroys. And behind them all stands the Adi Shakti of the Brahmand, who sets them each to their task.

It also makes the sequence of creation much clearer: Formless → Shiv → Shakti → Vishnu → Brahma → Seven Param Purush → Seven Higher Worlds → Devtas → Human beings → Asuras → Seven Lower Worlds

The Wheel of Time

Time moves through four ages: Satyug, Treta, Dwapar, and Kaliyug. Together, these four ages form one Chaturyug. Kaliyug alone lasts 4,32,000 years, and each preceding age is progressively longer. Satyug is the age of complete purity and light. By the time Kaliyug arrives, that light has greatly diminished.

At the end of every Chaturyug comes a small dissolution (Ardh Pralay). Shankar opens his third eye to destroy the negative creation. The asuras are consumed, while the virtuous souls pass into a new Satyug.

Seventy-one Chaturyugs make one Manvantar. At the end of each Manvantar comes the Jal Pralay—the great flood brought about by Vishnu. After it, a new Manu and Shatrupa begin creation once again.

Fourteen Manvantars make one day of Brahma. At the end of that day comes the Kalpa Pralay. The three worlds—Bhu-lok, Bhuvar-lok, and Swarga-lok—come to an end, along with the seven lower worlds (Patal Lok). Vishnu then enters the Sun and shines through it as twelve suns, until even the Earth is reduced to ashes. With the dawn of a new day of Brahma, creation begins anew. The Earth is formed again, the rains fall, the oceans return, and the cycle of creation starts once more.

The Age of a Universe

Brahma lives one hundred such years. That is the full age of one Brahmand — one solar system. One full day and night of Brahma together span 864 crore human years on Earth. Measured on this scale, Brahma's hundred-year lifespan extends so far beyond human experience that it is almost impossible for the human mind to comprehend.

When those hundred years end, the formless Supreme has spent almost all His power running the world. With the little that remains, He enters the sun and creates the kaal agni. He dissolves the very Brahmand that He once brought into existence. The one who creates is the one who dissolves.

Higher and Higher

And this is only one Brahmand. Our galaxy holds billions of Brahmands. Above the maker of one Brahmand stands Mahashiv, the Maha Brahm. In a single thought He makes countless Shivs, countless Brahmands — a whole galaxy. Above the galaxy is the universe, above that the great universe, above that the multiverse. Each higher world holds more kala, more power. And when their time ends, the Mahakaal i.e. Mahashiv draws countless Brahmands i.e. Shiv back into himself.

Bapuji says Lord Krishna carried sixteen kala — full and flawless, without a trace of violence ever seen in Him. Those who hold behad gyan call Ram and Krishna the avatars of the behad ka Baap — the Almighty Authority, the limitless.

The First Souls of a Multiverse

When an entire multiverse is first created, its creator brings forth the first soul in full power. From that first, most powerful soul emerge three supreme souls — akin to Brahma, Vishnu, and Shankar, but at the scale of the multiverse. From these three supreme souls emerge nine further supreme souls. These first nine supreme souls are called the Navratnas — the Nine Gems of creation. They are extraordinarily powerful, for they were formed while the creator still held full, undiminished power. The nine then make twenty-seven more, and these twenty-seven prime souls form the very boundary of the multiverse. Within this boundary, creation multiplies on and on.

The Sacred Number, Thirty-Three Crore

There is a sacred number that appears again and again throughout creation—thirty-three crore. At a very high level of creation, thirty-three crore Maha-Shivas and thirty-three crore Maha-Shaktis were brought forth. Together, they are known as the Aadi Anaadi Maha Devas and Maha Devis—the Great Gods and Great Goddesses. Through their power, the great galaxies came into being, each spanning many lakh light-years. Even in the higher Great Universes, thirty-three crore Maha-Shaktis preside over and sustain all of creation.

This distinction brings clarity to the vast structure of creation. The thirty-three crore devi-devtas described in this book are the souls who came from G2 into our Brahmand. They descended to Earth with the purpose of restoring and renewing this Brahmand. The other thirty-three crore—the Maha Devas and Maha Devis—belong to the much higher realms of creation.

The number is the same, but the souls belong to different levels of existence and possess different degrees of power. Thus, the concept of thirty-three crore deities appears at multiple levels throughout the hierarchy of creation within the Multiverse. Therefore, whenever the number thirty-three crore is mentioned, it is essential to understand which group of souls it refers to.

The Deathless Worlds

Here is the key to understanding this vast creation. Our Brahmand, and indeed this entire hundred-kala Multiverse, is the one that has become most degraded. From the very beginning of its creation, it has remained entangled in the recurring cycle of decline and destruction. It is the mortal realm, where time governs existence and death rules over the journey of souls.

The other Multiverses, however, are not like this. There is no death there. There is no day or night, and time, as we know it, does not exist. Those realms are composed of Param Tattva and Param Light—the supreme elements and the supreme light—fully charged with divine energy, sustaining creation in its eternal, divine form. Once such a creation comes into existence, it continues for an immeasurable span of time.

So, the mortal world is only one small, broken corner of a vast, deathless creation. This is why we must wake — to return from the world of death to the world that never dies.

BAPUJI INSIGHT

“Jo sarjan karta hai wahi visarjan karta hai”

“The one who creates is the very one who dissolves.”

Half in Heaven, Half on Earth

Where are these divine souls now? Bapuji explains their present status with clarity.

About half of them are still in Swarga-lok, the higher world, as devtas. They remain there in subtle form. The other half have become human beings on Earth.

In another explanation, Bapuji says that about sixty percent of these beings are now in human form, while the remaining forty percent continue to exist in subtle form. Among them are the Gandharvas, Kinnaras, and Yakshas. They too, he says, descended from the higher worlds.

Bapuji also describes a profound change in the higher realms. The devtas who still remain in the subtle world no longer possess their original soul power. According to his teachings, souls from outside this Brahmand—beings from other galaxies and universes—have now forcefully occupied Swarga-lok. As a result, the original devtas have been displaced, and even the order and harmony of Swarga-lok have changed.

Sixty-Six Crore Together

Count them together. Thirty-three crore goddesses and thirty-three crore gods make sixty-six crore souls in all.

If these sixty-six crore souls wake up, their power together would be very great. This is why Bapuji works to wake them.

BAPUJI INSIGHT

“33 karod devi aur 33 koti devta — 66 karod. Ye saakari bhi hain, aakari bhi hain.”

The Great Sleep

These souls carry great power inside. Yet they cannot use it. Why?

Because they are asleep. Bapuji calls it the sleep of Kumbhakaran — a very deep sleep. Their divine memory is lost.

They are caught in the bondage of karma. Life after life they have taken human birth on earth out of ignorance. In this long journey they forgot their own source. They forgot their creator.

The Covering on the Soul

There is a covering upon the soul. Bapuji calls it aavarana. It is the layer of karma that hides the soul's true identity.

Because of this covering, a powerful soul may appear to be an ordinary person. Some have fallen so far that they have become asuras. Yet even an asura is, at its core, a powerful soul. The covering conceals the soul's inner light—its original divine nature. Remove that covering, and even the greatest pleasure-seeker can become a yogi—a seeker of truth.

Now these deity souls, having taken birth in gross physical bodies, believe themselves to be nothing more than ordinary human beings. This is the great tragedy. It is the work of Maya—the cosmic illusion.

Our Vedas declare, Shivoham and Aham Brahmasmi—"I am Shiv; I am Brahm." They also proclaim Sarvoham—"I become all, and all are within me." The divine presence resides within every soul. But the sleeping soul has forgotten this eternal truth. The great awakening has not yet taken place. We remain ignorant of our true divine nature—who we are, where we came from, and why we came into this world.

BAPUJI INSIGHT

“Bade se bade bhogi bhi, aavaran hat jaaye to yogi ban jaayenge.”

“Even the greatest pleasure-seeker, once the covering falls away, becomes a yogi.”

Are the Devi-Devta Aliens?

Today, many people ask a question: Were our devi-devtas actually aliens? Did they come from other planets, or from other realms and dimensions of creation, either within this Brahmand or beyond it?

Bapuji offers a simple explanation. The word "alien" merely means one who comes from outside—from another realm or dimension of creation. In modern usage, researchers often use the term for any being believed to have come from beyond the Earth, whether from distant worlds or higher dimensions. Just as the word "God" has become a broad and commonly used term, so too has the word "alien."

So by that meaning, yes. Our devi-devta came from above, from other worlds. Even Lord Vishnu, who came from above, would be called an alien by such people. The word only means "one who came from beyond."

They came from higher planes, from other solar systems, from other galaxies, from universes, and from the great universes. Brahma came down from Brahmapuri. Vishnu came from Vishnupuri. Shiv and Shakti live in Shivpuri. Above all this is the Paramdham, the formless.

Countless Worlds

And this is only the story of one Brahmand. Our scriptures speak of anant koti Brahmand — countless creations. Souls would travel from one Brahmand to another.

There is an ancient account in the Devi Bhagwat. Once, Brahma became slightly proud of his position as the Creator of this Brahmand. To humble him, the Mahadevi seated him in her Viman and revealed the vastness of creation. She showed him countless Brahmas, countless Vishnus, and countless Mahadevs. In doing so, she taught him, "You are but one among countless others. Creation is far greater than you can imagine." According to Bapuji's explanation, this account describes the grandeur of just one galaxy.

How They Travelled

How did they cross such distances? Bapuji says they did not travel as we do. They moved at the speed of param prakash — supreme light, far beyond the speed of ordinary light. With a single thought they reached from one galaxy to another.

Their viman did not run on ordinary fuel. It ran on the energy of param tattva, the supreme element, and param agni, the supreme fire. This is how the divine souls moved freely through the vastness of creation.

This movement between different realms of creation still continues. The UFOs that modern science occasionally encounters are only a small glimpse of a much larger reality. Bapuji says that even today, crafts from other worlds visit the Earth. Many do not return immediately, because the subtle worlds have their own laws and conditions of entry—just as nations on Earth require a visa before allowing someone to enter. According to Bapuji, the devi-devtas who came long ago and the beings who continue to arrive today all belong to the same vast cosmic family.

BAPUJI INSIGHT

“Alien maana bahar se aaye hue log. Hamare devi-devta bhi to upar se aate the.”

“Alien means those who came from outside. And our devi-devta too used to come from above.”

Why They Came Down Again

There is a recent chapter in this story. Bapuji shares it too.

When the Ram Mandir was inaugurated, divine souls came down to Earth. They came to protect Sanatan Dharma. They descended from Vishnupuri, from Brahmapuri, and from other higher realms.

But then they saw the world as it is today. They found heavy negativity filling Earth's atmosphere. They saw pain and sorrow everywhere — on Earth, and even in the subtle layers close to it.

Seeing this, most of them returned to the higher realms. They went back to the Himalayas, or to Gyanganj. They feared that if they stayed in this atmosphere, they too might turn negative and become fallen souls.

So these divine souls now wait in the higher realms, ready to help. But the negative atmosphere holds them back. This is why the atmosphere itself must change first.

BAPUJI INSIGHT

“Ram Mandir ke udghaatan par ye divya aatmayein Sanatan Dharm ko bachaane ke liye neeche aayi thi.”

“At the inauguration of the Ram Mandir, these divine souls came down to protect Sanatan Dharm.”

The End Times Across All Faiths

Every faith speaks of a final time. Bapuji points this out with clarity and sound reasoning.

The Hindus speak of the Kalki Avatar. Muslims speak of Qayamat—the Day of Judgment. Christians speak of Judgment Day. Each faith expresses it in its own language, yet all point to the same reality. It is a time of dharmaglani—the great decline of righteousness.

Lord Krishna speaks of this in the Bhagavad Gita. He declares that whenever righteousness declines and unrighteousness prevails, He manifests Himself to protect the devtas, destroy the asuras, and restore dharm.

Look at the world today. Adharma – Unlawful Act - is being carried out in the name of dharm. There are multiplicity of religions, sects, and beliefs, and all are divided by conflict and hostility. The atmosphere has become tamo-pradhan—dense, dark, and dominated by negativity. According to Bapuji's teachings, this has affected even the five elements, making them heavy and impure. As a result, natural calamities have become more frequent and more severe.

A Special Kaliyug

People say, “This always happens in Kaliyug.” That is true. But Bapuji says this is a special Kaliyug. Not every Kaliyug is like this one. The situation today is so alarming that no one realises its impact on the whole of creation. This is the time when we stand near the great dissolution.

Look at the numbers. In the year 1804, about two hundred years ago, there were only one hundred crore people on Earth. Today there are more than eight hundred crore. Eight times more, in about two hundred years. Where did all these souls come from? They came from other Brahmands, other galaxies, other universes. They have all gathered here.

BAPUJI INSIGHT

“Yada yada hi dharmasya glanir bhavati Bharata — jab jab dharmglani ka samay aata hai, tab tab main aata hoon, asuron ka vinash karta hoon aur devtaon ki raksha karta hoon.”

“Whenever righteousness declines, O Bharata — then I come, I destroy the asuras, and I protect the devtas.”

What Is Coming: 2025 to 2029

Bapuji speaks openly about the years ahead. He does this not to frighten, but to warn in time.

He has said that Bharat will face a civil war. It has already begun in a small way, and it may grow between 2025 and 2029. Abroad, there will be a Third World War. In that war, atomic bombs may be used.

How the Destruction Would Unfold

Atomic bombs have been made, but not yet exploded. At present there are enough atom bombs to destroy the Earth a thousand times. And more are still being made.

If they explode, the heat will be terrible. All the ice will melt into water. This is the jal pralay, the great flood. Then the heat will grow more, and the oceans themselves will dry up. The water will turn to vapour in the air.

Then the hydrogen in the air will keep rising and rising. A single spark will set everything ablaze. This will be the great fire — the final blaze that engulfs every gross element. Only the soul will remain. The world of the five gross elements will burn to ashes. Nothing gross will be left in this creation.

There Is Still Time

But nothing is fixed. Bapuji says there is still a small window of opportunity. There are about two years in which this great destruction can be averted. If souls awaken to the truth by 2027 and spread the vibrations of Param Shanti, this great destruction can be prevented. But if they do not awaken within this period, then, according to Bapuji, the effects of destruction will begin to manifest from 2029. People will directly experience its impact through the five elements, and the signs of destruction will become increasingly evident throughout creation.

Bapuji is clear about one thing. He has never favoured destruction. When his first video on Bharat's future came out, many people wrote, "Why are you spreading negative vibrations?" But that was only a message. Even long ago, when people feared the end in December 2012, he made a video saying, "Nothing will happen. Do not worry." He has always spoken of positive change.

Corona came as a lesson. It shook the world for a while. But then people went back to sleep. Now the clouds of trouble are gathering again.

And here is a hidden truth. Bapuji says that the dharmapitas—the founders of the world's major religions—are in conflict with one another in the subtle world. The subtle world influences the gross world. According to his teachings, it is this conflict that is creating the atmosphere of war on Earth. But this struggle will not continue forever. In the end, even they will grow weary of conflict. They too will turn to the Almighty and pray for peace.

There is a warning here too. Bapuji says that almost all the aliens now in the Earth's atmosphere have turned negative. They came here as good souls, but the heavy atmosphere changed them. These negative souls can enter the minds of the leaders who hold the nuclear weapons to trigger the third world war. That is how the third world war could be set off — if we do not wake in time and change the atmosphere first.

“2027 tak sab jaag jaayein aur param shanti ke vibration phaila dein, to ye vinash ruk sakta hai.”

“If all wake by 2027 and spread the vibrations of Param Shanti, this destruction can be stopped.”

The Time to Wake

This is the time. This is the hour of the great awakening. Bapuji says it clearly.

The Highest Supreme Father, the Almighty Authority, has held back time for a while. He has temporarily delayed the destruction brought about by the collective karma and consciousness of souls. He has done this for His behad children—the eternal, powerful souls now entangled in this earthly world—so that they may awaken before it is too late.

There are two ways to awaken the sleeping souls. One way is to awaken now, through our own effort. The other way is to be forced awake later, when nature itself will awaken the soul through the impact of destruction.

If these souls do not awaken on their own, the coming destruction will awaken them. Wars and great calamities will become the alarm. Suffering will force their eyes to open.

But it is far better to awaken now. It is better to make a small effort today, become soul-conscious, and receive this knowledge before time compels us to learn it through suffering.

Know Who You Are

The message to these souls is simple. Know who you are.

Knowledge is the true expression of a soul's power. Only through knowledge does a soul come to know its own true nature. Bapuji says that a soul can recognise itself only through Gyan—the supreme spiritual knowledge given by the Supreme Father.

From the depths of your being, you must be able to say: "I am a supreme soul. I have come from far beyond this world to transform this negative creation. That is why I came to Earth. I did not come to become trapped in this mortal world. I came to become free—to attain Jeevan Mukti and to help free all souls who are trapped."

Lord Krishna teaches this in the Bhagavad Gita. He says that the Almighty cannot be realised through rituals and meditation alone. He is attained through knowledge. And the soul established in true knowledge is especially dear to Him.

Therefore, first imbibe Atma-Gyan—the knowledge of the soul. Then become established in Atma-Swaroop, the state of soul-consciousness. Live as the soul, not as the body.

As long as you believe you are merely an ordinary human being, your true power remains hidden. The truth is that you are far more than you think you are. And here is a comforting truth: knowledge is the medicine for every sorrow. The day you truly know yourself, your inner power begins to awaken, and that awakened power gradually dissolves all sorrow.

BAPUJI INSIGHT

“Main japa-tapa aur dhyaan-yog se nahi milta. Main gyan se milta boon. Aur gyani aatma mujhe vishesh priya hai.”

“I am not found through ritual and meditation alone. I am found through knowledge. And the soul of knowledge is especially dear to me.”

The Power of Thought

How can a few souls change the whole world? The answer is the power of Thought (Sankalp shakti).

Bapuji explains that thought, or sankalp, is a vibration. And a vibration can travel very far.

Here is a simple illustration. From Earth, human beings control spacecraft on Mars by sending electromagnetic signals. The spacecraft receives those signals and obeys the commands. Even the distant Voyager spacecraft still responds to signals sent from Earth. This shows that our signals can travel across the vastness of space.

Now think about creation itself. According to Bapuji's teachings, Brahma sat in Brahmapuri and expanded the whole creation through Sankalp Shakti—the power of divine thought. Through this power, he created the seven Param Purush, and from them arose the seven higher worlds. Creation unfolded through the power of thought. Imagine, then, the immense power contained within a single thought.

How the Atmosphere Shapes Us

Thought becomes vibration. Vibration shapes the ether element which cause movement in air. From the air, the other elements are shaped too. So, the whole atmosphere is built by thought.

And the atmosphere shapes the way people think i.e. collective consciousness of souls makes the atmosphere of a dimension of a creation. In Satyug the atmosphere was light and pure, thus thought of souls were pure. As the ages passed, the atmosphere grew heavy. In Kaliyug it became tamo-pradhan, full of darkness. So people's thoughts became dark too.

The ancient saying is true: "As the food, so is the mind; as the water, so is the speech." Change the atmosphere, and the thoughts of all begin to change. And a single elevated thought has the power to dissolve the suffering of many lifetimes.

How to remain awake: The Practice

So how does a soul wake? Bapuji gives clear, gentle guidance. A lamp cannot light itself without a flame. First you must take power from a higher source may be called as supreme creator.

Take Power With Love

Remember the Almighty in His highest form, in the highest Paramdham, where is His permanent abode. Bapuji calls this remembering the vichitra (formless) within the chitra (form). The chitra is His form. The vichitra is the soul-point in His forehead, where the real power is emanating. A soul should take power from the highest source, the Almighty Authority.

But power comes only through love. This is the heart of supreme knowledge. Love itself is power. If there is no love, no power will come, and the soul cannot establish in its true form. So remember Him as your own — the behad Great-Great-Grandfather. Then love will flow, and with love, power will pour into soul. You need behad ka pyaar, behad ka gyan, behad ka vairag — boundless love, boundless knowledge, boundless detachment.

Be a Constant Yogi all the time

According to Bapuji, this is possible only for a yogi who remembers the Supreme Father at every moment. Why? Because if you practise yoga for half an hour and then spend time in careless conversation with a body-conscious person, the spiritual power gained through yoga begins to diminish. The power you have accumulated is drawn away, while the heaviness of body-consciousness influences your own mind. Therefore, become a Nirantar Karma Yogi—one who remembers the Highest Supreme Father in every moment, while performing every action.

Keep your connection with your Creator, the Supreme Father, completely pure—free from every desire. Let there be only you and the Supreme Father. The moment any desire or worldly thought comes between you and Him, that connection is disturbed.

Bapuji says that Maya is extremely powerful. If, during meditation, a person sees forms or visions, it means another soul is projecting those experiences. A true Gyani does not seek or dwell on visions. He sees only the soul—the Atma-Swaroop, the soul's true form.

The Formless Stage Comes Last

Do not try to attain the formless state from the very beginning. Many people attempt to enter direct formless meditation (yog) and become discouraged when they fail. According to Bapuji, the formless state is attained only at the final stage of the spiritual journey.

First become Bhavateet—go beyond the mind and its feelings. Then become Gunateet—rise beyond the three qualities (gunas) of Prakriti (nature). Next become Karmateet—go beyond the bondage of karma. Finally, at the last moment, the soul leaves the body and rests in its own true nature—the formless, pure state of supreme light.

So for now, do something simpler. While in the body, feel the light form, the avyakt form. Feel that the whole body is light. This is experienced far more quickly.

Stay a Householder

To realise your true divine nature, you do not need to leave your home and retreat to a forest. Lord Krishna teaches in the Bhagavad Gita that the life of a householder is the highest ashram, where one can serve humanity while also attaining the highest spiritual realisation.

According to Bapuji, the truly powerful souls are householders. Living in their own homes, they awaken, gain true knowledge, and become Karma Yogis. The path is not to reject the world, but to live in it with awareness. Maintain a balance—fulfil your worldly responsibilities while remaining deeply connected to the Divine.

BAPUJI INSIGHT

BAPUJI INSIGHT

“Chitra mein vichitra ko yaad karoge to charitravan ban jaoge.”

“Remember the soul-point within the form, and you will become full of virtue.”

Spread Param Shanti

Once a soul has power, the work of transformation begins. Always establish yourself in atma-swaroop. Then spread the vibrations of Param Shanti.

There is a beautiful reason why atma-swaroop transforms creation. It is because the soul's own original nature is Param Shanti — Supreme Peace. When a soul is first created, in its formless state, its very nature is Param Shant — supreme peace, supreme bliss.

So when one establishes in pure soul-consciousness, in atma-swaroop, Param Shanti automatically spreads all around, into the surrounding atmosphere. At that moment, the soul is simply sharing its own true power and nature.

The Cleaning Within

See what happens inside you first. The vibration of Param Shanti first fills your aura and cleans it. Then it cleans the subtle body. Then it reaches the causal body — the karan sharir.

The causal body holds the record of many lifetimes, good and bad. As the supreme elements enter, that whole record is cleaned. This is how the soul becomes karmateet — free of the all account of karma. Then it becomes bhavateet, beyond mind and feeling, and gunateet, beyond the three qualities of nature.

The Cascade of Peace

Then the vibration begins to spread outward. It first fills your home with peace. From there, it extends about 200 kilometres in every direction, then 500 kilometres, and then 1,000 kilometres.

It rises through Bhu-lok, then Bhuvar-lok, where the Gandharvas and Kinnaras dwell, then to Swarga-lok, then Mahalok, and higher still, up to Paramdham. At the same time, it also reaches the seven Patal Lokas below, where the asuras reside. According to Bapuji, even their tendencies begin to change.

The vibration does not stop there. It spreads throughout the entire Brahmand, then across the galaxy, then the Universe, and finally, step by step, throughout the entire Multiverse.

As Param Shanti spreads, the vibrations of destruction gradually begin to fade. The five elements slowly transform from tamo-pradhan to sato-pradhan. They become pure, gentle, and life-giving. In time, they are transformed into Param Tattva—the supreme elements. Then even Param Light begins to descend.

BAPUJI INSIGHT

“Aatma ka mool swabhav hi param shant swaroop hai.”

“The soul’s very own original nature is the form of supreme peace.”

Make Your Home a Lighthouse

The vibration of Param Shanti first brings peace to your own soul. Everything begins there.

Then let Param Shanti fill your home. This is Swa Parivartan—self-transformation comes first. Change yourself, and then your home.

If crores of souls awaken in Bharat, then crores of homes will become lighthouses of peace. And when that happens, the whole of Bharat will become a lighthouse for the entire world.

Become a Fire Brigade

Bapuji gives a powerful picture. He says that a difficult time is approaching. Many souls will be burning in pain and anguish. Therefore, the behad souls—the children of the Almighty—must become like a fire brigade, always ready to extinguish the fire of suffering by spreading Param Shanti. If you cannot bring peace to a soul that is burning with pain, its suffering may affect you as well.

Make your home a lighthouse—a house of refuge and peace. Then any soul burdened by suffering that enters your home will immediately experience the vibration of Param Shanti. According to Bapuji, a weak soul may attain Mukti by dissolving into the power of Param Shanti, thereby bringing its journey to an end. A powerful soul, carrying a higher degree of spiritual power, may be purified and ascend to a higher realm of existence, attaining Jeevan Mukti. In this way, your home itself becomes like a Paramdham—a place that offers both Mukti and Jeevan Mukti.

Bapuji says that such lighthouse homes will arise not only in Bharat but also in many foreign lands, wherever the behad children are present. They too will establish homes filled with light and peace, becoming centres that spread the blessings of Param Shanti.

The Rule of the Heart

And here is a law of the heart. Help transform every soul. Never seek revenge. Do not focus on anyone's weaknesses. If you see a weakness, strengthen it with your own spiritual power. Overcome their negativity with your positivity. Respond to hatred with peace, and to anger with compassion. In this way, even an enemy can become a friend.

BAPUJI INSIGHT

“Apne ghar ko lighthouse banana hai. Hamein sabko badalna hai — badla nahi lena hai.”

“We must make our home a lighthouse. We must change everyone — not take revenge.”

Their Collective Power

When these behad souls awaken, their collective power is beyond measure. Bapuji explains who these souls are.

Among all divine souls are souls of the highest order. There are nine lakh behad souls—nine lakh Purush (male energy) and nine lakh Prakruti (female energy). Within them are even more exalted groups of special-quality souls: the sixteen thousand, the one thousand and eight, and the one hundred and eight.

According to Bapuji, these behad souls possess behad kala—spiritual power of an infinite order. When they awaken, the vibration of their Sankalp extends beyond the limits of this Brahmand. It reaches even the behad-kala Brahmands, crossing every boundary of this vast creation.

What Kala Means

Kala means power or capacity. Just as electrical power is measured in watts, the spiritual power of a soul is measured in kala.

According to Bapuji's teachings, a Brahmand possesses one to four kala. A galaxy possesses eight to twelve kala. A Universe possesses sixteen to twenty kala. A Great Universe possesses twenty to twenty-five kala. A Multiverse possesses one hundred kala. Beyond this are realms of two hundred kala, five hundred kala, and finally behad kala—the limitless degree of spiritual power.

On Earth today, souls of every degree are present—those with half a kala, one kala, two kala, five kala, ten kala, twenty-five kala, and even higher. They live among us in human form, while countless others exist in subtle form. As these divine souls awaken, their Sankalp Shakti develops step by step, and the reach of their spiritual vibrations expands farther and farther.

There is also a supreme stage in this awakening. When the one hundred and eight, the one thousand and eight, the sixteen thousand, and the nine lakh behad souls awaken together, the nine lakh attain the state of Nisankalp—complete freedom from thought. Then the whole world begins to grow still. Desires gradually fade. Attachments fall away. Every soul is given the opportunity to exhaust its accumulated karma. This is the profound silence that comes before the dawn of a new world.

BAPUJI INSIGHT

“Behad ki aatma mein behad ki kala ka power hai. Unke sankalp behad ki kala ke Brahmand tak jaayenge.”

“The behad soul carries the power of behad kala. Their thoughts will reach up to the behad-kala Brahmands.”

The Condition for the Blessing

Bapuji explains one truth very clearly. Every blessing bears fruit only when its conditions are fulfilled.

The condition is Vishwa Kalyan—the welfare of the whole world. A soul should dedicate at least ten percent of its time, mind, and wealth to the welfare of all humanity.

He gives a simple example. On the path of bhakti, sincere devotees often offer ten percent of their income to the temple. Because of such devotion, temples have been built and sustained in villages everywhere. In the same way, Bapuji says that a person who has received true spiritual knowledge should dedicate at least ten percent—and, if possible, even more—of their body, mind, and wealth to the divine work of transforming this negative creation.

According to Bapuji, one who gives less than ten percent remains behind even the standard set by the path of bhakti.

A Gift Is Not a Blessing

Here Bapuji makes an important distinction. He may grant a soul a gift, and that gift remains with the soul. But the blessing of the Supreme Father is different. A blessing bears fruit only for the soul that serves the welfare of the world. For one who does not serve, the blessing does not bear fruit. Bapuji compares this to Karna, whose blessings ultimately did not protect him when he needed them most.

Bapuji also speaks of a further principle. Before a soul can enter the Behad Viman, it must pass through a powerful sphere of behad-kala energy. A soul that has done nothing for the welfare of the world cannot pass through that sphere. According to Bapuji's teachings, such a soul is dissolved there, and its individual existence comes to an end. This state is known as Mukti for a behad soul. It attains Mukti, but not Jeevan Mukti. Thus, even a behad soul, if it has made no contribution to the welfare of the world, is set free at that stage rather than being carried onward into the Behad Viman.

The Way to Rise

The Bhagavad Gita teaches that one who lives only for oneself lives no better than an animal. Therefore, become a Nishkam Karma Yogi—one who acts without selfish desire. Set a high purpose for your life: transform the world through self-transformation.

According to Bapuji, there are different degrees of contribution to world transformation. To be counted among those who serve the world, dedicate at least ten percent of your time, mind, and wealth. To become a master of the Behad world, dedicate sixty percent or more. Become a true Tyagi and Tapasvi. The one hundred and eight are those who surrender everything—time, mind, wealth, bodily relationships, and even their very breath—for the welfare of all. Without sacrifice and tapasya, nothing great can be attained. This law is the same for everyone.

Bapuji also points out a simple truth. Those who contribute the least often make the most noise, asking, "What will happen to me during the coming war or the great destruction?" But those who quietly dedicate themselves to the work do not seek attention. Therefore, do not create fear, noise, or disturbance. Instead, silently contribute to the divine work of transforming this creation.

BAPUJI INSIGHT

“Bina tyaag aur tapasya kuch nahi milne wala. Sabke liye kaayda ek samaan hai. Law is law.”

“Without sacrifice and penance, nothing is received. The rule is the same for all. Law is law.”

Kaal Agni — Who Will Be Saved

Bapuji speaks of a final fire that will engulf the entire gross world of creation. According to his teachings, as the end of 2029 approaches, the Kaal Agni of one hundred kala will draw near. It is an immensely powerful fire element with the capacity to consume the entire gross creation within this Multiverse.

According to Bapuji, this is not an act of personal choice. In the subtle order of creation, the one who creates is also the one who dissolves. Even the ruler of the Multiverse does not have the power to stop this process. At the appointed time, the Grandfather of the Multiverse manifests this cosmic fire and draws the entire Multiverse back into Himself. Every soul, up to the level of one hundred kala, is drawn back into its source.

Why does He do this? According to Bapuji, the Grandfather of this multiverse observes that the other Multiverses remained pure, eternal, and unchanged, while this one continued to decline. Again and again, it became a world of the five elements, a realm governed by time and death, even after each new creation. Therefore, He decided not to preserve it any longer. Instead, He would absorb it back into Himself and bring its cycle to an end.

The Weakened Souls

Now remember the thirty-three crore souls. They came with two kala of power. But over 198 crore years they have lost much of it. Some have only one percent of their power left. Some have only half a percent.

So, think. In a fire of one hundred kala, what will happen to souls of half a kala or one kala? They cannot stand it. They will be dissolved into it. Souls from other worlds — twenty-five kala, forty kala — all below one hundred kala will be dissolved. Only the nine lakh behad souls, who carry behad-kala power, will remain. This was the plan from the very beginning.

The Helpline

But, according to Bapuji, there is a way to be saved. A soul must attain Atma-Gyan and Brahm-Gyan, and come to know the Almighty Authority. Through this knowledge, it establishes a direct connection with Him and draws spiritual power directly from the Supreme Father.

Bapuji also gives hopeful news for those who support the spread of the Supreme Father's knowledge. A soul that helps in Gyan-Daan and works with the vision of world welfare receives special grace. Even if such a soul is below the level of one hundred kala, and even if it is not a behad soul, it receives divine help at the final hour, when the Grandfather of the Multiverse winds up creation.

According to Bapuji's teachings, such a soul does not have to suffer the burning of the Kaal Agni. It is granted one hundred kala of power, while a soul that actively supports this divine mission receives two hundred kala. Even if that soul ultimately attains Mukti, it is freed gently, without passing through the suffering of the cosmic fire. Bapuji says this is the fruit of selfless service in helping to spread the knowledge of the Supreme Father.

The behad soul then attains Jeevan Mukti and goes on to participate in the creation of the new world. Souls of lower spiritual power attain Mukti—a peaceful release from this negative creation. Therefore, Bapuji says that everyone should remember the Almighty in His original form and remember Him with love.

“Those who are supporters also receive a helpline — they will not have to burn in the kaal agni.”

How Bharat Will Be Saved

Now comes a question every heart in Bharat asks. Will Bharat be saved?

Bapuji answers with hope. Abroad, the situation is grave. The nations that have built atomic bombs and hydrogen bombs will face the fire of their own weapons. Those weapons were made under the influence of the destructive aliens and subtle-world entities.

A Land That Stays at Peace

But Bharat can be saved. If Bharat fills with Param Shanti, its atmosphere changes. Even if atomic bombs explode abroad, their negative reaction will not reach Bharat. No one will attack Bharat. Bharat will stay neutral. It will stay at peace. It will not go into the war.

When the civil war begins, unrest will spread, and people will cry out for peace. Peace, peace, they will beg. In the old days the rishis performed the great yajna for the peace of the world. Now that peace will come through the vibrations of Param Shanti.

The souls who become instruments of this peace, and who spread Param Shanti throughout Bharat, will earn a great spiritual fortune. To bring peace to a world burdened by suffering is among the rarest and highest blessings a soul can receive.

Even If the Storm Comes

Even if destruction does come, and some souls awaken while others do not, there is still hope. The souls who have first undergone Swa Parivartan, and whose homes have become lighthouses of Param Light, can continue to help. When suffering souls come to such a home, they experience calm and receive the vibrations of Param Shanti. According to Bapuji, such a home becomes a place that offers Mukti and Jeevan Mukti.

The path remains the same, whatever the future may bring. First, transform yourself. Then transform your home. Then Bharat. And finally, if possible, the whole world.

According to Bapuji, if Param Shanti spreads quickly enough, and the Sanatani souls of Bharat awaken and radiate its vibrations across the Earth, even a Third World War can be prevented.

“Atomic bombs will explode abroad, but we will save Bharat. Bharat will stay neutral, it will stay at peace.”

Bharat Will Become the World Teacher

Bapuji paints a radiant picture of the time beyond the storm. He says that Bharat will once again become the Vishwa Guru—the spiritual guide of the whole world. Nations from every corner of the Earth will look to Bharat for wisdom, direction, and guidance.

Bharat will again become the Golden Bird. Then it will shine even brighter, like a diamond. Bapuji calls this the Diamond Age of Bharat. The nation will advance rapidly in every sphere—wealth, science, knowledge, and every field of human endeavour. Its progress will astonish the world.

How will this happen? According to Bapuji, the souls in the subtle world will play a vital role. The thirty-three crore devi-devtas, both Sakari (in physical form) and Akari (in subtle form), will channel their spiritual power into Bharat. They will bring the power of the subtle world down upon the land of Bharat, helping to bring about this great transformation.

A Land of Peace

Then Bharat's atmosphere will change. It will fill with param tattva, with param light, with Param Shanti. Anyone who even looks at the map of Bharat will feel peace.

The whole world will turn its eyes to Bharat. People will long to come here, for even one moment of peace. Bharat will not need to fight anyone. It will give the world the path of peace, and the path of mukti and jeevan mukti.

Those inside Bharat who once did wrong — the corrupt, the cruel — will face their karma and slowly change. As the atmosphere turns pure, their minds will turn too. And people will remember who they are. They will say, “Yes, we are Sanatani. We are the eternal ones — Adi and Anadi.” They will unite as the descendants of the eternal Sanatan devi-devta dharma.

According to Bapuji, many of these divine souls took birth in other faiths because of their karma. Some were born into different religions, while others embraced another faith later in life. Yet, he says, at their core they remain the same devi-devta souls. As the spiritual atmosphere changes and their original sanskars (inner spiritual impressions) awaken, they naturally feel drawn back to their root Sanatan Dharma. According to Bapuji, this process has already begun, and many souls are returning to the Sanatan path. The reverse also happens. Some souls born into Hindu families feel drawn to other faiths and follow those paths. According to Bapuji, this movement from one faith to another is part of the great cosmic play.

And as the great change comes, the divine souls return home. The nine lakh behad souls gradually move from human form to subtle form to formless. They take their seats in the behad viman and prepare to go to the behad Paramdham (highest supreme abode of Almighty). The thirty-three crore devi-devta each rise to their own plane of power — some to one kala, some to twenty-one, some to two hundred or three hundred kala. Each returns to its own place. And the whole multiverse slowly turns into param tattva.

But it all begins from Bharat. The spark starts here. From Bharat it spreads to the world, then to the whole Brahmand, and onward to the whole multiverse. And the rule of the eternal Sanatan devi-devta dharma will be established in Bharat.

“Bharat vishwa guru banega. Bharat sone ki chidiya banega. Aadi Sanatan devi-devta dharm ka raajya Bharat mein sthaapit hoga.”

“Bharat will become the world teacher. Bharat will become the golden bird. The rule of the eternal Sanatan devi-devta dharma will be established in Bharat.”

The Sanatan Truth

At the end we come to one deep question. What is Sanatan?

Sanatan means the imperishable. Bapuji says it simply: the founder of Sanatan is that which never perishes. That which is destroyed cannot be Sanatan. The very meaning of Sanatan is avinaashi — the imperishable, eternal.

Before any religion was established on Earth, there was one eternal religion. That is Sanatan Dharma. The eternal devi-devta dharma is the religion of this Brahmand, present from the very beginning of this creation.

Why the Faiths Turned Against It

Bapuji describes what he sees as a painful chapter in human history. He teaches that many faiths and sects on Earth were established by souls who came from outside this Brahmand. After their arrival, they came under the influence of Shukracharya, the guru of the asuras.

According to Bapuji, Shukracharya has always stood in opposition to Adi Sanatan Dharma. Because of his influence, these outside souls developed destructive tendencies and oppose the Sanatan path. As a result, they came into conflict with the Adi Sanatani souls.

Bapuji further explains that the negative atmosphere of the world itself influences souls against Sanatan Dharma. It fills them with conflict, anger, and destructive tendencies, causing them to behave like asuras. However, he says that when the world is filled with the vibrations of Param Shanti, these souls too will gradually undergo transformation.

The Definition of Dharma Will Change

Today, many people understand Dharma as the worship of Brahma, Vishnu, Shankar, and the many Devi-Devtas and Avatars. But Bapuji says this understanding will change.

According to him, a time will come when people will worship the One Eternal Brahm, and the knowledge of Brahm will awaken in humanity. As this realization spreads, the divisions created by separate religions will gradually disappear. Then only the One Eternal, Complete Brahm known as Behad Brahm will remain at the centre of spiritual life. Bapuji says that this alone is Sanatan.

The True Sanatan

According to Bapuji, the Hindu scriptures describe the knowledge of a single Brahmand. They explain the creation and dissolution of one cosmic system. He regards this as true and sacred knowledge. Behad Gyan, however, goes much further. It reveals the greater reality of the galaxy, the universe, the Great Universe, and ultimately the entire Multiverse.

Bapuji further teaches that even Brahm is not eternal in the absolute sense. Even Maha Brahm and Param Maha Brahm eventually undergo dissolution. Beyond them lies the highest reality—the Behad-Kala Brahmand. This is the eternal and imperishable Paramdham, where there is neither creation nor dissolution. Once it exists, it remains forever.

According to Bapuji, this is the true meaning of "Satyam Dharma Sanatanam." The real Sanatan is the Behad—the limitless and eternal reality that never perishes. And its eternal nature is filled with the highest peace, Param Shanti itself.

BAPUJI INSIGHT

“Sanatan ka matlab hi avinaashi. Maha Sanatan maana behad ka Param Maha Brahm hi Sanatan hai.”

“The very meaning of Sanatan is the imperishable. The great Sanatan means the Supreme Great Brahm of the behad — that alone is Sanatan.”

The Message, in Short

This is the message for the thirty-three crore devi-devta. You are not an ordinary human. Inside you sleeps a divine soul, full of power.

Wake up. Know who you are. Take power from the Father, with love. Rest in your soul-form. Spread the vibrations of Param Shanti. Make your home a lighthouse. Become a fire brigade for a burning world.

Do this from love, for the welfare of all. Then the coming storm can be turned toward peace. Bharat will rise as the world teacher, and this mortal world will move, in peace, toward the immortal world.

Self-change first. Then world-change. The time is now.

BAPUJI INSIGHT

“Swa parivartan se vishwa parivartan — param shanti se sabko bhar do.”

“From self-change to world-change — fill everyone with Param Shanti.”

BAPUJI INSIGHTS

The insights below appear in Bapuji's own words throughout this book. They are gathered here in one place, for slow reading and quiet reflection.

BAPUJI INSIGHT

"33 koti- koti mana crore, 33 prakar nahi, 33 crore, woh G2 se aaye the"

"Thirty-three koti — koti means crore, we do not take it as thirty-three types. They are thirty-three crore, and they came from G2."

BAPUJI INSIGHT

"33 koti devi devta ki jo aatmayein hain, woh zyaadatar to manushya ban gayi, aur zyaadatar Bharat mein hi hain."

"The souls of the thirty-three crore devi-devta have mostly become human beings, and most of them are in Bharat."

BAPUJI INSIGHT

"Jo 33 koti devi devta hain, woh G2 se aaye — 198 crore saal pehle."

"The thirty-three crore devi-devta came from G2 — 198 crore years ago."

BAPUJI INSIGHT

"Jo sarjan karta hai wahi visarjan karta hai"

"The one who creates is the very one who dissolves."

BAPUJI INSIGHT

“33 karod devi aur 33 koti devta — 66 karod. Ye saakari bhi hain, aakari bhi hain.”

“Thirty-three crore goddesses and thirty-three crore gods — sixty-six crore. They are in human form and in subtle form.”

BAPUJI INSIGHT

“Bade se bade bhogi bhi, aavaran hat jaaye to yogi ban jaayenge.”

“Even the greatest pleasure-seeker, once the covering falls away, becomes a yogi.”

BAPUJI INSIGHT

“Alien maana bahar se aaye hue log. Hamare devi-devta bhi to upar se aate the.”

“Alien means those who came from outside. And our devi-devta too used to come from above.”

BAPUJI INSIGHT

“Ram Mandir ke udghaatan par ye divya aatmayein Sanatan Dharm ko bachaane ke liye neeche aayi thi.”

“At the inauguration of the Ram Mandir, these divine souls came down to protect Sanatan Dharm.”

BAPUJI INSIGHT

“Yada yada hi dharmasya glanir bhavati Bharata — jab jab dharmglani ka samay aata hai, tab tab main aata hoon, asuron ka vinash karta hoon aur devtaon ki raksha karta hoon.”

“Whenever righteousness declines, O Bharata — then I come, I destroy the asuras, and I protect the devtas.”

BAPUJI INSIGHT

“2027 tak sab jaag jaayein aur param shanti ke vibration phaila dein, to ye vinash ruk sakta hai.”

“If all wake by 2027 and spread the vibrations of Param Shanti, this destruction can be stopped.”

BAPUJI INSIGHT

“Jaagna hi padega. Ye majboori ban jaayegi. Samay jagaayega.”

“They will have to wake. It will become a compulsion. Time itself will wake them.”

BAPUJI INSIGHT

“Samay ka intezaar mat karo. Behad ke aakari bapuji ne samay ko rok rakha hai.”

“Do not wait for time. The eternal Father has held time back.”

BAPUJI INSIGHT

“Main japa-tapa aur dhyaan-yog se nahi milta. Main gyan se milta boon. Aur gyani aatma mujhe vishesh priya hai.”

“I am not found through ritual and meditation alone. I am found through knowledge. And the soul of knowledge is especially dear to me.”

BAPUJI INSIGHT

“Sankalp hi vibration hai. Brahma ne sankalp se hi srishti banayi.”

“Thought itself is vibration. Brahma created the whole creation through thought alone.”

BAPUJI INSIGHT

“Pyaar hi power hai. Pyaar nahi hoga to power nahi aayega, na aatm-swaroop banoge.”

“Love itself is power. Without love, no power comes, and you cannot become soul-conscious.”

BAPUJI INSIGHT

“Chitra mein vichitra ko yaad karoge to charitravan ban jaoge.”

“Remember the soul-point within the form, and you will become full of virtue.”

BAPUJI INSIGHT

“Aatma ka mool swabhav hi param shant swaroop hai.”

“The soul’s very own original nature is the form of supreme peace.”

BAPUJI INSIGHT

“Apne ghar ko lighthouse banana hai. Hamein sabko badalna hai — badla nahi lena hai.”

“We must make our home a lighthouse. We must change everyone — not take revenge.”

BAPUJI INSIGHT

“Behad ki aatma mein behad ki kala ka power hai. Unke sankalp behad ki kala ke Brahmand tak jaayenge.”

“The behad soul carries the power of behad kala. Their thoughts will reach up to the behad-kala Brahmands.”

BAPUJI INSIGHT

“Bina tyaaag aur tapasya kuch nahi milne wala. Sabke liye kaayda ek samaan hai. Law is law.”

“Without sacrifice and penance, nothing is received. The rule is the same for all. Law is law.”

BAPUJI INSIGHT

“Jo sahyogi hain, unhe bhi helpline milegi — unhe kaal agni mein jalna nahi padega.”

“Those who are supporters also receive a helpline — they will not have to burn in the kaal agni.”

“Atomic bombs will explode abroad, but we will save Bharat. Bharat will stay neutral, it will stay at peace.”

BAPUJI INSIGHT

“Bharat vishwa guru banega. Bharat sone ki chidiya banega. Aadi Sanatan devi-devta dharm ka raajya Bharat mein sthaapit hoga.”

“Bharat will become the world teacher. Bharat will become the golden bird. The rule of the eternal Sanatan devi-devta dharma will be established in Bharat.”

BAPUJI INSIGHT

“Sanatan ka matlab hi avinaashi. Maha Sanatan maana behad ka Param Maha Brahm hi Sanatan hai.”

“The very meaning of Sanatan is the imperishable. The great Sanatan means the Supreme Great Brahm of the behad — that alone is Sanatan.”

BAPUJI INSIGHT

“Swa parivartan se vishwa parivartan — param shanti se sabko bhar do.”

“From self-change to world-change — fill everyone with Param Shanti.”

GLOSSARY

Simple meanings of the Hindi and Sanskrit terms used in this book, for readers who are new to Bapuji's teachings.

33 Koti Devi-Devta — The thirty-three crore gods and goddesses spoken of in the scriptures. Koti has two meanings — crore (a number) and 'type' or 'category'. These are divine souls who came into this Brahmand long ago and are now mostly living as human beings.

Aadi Shakti — The Primordial Mother — the original, eternal divine feminine power who has presided over the cosmos since the dawn of creation, and who shall continue to govern it until the moment of cosmic dissolution.

Aatma (Soul) — The conscious, eternal being within everybody - distinct from the body, the senses, and the mind. It is the true self. The soul is the source of all life and all awareness.

Aavaran — A covering. The layers of body, mind, conditioning, and karma that cover the soul and hide its original identity.

Adi — Origin. That which comes into existence at a particular time. Soul that is created, manifested, born.

Aditya — One of the twelve Adityas — the twelve aspects of the Sun among the devtas.

Akari — This is subtle form of a soul i.e. the form created out of energy emitted from soul. This is a form created by energy. This form is not visible to our physical eye as it is in subtle form.

Almighty Authority — The Supreme Master Creator of the Behad - the limitless world of creation. The highest being in all of infinite existence. The ultimate source of all power. The Great-Great-Grandfather of every soul.

Amar Lok — The immortal world; a realm of supreme element where physical death does not exist. a state of existence beyond birth and death.

Anadi — The eternal, beginningless light form of the soul - prior to all embodiment, prior to even subtle form. At this point, time itself does not exist. A self-realised soul alone remembers this, its Anadi form.

Anant Koti — Infinite crores; an uncountable number.

Ardh Pralay — A partial dissolution at the end of each chaturyug, when the asuras are burned away and the good souls pass into a new Satyug.

Asur — A demon; a soul that has fallen under negative tendencies. Bapuji says even an asura is a powerful soul at heart, hidden under a covering of karma.

Atma Gyan — Knowledge of the soul's true identity.

Atma Swaroop — The state of dwelling in the soul's original nature - identifying fully with the soul, not the body. This is the foundation of spiritual practise/ knowledge.

Avinaashi — Imperishable — that which cannot be destroyed. Eternally indestructible. It is beyond time, that means time has no effect on this. This is timeless.

Avyakt — Unmanifest. Not expressed in gross material form. Avyakt refers to realms, energies, consciousness, or beings that exist beyond ordinary physical visibility.

Behad Gyan — The supreme knowledge of the Almighty Authority and His vast, limitless, infinite creation. This is the supreme truth revealed through Bapuji - realised directly by him through divine vision, the Third Eye.

Behad ka Baap — He is the supreme master creator of this limitless vast creation. So he can be called as the Supreme Father or Almighty Authority. He is the ultimate source of power of all creations. Beyond Multiverse.

Behad ki Atma — A cosmic soul of infinite power. Behad means beyond limits. Behad ki Atma are souls of immense power, constituted of supreme divine light. They have travelled across galaxies, universes, and vast dimensions of creation.

Behad ki Kala ka Paramdham — This is the supreme abode of highest dimension of creation whose power is inestimable or infinite. This is the abode of Almighty Authority, who is the supreme master creator of this vast creation.

Behad Viman — A celestial vehicle of supreme light that carries Behad souls to the Supreme Abode.

Bhavatit — Rising above all feeling and emotion through the realisation of supreme knowledge. A state in which the soul transcends every material attachment, holding on to no worldly emotion at all.

Bhuvar Lok — The subtle world just above the Earth, home to beings such as the gandharva and kinnar.

Brahm Gyan — The complete knowledge of the cosmos - from its origin to its dissolution. It is the knowledge of how creation began, by whom, the laws that govern its entire cosmic span, and how it finally dissolves.

Brahma — The creator of souls within our solar system; the source through whom Shiv initiates creation.

Brahmand — Our solar system-one unit of creation. In Bapuji's knowledge, Brahmand refers specifically to a solar system-one universe created by Shiv. There are countless such Brahmands inside a single galaxy. Our own solar system is our Brahmand. .

Chaturyug — One complete cycle of four yugas on earth, totalling 4,320,000 years Refer cosmic timetable

Chitra — The image or form of the Almighty. Bapuji teaches remembering the vichitra (the soul-point) within the chitra to draw power.

Devta — A deity; a being existing in a three-element body in the higher worlds of creation called as Heaven.

Dharma — Righteousness; the spiritual law of right conduct.

Dharma Glani — The great decline of righteousness. The Gita says that whenever dharma declines, the Divine comes to protect it.

Farishta — An angel; a being created by Brahma with a body of param tatva.

G2 (Great-Great Universe) — In Bapuji's simple code, G1 is the Great Universe, G2 the Great-Great Universe, and so on, up to G17. The thirty-three crore devi-devta came from G2.

Gandharva — A class of celestial beings of the higher worlds, gifted in music, now also come down to Earth.

Grihastha Ashram — The householder's life. In Sanatan spiritual tradition, human life is traditionally divided into four ashrams.1.

Gunatit — Beyond the three qualities of sato, rajo and tamo; a state the soul reaches on the way to liberation.

Gyan — Knowledge; specifically, divine or transcendental knowledge.

Gyan Ganj — The legendary hidden centre of divine knowledge within the Himalayas, confirmed by Bapuji as a real place. The place is in three elements , Avyakt form hence cannot be visible in gross world

Havan — A sacred fire offering. In ancient times people made havan and yajna to the devtas of the five elements to draw their power.

Ichha Matram Avidya — Any desire, by its very nature, is ignorance. The soul in its pure state needs nothing. It is already whole, already at peace — complete in itself. But the moment desire arises, that completeness is broken.

Indra — The king of the devtas, the ruler of Swarga. Bapuji notes that even Indra, king of the thirty-three crore devtas, fell to a very low state.

Jal Pralay — The great flood. In the coming destruction, intense heat melts all ice into water before the final fire.

Jeevan Mukti — Jivanmukti is the state where the soul frees itself completely from all karmic accounts. Every covering that hid its true nature falls away, and the soul comes to know its Creator fully — not as an idea, but as direct realization.

Kaal Agni — Kaal Agni is the cosmic fire that consumes time itself. The fire transcending time.

Kalaa — Kalaa is a unit of measurement of power of the soul .

Kaliyug — The Iron Age; the fourth and final yuga of a "chaturyug", lasting 432,000 years. The age of darkness; the final era in the four-age cycle (chaturyug) of cosmic time on earth.

Kalki — In Hindu belief, the final avatar who comes at the end of the age to end unrighteousness and restore dharma.

Kalp — One day of Brahma; equals 1,000 Chaturyug or 4.32 billion Earth years .

Kalp Pralay — The great dissolution at the end of one day of Brahma, when the three worlds end and even the Earth burns to ash before being made again.

Karma Bandhan — Karma Bandhan is the entanglement created by both past and present actions — the invisible chain that binds the soul to this world. The chain forms in a simple sequence: ignorance gives rise to desire, and desire gives rise to action.

Karmatit — This is the state beyond karma — where the soul stands free from the bondage of all past and present actions.

Kinnar — A class of celestial beings of the higher worlds who have also taken form on Earth.

Kumbhakaran Nidra — A very deep sleep, named after Kumbhakaran from the Ramayana. Bapuji uses it for the deep spiritual sleep of the divine souls who have forgotten who they are.

Lighthouse — A soul, or a home, that is filled with Param Shanti. Like a lighthouse gives light to ships, such a soul gives peace to every soul that comes near it.

Maha Brahm — The Great Brahm, Mahashiv, the maker of countless Brahmands. Through a single thought He brings forth a whole galaxy of creations.

Maha Brahmand — A Maha Brahmand is a galaxy — a vast cosmic structure within which billions of solar systems revolve in their own orbits. Our own Maha Brahmand is the Milky Way, and within it, our solar system finds its place — one among billions.

Maha Tattva — A very fine layer of supreme element around the pure soul, called the “might,” which holds the soul’s entire record until knowledge wipes it clean.

Mahakaal Pralay — Mahakaal Pralaya is the Great Dissolution at the scale of the galaxy — the Maha Brahmand itself.

Manvantar — A great cosmic era. A Manvantar is a vast unit of cosmic time. One Manvantar contains 71.4 smaller time cycles i.e. 71.4 “chatuyug”. In each Manvantar, seven Brahm Rishis descend from seven other solar systems to transmit knowledge.

Maya — Maya is the illusory power of the material world — the force that causes the soul to forget its own true nature. It creates the world of attachment and suffering in which most souls find themselves bound.

Mrityu Lok — The mortal realm — the world of death. the soul, having descended through the higher realms, takes a body of all five elements. This Earth, this physical existence, is Mrityu Lok — the realm of death. Everything here is temporary.

Mukti — Freedom; liberation from the cycle of birth and death. Same as moksha. the stage when soul no longer exist in the creation. It dissolves in its creator.

Multiverse — The cosmic scale that contains many Universes, Great Universes, Great-great universes and beyond up to G17 (great geat \-\\-\-- 17 times universes) layers of universe.

Nashto Moha — The end of attachment. The destruction of attachment to the body and its relationships — reached through Param Gyan and the life of a Karma Yogi. When the soul's original divine memory returns, true detachment becomes possible.

Navratnas — The Nine Gems; the first nine souls created at the start of a multiverse, extremely powerful because they were made when the creator held full power.

Nimit — An instrument; a soul who becomes a chosen instrument for spreading Param Shanti and earns great fortune.

Nirakari — This is formless state of a soul. This is the true divine state of a soul when soul is in the form of divine light. This is also called as the incorporeal state of a soul. In this state soul is termed as supreme soul.

Nirvikari — Free from vices; a state of purity beyond desire, anger, greed, attachment and ego.

Nisankalp — The thoughtless state; complete stillness of mind. When the highest souls become nisankalp, the whole world begins to grow still.

Nishkam Karma Yogi — One who acts without any selfish desire, offering every action for the welfare of all.

Panch Tattva — The five elements: earth, water, fire, air, and ether.

Param Maha Brahmand — A universe. The larger structure within which galaxies are contained.

Param Prakash — The Supreme Divine Light described in the Sanatan scriptures as the power of Brahma, or Brahma itself. It is pure, silent, and beyond all thoughts (Sankalp) and disturbance.

Param Purush — The seven supreme beings created by Brahma through thought at the start of creation, from whom the seven upper worlds arose.

Param Shanti — The Supreme Peace — the original state of the soul when it unites with the Supreme Soul through Yog. In this state, the soul is completely free of desire, utterly silent, without a single affirmation stirring within it.

Param Tattva — A Param Tattva is a finer, purer, and more powerful form of a Tattva (element). It possesses far greater energy and creative power to transform and manifest the soul's affirmations.

Param Vayu — The finer, purified version of the gross air element (Vayu). It may also be called Karan Vayu — the causal form of air. Param Vayu carries a far greater presence of Chetan Shakti, the conscious energy of Param Prakash, the divine light.

Paramdham — The Supreme Abode — the original home of souls. Paramdham is the highest dimension within a solar system, a realm of pure divine light where the Creator resides in formless state. Souls in Paramdham exist in complete peace and bliss.

Parardh — A unit of cosmic time within the lifespan of Lord Brahma. One Parardh (50 Brahma years) of the present Brahma has been completed; we are presently within the second.

Purusharth — The effort and discipline undertaken by a seeker of truth to realize the Supreme Truth and escape the cycle of birth and death.

Qayamat — In Islamic belief, the Day of Judgment; the end-time. Bapuji shows it points to the same final time as Kalki and Judgment Day.

Rudra — One of the eleven Rudras — the eleven fierce forms of Shiv among the devtas.

Sahyogi — A supporter; a soul who helps in sharing knowledge and world welfare, and so receives a helpline at the final hour.

Sakari — The soul acquiring a gross, physical body within this visible, material world of creation. Sakar means "having physical form" — the gross body itself. The physical stage of the soul.

Sanatan Dharm — Before any religion established on earth, there is one religion since the beginning of creation which is eternal that is called Sanatan Dharm. Hindu religion is also known as Adi sanatan Dharm i.e.

Sankalp — / Sankalpa: A divine intention or resolution of soul. Sankalp is not an ordinary wish — it is an intention charged with power of soul.

Sankalp Shakti — It is power of affirmation of a soul. When soul has tremendous power, it can manifest creation through affirmation. When soul has no power then power of affirmation becomes ineffective.

Satyug — The first and most elevated of the four Yugas (Chaturyuga), known as the Golden Age. It is the age of complete

Shankar — The deity who resides at Kailash with Parvati. In Shukracharya — The guru of the asuras. Bapuji says he carries deep tendencies of destruction and has always stood against Sanatan Dharm.

Sone ki Chidiya — The golden bird — the name once given to Bharat in its age of glory. Bapuji says Bharat will become the golden bird once again.

Spandan — Vibration. The effect that arises from sankalp/ a deep thought. The sankalp is the cause; the spandan is the effect that radiates out into the atmosphere.

Stchool Jagat — The physical world made of gross elements

Sukshm Jagat — The subtle world, invisible to the physical eye.

Swa Parivartan — The transformation of the soul's Sanskar — its habits and impressions. At present, the soul lives under the influence of negative Sanskar drawn from the external world, recorded deep within its causal body.

Tamo Pradhan — Ruled by the dark, heavy quality (tamo). The present atmosphere and even the five elements have become tamo-pradhan.

Tapasya — Spiritual austerity. Is deep- intense spiritual austerity and discipline sustained across many lifetimes.

Tridev — The three deities of a Brahmand — Brahma who creates, Vishnu who sustains, and Shankar who dissolves.

Trigunatit — Beyond the three qualities (sato, rajo, tamo); a stage on the path to the formless, liberated state.

Universe — The cosmic scale that contains many Galaxies. The owner of a Universe is the Param Mahashiv. In Bapuji's cosmology, the Universe is far greater than what is commonly meant by the word in everyday English.

Vairagya — Detachment. living in the world while remaining inwardly free from any attachment and bondage towards the gains and losses of this world. Inner withdrawal from illusion (maya).

Varuna — The deity of the waters, justice, and truth, among the thirty-three crore devtas.

Vikarma Vinash — The destruction of effects of negative actions of soul.

Visbnu — The divine being who emerged from Shiv-Shakti; the cosmic principle of sustenance and preservation.

“Gyan Daan Maha Daan”

Sharing Knowledge is the Highest Charity

— Bapuji Dashrathbhai Patel

This book is a powerful invitation to remember who you truly are.

It is a call to awaken the 33 Koti
Devi-Devta who are no longer recognized outside—but are sleeping within human consciousness itself.
The time has come to awaken from the illusion of body-consciousness and reclaim the original divine state of the soul.

Through profound spiritual insights, this book explores the journey from ordinary human awareness to divine awareness, revealing the forgotten science of the soul, the true meaning of the 33 Koti Devi-Devta, and humanity's original divine destiny.

The awakening has already begun.
Now it is your turn to remember.
